Sasbadi wins RM6.5m textbook publishing contracts

KUALA LUMPUR: Sasbadi Holdings Bhd has accepted contracts from the Ministry of Education to publish and print textbook packages for Chinese national-type primary schools in the country worth a combined sum of RM6.5mil.

According to the group, its unit, Sasbadi Sdn Bhd, will publish and print Year 3 mathematics and arts education textbook packages for a total sum of RM3.6mil

Meanwhile, Sasbadi's indirectly owned subsidiary, The Malaya Press Sdn Bhd, will publish and print the Year 3 Chinese Language textbook package for a sum of RM2.92mil

Each of the contracts will run until Dec 31, 2020. In a filing with the stock exchange, the group said the contracts will not have any material effect on the earnings and net assets of the group for the financial year ending Aug 31, 2018, as the first tranche of the contracts worth RM3.9mil is only expected to be delivered in the first half of the next financial year.

"In this regard, the contracts are only expected to contribute positively to the earnings and net assets of the Sasbadi Holdings Group for the financial year ending Aug 31, 2019 onwards, during the duration of the contracts," it said.
