3. Group's Prospects

The Group will remain cautious of the economic outlook for the year 2023 especially of the uncertainties relating to the domestic and global demand amid the continuous effort by the Malaysian government to contain the rising cost of living, strengthening the Ringgit Malaysia and introducing various policies to improve the economy. The Group believed that its sound fundamentals and business models will help it to achieve sustainable revenue amid facing the persistent external uncertainties. The Group will keep abreast of the current developments and will be taking the appropriate measures to minimise any disruptions to the Group's operation and sales.

The Board expects that the performance of the Group will be satisfactory and remain positive for the next financial year ending 31 March 2024, despite facing various challenges from the competitive and uncertain markets.

4. Board of Directors' Opinion on Revenue or Profit Estimate, Forecast, Projection or Internal Targets

The Group does not announce or disclose any revenue or profit estimate, forecast, projection or internal targets in a public document.

5. Variance of Actual Profit from Profit Forecast

The disclosure requirements for explanatory notes for the variance of actual profit after tax and non-controlling interest and forecasted profit after tax and non-controlling interest and for the shortfall in profit guarantee are not applicable.
