- Oversupply of LNG carriers and lack of demand for LNG continue to plague the market, hence putting pressure on rates.
- Vessel availability remains strong up to 40 vessels remained idle waiting for employment in Gibraltar, Fujairah, Singapore and Brunei.
- In near term, freight rates are not expected to improve as LNG market still facing oversupply of vessels.
- Demand from Far East countries which accounts for 70% of LNG imports (Japan, China & Korea) fell during May and June as they had accumulated ample stock in April.
- In China, coal has been the preferred choice of China's power companies since the beginning of the year as it is cheaper than LNG.
