Time Maintains Steady Trajectory for 1H 2025

- Consolidated Group revenue increased by 4.5% to RM874.3 million.
- Profit after tax rose to RM216.8 million.
- Demand remained resilient for the Group's data offerings with Retail and Enterprise customers driving growth.

Shah Alam, 27 August 2025 – TIME dotCom (Time or the Group) announced steady financial results for the six months ended 30 June 2025. Consolidated Group revenue rose to RM874.3 million, a 4.5% increase compared to the same period last year. Growth was driven by sustained demand for the Group's data and connectivity services, with the Retail and Enterprise customer segments continuing to anchor performance.

Profit after tax increased to RM216.8 million, supported by revenue growth and disciplined cost management. The increase can be attributed to higher topline growth, partially offset by higher net foreign exchange loss, lower interest income and share of results from investments.

"Our performance in the first half of the year reflects the resilience of our core business and the continued relevance of our offerings," said Afzal Abdul Rahim, Time's outgoing Commander-in-Chief. "We maintain a positive yet measured outlook as we sharpen our execution and prepare for the opportunities and challenges ahead."

"Time's growth has been driven by our coverage footprint, and this will remain the core engine for delivering future success. We will continue investing in our network to unlock new opportunities," said Loh Jenkim, Time's incoming Group CEO.

Alongside its core business, the Group is scaling up its efforts in renewable energy and the integration of sustainability principles into its operations and decision-making processes.

Looking ahead, the Group will maintain a prudent stance amid a shifting economic and industry landscape, with a focus on operational efficiency, agility and risk management to drive future resilience and growth.
