Intended Outcome

Every company is headed by a board, which assumes responsibility for the company's leadership and is collectively responsible for meeting the objectives and goals of the company.

Practice 1.1

The board should set the company's strategic aims, ensure that the necessary resources are in place for the company to meet its objectives and review management performance. The board should set the company's values and standards, and ensure that its obligations to its shareholders and other stakeholders are understood and met.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The Board of Directors ("Board") of Sunview Group Berhad ("Sunview" or "the Company") is collectively responsible for overseeing the conduct and sustainability of the Company and its subsidiaries' ("the Group") business, assuming the responsibility for succession planning, reviewing the risk management process and internal control system to minimise the downside risks for the Group and to ensure compliance with the relevant rules and regulations applicable to the Group. The Board has the responsibility of leading and directing the Group towards realising long term corporate objectives and increasing shareholders' value. The Board retains full and effective control of the Group's strategic plans, implements an appropriate system of risk management and ensures the adequacy and integrity of the Group's system of internal control. For the effective function of the Board, the Board has delegated specific responsibilities to the following Board Committees within their respective Terms of Reference ("TOR"):- <ul style="list-style-type: none">a. Audit and Risk Management Committee ("ARMC");b. Nomination Committee ("NC"); andc. Remuneration Committee ("RC"); The ultimate responsibility for the final decision on all matters deliberated in these committees, however, lies with the Board. In addition, the Chairman of the relevant Board Committees also reports to the Board on key issues discussed during the respective committee meetings. The Board is responsible for the overall corporate governance, strategic direction, and corporate goals and therefore, monitors the achievement of these goals. It provides effective leadership and

	manages overall control of the Group's affairs through the discharge of the following principal duties and responsibilities:- <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Overseeing and evaluating the conduct, governance and sustainability of the business of the Group. • Reviewing and adopting the overall strategic direction, business plans and annual budget of the Group, including major capital commitments. • Establishing key performance indicators and ensuring that key senior management has the necessary skills and experience for the orderly succession of the Board and Key Senior Management. • Reviewing and approving new ventures, major acquisitions and disposals of undertakings and properties. • Identifying principal risks and ensuring the implementation of appropriate systems to manage and monitor significant financial and non-financial risks. • Reviewing the adequacy and integrity of the Group's internal control systems, risk management and management information systems. • Assessing the training needs of the Directors and ensure the Directors have access to a continuing education programme. • Ensuring for the quality and completeness of the financial statements of the Group and ensuring that they are prepared based on the appropriate and consistently applied accounting policies. • Ensuring that the general meetings of the Company are conducted efficiently and serve as a mode of shareholders' communication. The Board Charter serves as a reference point for Board activities. It is designed to provide guidance and clarity for the Directors and management with regards to the roles of the Board and its Committees, the requirements of Directors in carrying out their roles and in discharging their duties towards the Company as well as the Board's operating practices. The Board has also established a Code of Ethics and Conduct which serves as an internal frame of reference for the Directors and employees of the Group in the conduct of their daily activities. The Code of Ethics and Conduct is incorporated in the Board Charter of the Company. The Board Charter and the TOR of the respective committees are available on the Company's website at www.sunview.com.my.

The positions of Chairman and CEO are held by different individuals.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The position of Independent Non-Executive Chairman and the Group Executive Director/Group Chief Executive Officer ("GED/GCEO") are held by two (2) different individuals, namely En. Zulkifly Bin Zakaria and Mr. Ong Hang Ping respectively. The Chairman and the GED/GCEO are not related to each other. The distinct and separate roles and responsibilities of the Independent Non-Executive Chairman and the GED/GCEO are provided in Paragraph 2.3 of the Board Charter, which is available at www.sunview.com.my. There is a clear division of roles and responsibilities between the Independent Non-Executive Chairman and the GED/GCEO to ensure a balance of power and authority to promote accountability, such that no one individual has unfettered decision-making powers. The Independent Non-Executive Chairman is responsible for the leadership, effectiveness, conduct and governance of the Board. The Board has delegated its responsibilities for the day-to-day management of the Group's operations and business as well as the implementation of the Board's policies and decisions to the Group Executive Director ("GED") and Key Senior Management of the Company. The GED/GCEO, GED/Group Chief Operating Officer ("GED/GCOO") and GED/Group Chief Project Development Officer ("GED/GCPDO") (collectively, the GED/GCEO, GED/GCOO and GED/GCPDO are referred to as "Executive Board Members") are responsible for the implementation of the Board's policies and decisions, entrusted by the Board with the responsibility to manage the Group's day-to-day business operations and resources.

Intended Outcome

Every company is headed by a board, which assumes responsibility for the company's leadership and is collectively responsible for meeting the objectives and goals of the company.

Practice 1.4

The Chairman of the board should not be a member of the Audit Committee, Nomination Committee or Remuneration Committee

Note: If the board Chairman is not a member of any of these specified committees, but the board allows the Chairman to participate in any or all of these committees' meetings, by way of invitation, then the status of this practice should be a 'Departure'.
Application	:	Departure
Explanation on application of the practice	:
Explanation for departure	:	The Chairman of the Board, En. Zulkifly is not a member of the ARMC, NC and RC of the Company. He was invited to the meetings to provide inputs on the matters discussed during the meetings. However, he did not participate in the decision making of the resolutions, proposals and matters tabled for approval during the meetings. The Chairman of the Board does not have any conflict of interest in all aspects of the Group nor family relationships with any Directors or major shareholders of the Company which may affect his independence or influence his judgement. The Board is of the view that with diverse skills and competencies of the individual Directors, especially Independent Directors, who are appointed to form a competent and strong Board, the Chairman's participation at the committee level should be determined by his ability to contribute and participate, as much as the need for objectivity. The Board also believes that the objectivity in receiving or assessing committees' reports has not been diminished in any way.

Practice 1.5

The board is supported by a suitably qualified and competent Company Secretary to provide sound governance advice, ensure adherence to rules and procedures, and advocate adoption of corporate governance best practices.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The Board is supported by three (3) Company Secretaries, who are experienced and qualified to act as Company Secretaries under Section 235(2) of the Companies Act 2016 ("Act") and are registered holders of the Practising Certificate issued by the Companies Commission of Malaysia. The Company Secretaries play an important role in facilitating overall compliance with the Act, ACE Market Listing Requirements ("Listing Requirements") of Bursa Malaysia Securities Berhad ("Bursa Securities") and other relevant laws and regulations. The Company Secretaries also assist the Board and Board Committees to function effectively and in accordance with their TOR and best practices and ensure adherence to the existing Board policies and procedures. In order to discharge the roles effectively, the Company Secretaries have consistently participated in relevant training programmes, conferences, seminars and/or forums organised by authorities and professional bodies. This ensures they stay updated on corporate governance development and regulatory changes pertinent to their role, enabling them to provide valuable advisory services to the Board. The Board has direct access to the professional advice and services of the Company Secretaries when performing their duties and discharging their responsibilities. During the financial period under review, the Board and Board Committees' meetings were properly convened, accurate and proper records of the proceedings and resolutions passed were taken and maintained in the statutory records of the Company. Overall, the Board is satisfied with the performance and support rendered by the Company Secretaries and the team to the Board in the discharge of their duties and functions.

Practice 1.6

Directors receive meeting materials, which are complete and accurate within a reasonable period prior to the meeting. Upon conclusion of the meeting, the minutes are circulated in a timely manner.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	To facilitate the Directors' time planning, an annual meeting calendar was prepared and circulated in advance prior to the new calendar year by the Company Secretaries. The calendar provides the Directors with scheduled dates for meetings of the Board and Board Committees as well as the Annual General Meeting ("AGM"). The closed periods for dealings in securities by Directors and principal officers based on the scheduled dates of meetings for making announcements of the Group's quarterly results were also provided therein. The notices of Board and Board Committees meetings together with the meeting papers are generally furnished to the Board members within five (5) working days prior to the dates of meetings. This is to ensure that the Directors have sufficient preparation time and information to make an informed decision at each meeting. The deliberations and conclusions of matters discussed in the Board or Board Committees meetings are duly recorded in the minutes of meetings. The draft minutes are circulated for the Board or Committee Chairman's review within a reasonable timeframe after the meetings. The meeting minutes accurately captured the deliberations and decisions of the Board and/or the Board Committees, including whether any Director abstains from voting or deliberating on a particular matter. All the records of proceedings and resolutions passed are kept at the registered office of the Company. For matters which require the Board's decision on an urgent basis outside of board meetings, relevant supporting documents along with the Directors' Written Resolution will be circulated for the Board's consideration. All written resolutions approved by the Board will be tabled for notation at the next board meeting.

Practice 5.1

The Nomination Committee should ensure that the composition of the board is refreshed periodically. The tenure of each director should be reviewed by the Nomination Committee and annual re-election of a director should be contingent on satisfactory evaluation of the director's performance and contribution to the board.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The NC oversees the overall composition of the Board in terms of size, a mix of skills, experience and core competencies, as well as the balance between Executive Directors and Independent Non-Executive Directors. The effectiveness of the Board as a whole and the contribution of each Director to the effectiveness of the Board and the contribution of the Board's various committees will be assessed on an annual basis. The Board acknowledges the recommendation by the Malaysian Code on Corporate Governance ("MCCG") that the tenure of an Independent Director should not exceed a cumulative term of nine (9) years. However, if the Board intends to retain a Director who has served as an Independent Director of the Company for a cumulative term of more than nine (9) years, the Board must justify its decision and seek the shareholders' approval through a two-tier voting process at a general meeting. Furthermore, the Board recognises that as per the Listing Requirements of Bursa Securities, the tenure of an Independent Director should not exceed a cumulative term of twelve (12) years. During the financial period under review, none of our Directors have served the Board as an Independent Non-Executive Director of the Company for a cumulative term of more than nine (9) years. The annual re-election of retiring Directors has been contingent on a satisfactory evaluation of the retiring Directors' performance and contribution to the Board. In addition, the Directors' Fit and Proper Policy serves as a guide to NC and the Board for the appointment and re-election of Directors of the Group. The Directors' Fit and Proper Policy is available on the Company's website at www.sunview.com.my.

Practice 5.4 - Step Up

The board has a policy which limits the tenure of its independent directors to nine years without further extension.

Note: To qualify for adoption of this Step Up practice, a listed issuer must have a formal policy which limits the tenure of an independent director to nine years without further extension i.e. shareholders' approval to retain the director as an independent director beyond nine years.

Application	:	Not Adopted
Explanation on adoption of the practice	:

Intended Outcome

Board decisions are made objectively in the best interests of the company taking into account diverse perspectives and insights.

Practice 5.5

Appointment of board and senior management are based on objective criteria, merit and with due regard for diversity in skills, experience, age, cultural background and gender.

Directors appointed should be able to devote the required time to serve the board effectively. The board should consider the existing board positions held by a director, including on boards of non-listed companies. Any appointment that may cast doubt on the integrity and governance of the company should be avoided.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The Board acknowledges the importance of taking into account the diversity in the skills, experience, age and race/ethnicity of the existing Board in seeking potential candidate(s). This helps to ensure an appropriate balance between the experienced perspectives of the long-term directors and new perspectives that bring fresh insights to the Board. The Board believes that candidature to the Board should be based on a candidate's merits, capability, experience, skill-sets and integrity. The NC is responsible and takes the lead for the nomination of a new candidate for appointment, reviews and making the necessary recommendations. In this respect, the role of the NC is detailed in its TOR, which is available on the Company's website, www.sunview.com.my. In making its recommendations to the Board, the NC considers and assesses the suitability of a new appointment based on objective criteria, including:- <ul style="list-style-type: none">(a) Qualification;(b) Required competencies, skills, expertise and experience;(c) Specialist knowledge or technical skills;(d) Professionalism and integrity;(e) Time commitment to the Company based on the number of directorships held; and(f) In the case of candidate(s) for the position of Independent Non-Executive Director(s), the NC will also evaluate the candidate(s)' ability to discharge such responsibilities/functions as expected from the Independent Non-Executive Directors. Likewise, the Directors are also required to notify the Chairman of the Board before accepting any new directorship and to indicate the time expected to be spent on the new appointment. The Directors must not hold more than five (5) directorships in listed companies to enable

	Directors to have sufficient time to focus and fulfil their roles and responsibilities effectively. The Board also via the NC, reviews the correct mix of skills, business and professional experiences that should be added to the Board annually or as and when required. The appointment of Key Senior Management was also made with due regard for diversity in skills, experience, age, cultural background and gender. More women representation on the Board and Key Senior Management will be taken into consideration if vacancies arise and when suitable candidates are identified. The Board had adopted the Directors' Fit and Proper Policy to ensure a transparent and rigorous process for the appointment and re-election of Directors of the Group. This policy is available on the Company's corporate website at www.sunview.com.my.

Practice 5.6

In identifying candidates for appointment of directors, the board does not solely rely on recommendations from existing board members, management or major shareholders. The board utilises independent sources to identify suitably qualified candidates.

If the selection of candidates was based on recommendations made by existing directors, management or major shareholders, the Nominating Committee should explain why these source(s) suffice and other sources were not used.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The NC's primary role is to screen, evaluate and recommend new Board member(s) for appointment. The appointment process adheres to formal and transparent practices as endorsed by the MCCG. The NC reviews candidates and recommends them for the Board's approval. In fulfilling this duty, the NC evaluates individual suitability by considering a range of factors, including skills, functional knowledge, expertise, experience, professionalism, integrity, and other commitments that could enhance the Board. In addition to recommendations from current Board members, management, and major shareholders, the Board also considers potential candidates from the industry, with regard to their educational background, skills, and experience. During the FPE 2025, Mr. Oon Jin Hsiong was appointed to the Board on 18 February 2025. The NC has not utilised independent sources to identify the new Director appointed as the NC and the Board is satisfied that the newly appointed director is suitable candidate after an assessment of his qualification, skills and expertise. Although independent sources were not utilised to identify the newly appointed Director, the Board ensured the decision was made in the Company's best interest. Considerations included adherence to the Directors' Fit and Proper Policy, experiences, competency, commitment, independence, potential contributions, and the composition of the existing Board. While independent sources were not employed in this instance, the Board acknowledges the possibility of utilising them in the future to identify qualified candidates as needed.

Practice 5.9

The board comprises at least 30% women directors.

Application	:	Departure
Explanation on application of the practice	:
Explanation for departure	:	During the FPE 2025, the Board comprises seven (7) Directors, out of whom two (2) are female Directors, representing 28.6% female representation at the Board level.
		Women's representation on the Board and in Key Senior Management will be taken into consideration when vacancies arise and suitable candidates are identified, underpinned by the overriding primary aim of selecting the best candidate to support the achievement of the Company's strategic objectives.
		The Board recognises the importance of boardroom diversity and inclusivity in its decision-making process, and thus, has identified the inclusion of more female Directors as a crucial long-term goal. To ensure the successful implementation of this objective, the Board will take incremental steps and establish practical measures within a reasonable timeframe.

Intended Outcome

Companies make informed decisions about the level of risk they want to take and implement necessary controls to pursue their objectives.

The board is provided with reasonable assurance that adverse impact arising from a foreseeable future event or situation on the company's objectives is mitigated and managed.

Practice 10.3 - Step Up

The board establishes a Risk Management Committee, which comprises a majority of independent directors, to oversee the company's risk management framework and policies.

Application	:	Adopted
Explanation on adoption of the practice	:	The ARMC comprises all Independent Non-Executive Directors and its scopes and functions are set out in the TOR which is available on the Company's website at www.sunview.com.my .

Intended Outcome

Companies have an effective governance, risk management and internal control framework and stakeholders are able to assess the effectiveness of such a framework.

Practice 11.1

The Audit Committee should ensure that the internal audit function is effective and able to function independently.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	During the FPE 2025, the internal audit function was outsourced to Augment GC Sdn. Bhd. (“Augment” or “Internal Auditors”), an independent professional firm that is not involved in the operations or decision-making processes of the Group. The Internal Auditors report directly to the Audit and Risk Management Committee, ensuring objectivity and independence in the execution of their responsibilities. Internal audit reports were presented, together with audit findings and recommendations as well as Management’s response and proposed action plans, to the ARMC. In performing their duties, the Internal Auditors have free and unfettered access to information and to meet with any of the department heads or persons in charge. The ARMC obtained assurance from the Internal Auditors confirming that they are, and have been, independent throughout the conduct of the audit engagement in accordance with the terms of all relevant professional and regulatory requirements. On 27 November 2025, the ARMC completed its annual assessment of the Internal Auditors and was satisfied with the overall performance of the Internal Auditors in FPE 2025. Further details of the internal audit activities are disclosed in the ARMC Report and Statement on Risk Management and Internal Control of the Annual Report 2025.
