Practice 1.5

Directors receive meeting materials, which are complete and accurate within a reasonable period prior to the meeting. Upon conclusion of the meeting, the minutes are circulated in a timely manner.

Application	:	Departure
Explanation on application of the practice	:	With effect from August 2017, the Company has implemented paperless environment for all Board and Board Committees meetings, which enables digital access to meeting materials via email and an Application ("App"). The Company Secretary will ensure that the meeting materials are sent via email and at the same time uploaded onto an App as soon as practicable upon receipt from the Management. The Board and Board Committees members are able to access meeting materials and relevant information in a timely and efficient manner, thus improving the Board's and Board Committees' performance and overall effectiveness of decision-making issues. The notice of meetings and meeting materials with the relevant and adequate information are distributed 7 days and 4 days respectively in advance to allow the respective Board and Board Committees members sufficient time to review and analyse the materials, seek any clarification that they may need from Management, consult the Company Secretary or independent advisers prior to the meetings, if necessary, and to raise important issues during the meeting. Meeting agendas are sequenced taking into considerations the complexity of the proposals and whether there are items for approval, discussion or notation by the Board and Board Committees in order for the Board and Board Committees meetings to be more effective and to enable in-depth deliberations of matters. All proceedings of meetings including issues raised, deliberations and decisions of the Board are properly minuted and filed in the statutory records of the Company by the Company Secretary. The Company Secretary will communicate the Board's decisions or recommendations to the relevant management via circulation of draft minutes of meetings in a timely manner upon conclusion of the meetings for appropriate actions to be taken. The Company Secretary will also follow-up with the Management on status of actions taken with reference to the previous minutes of meetings for updating the Board. Action items would stay as matters arising in the minutes of meetings until they are resolved.

Explanation for departure	: Partial departure given that the meeting materials were circulated less than 5 business days in advance of the Board meeting.
Large companies are required to complete the columns below. Non-large companies are encouraged to complete the columns below.
Measure	:
Timeframe	:

Intended Outcome

There is demarcation of responsibilities between the board, board committees and management.

There is clarity in the authority of the board, its committees and individual directors.

Practice 2.1

The board has a board charter which is periodically reviewed and published on the company's website. The board charter clearly identifies–

- the respective roles and responsibilities of the board, board committees, individual directors and management; and
- issues and decisions reserved for the board.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The Company's Board Charter provides guidance and clarity regarding the roles and responsibilities of the Board and the Board Committees, the requirements of Directors in carrying out their roles and in discharging their duties towards the Company as well as the Board's operating practices. The Board Charter will be periodically reviewed and updated in accordance with the needs of the Company and any new regulations that may have an impact on the discharge of the Board's responsibilities. The Board Charter was reviewed and updated in November 2017 to be in line with the practices in the Malaysian Code on Corporate Governance 2017. The Board Charter is available for reference on the Company's website at www.datasonic.com.my.

Intended Outcome

The board is committed to promoting good business conduct and maintaining a healthy corporate culture that engenders integrity, transparency and fairness.

The board, management, employees and other stakeholders are clear on what is considered acceptable behaviour and practice in the company.

Practice 3.1

The board establishes a Code of Conduct and Ethics for the company, and together with management implements its policies and procedures, which include managing conflicts of interest, preventing the abuse of power, corruption, insider trading and money laundering.

The Code of Conduct and Ethics is published on the company's website.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The Board has established the Code of Conduct and Ethics for Directors (Executive and Non-Executive Directors) which describes the standards of business undertaking and ethical behaviour for Directors in the performance and exercise of their duties and responsibilities as Directors of the Company or when representing the Company. The Group's Employee Handbook governs the terms and conditions of employment and the standards of ethics and good conduct expected of the Executive Directors and employees. The Employee Handbook had been revised in April 2018 with changes incorporated in respect of dental and optical benefits, bereavement aid, service awards, maternity leave, overtime allowance, training and development, hotel/accommodation (for overseas), meal allowance, training bond and entitlement, service award etc. The Code of Conduct and Ethics for Directors is made available for reference on the Company's website at www.datasonic.com.my.

Intended Outcome

The board is committed to promoting good business conduct and maintaining a healthy corporate culture that engenders integrity, transparency and fairness.

The board, management, employees and other stakeholders are clear on what is considered acceptable behaviour and practice in the company.

Practice 3.2

The board establishes, reviews and together with management implements policies and procedures on whistleblowing.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The Whistleblowing Policy and Procedures established by the Board applies to all the Directors and employees of the Group and is designed to provide them with proper internal reporting channels and guidance to disclose any wrongdoing or improper conduct relating to unlawful conduct, inappropriate behaviour, malpractices, any violation of established written policies and procedures within the Group or any action that is or could be harmful to the reputation of the Group and/or compromise the interests of the shareholders, clients and the public without fear of reprisal, victimisation, harassment or subsequent discrimination. The Managing Director and/or specific persons specifically directed by him (“Investigator”) will be responsible for carrying out investigation under this Whistleblowing Policy and Procedures. The Investigator is required to report all concerns raised, the status of all pending and on-going investigations, and any action taken or to be taken as a result of the investigations, as well as the status of follow-up actions taken by the Human Resource Department to the Managing Director and/or the Executive Committee as appropriate. The Internal Auditor or the External Auditor may be requested to conduct further investigations as appropriate. In addition, the Management may engage, consult and obtain external legal or other independent professional advice on a case to case basis. A report, amongst other things, including relevant and appropriate recommendations shall be submitted to the Board of Directors for its deliberation and further actions if the outcome of the investigation substantiates that fraudulent or unlawful activities have occurred within the Datasonic Group. The Whistleblowing Policy and Procedures is made available for reference on the Company’s website at www.datasonic.com.my.

Intended Outcome

Board decisions are made objectively in the best interests of the company taking into account diverse perspectives and insights.

Practice 4.1

At least half of the board comprises independent directors. For Large Companies, the board comprises a majority independent directors.

Application	:	Departure
Explanation on application of the practice	:
Explanation for departure	:	The Board comprises fourteen (14) members, six (6) of whom are Independent Non-Executive Directors (“INED”). The Board is mindful that the number of INED is less than the majority of the Board composition. However, the Board is of the opinion that its current Board size of fourteen (14) members comprising of 43% INEDs is effective and appropriate. The Board has a good mix of skills and core competencies in the Board membership. The lack of majority independent directors does not jeopardise independent Board’s deliberations and all decisions are made in the best interest of the Company. For the year under review, the Board through the Nomination and Remuneration Committee has received affirmation from the INEDs of their independence based on the criteria as prescribed by the Main Market Listing Requirements of Bursa Malaysia Securities Berhad.
Large companies are required to complete the columns below. Non-large companies are encouraged to complete the columns below.
Measure	:
Timeframe	:

Intended Outcome

Board decisions are made objectively in the best interests of the company taking into account diverse perspectives and insights.

Practice 4.2

The tenure of an independent director does not exceed a cumulative term limit of nine years. Upon completion of the nine years, an independent director may continue to serve on the board as a non-independent director.

If the board intends to retain an independent director beyond nine years, it should justify and seek annual shareholders' approval. If the board continues to retain the independent director after the twelfth year, the board should seek annual shareholders' approval through a two-tier voting process.

Application	:	Not applicable - No independent director(s) serving beyond 9 years
Explanation on application of the practice	:	There are no independent Directors serving the Board beyond nine (9) years, as set out in the Company's Annual Report 2018.  If the Board intends to retain an Independent Director beyond nine (9) years, it will provide justification and seek annual shareholders' approval.  If the Board continues to retain the independent director after the twelfth (12th) year, it will seek annual shareholders' approval through a two-tier voting process.

Intended Outcome

Board decisions are made objectively in the best interests of the company taking into account diverse perspectives and insights.

Practice 4.3 - Step Up

The board has a policy which limits the tenure of its independent directors to nine years.

Application	:	Not Adopted
Explanation on adoption of the practice	:

Intended Outcome

Board decisions are made objectively in the best interests of the company taking into account diverse perspectives and insights.

Practice 4.4

Appointment of board and senior management are based on objective criteria, merit and with due regard for diversity in skills, experience, age, cultural background and gender.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The appointment of new Directors is under the purview of the Nomination and Remuneration Committee (“NRC”) whose primary responsibilities are to evaluate, assess and recommend candidates for the Board’s approval. The NRC interviews shortlisted candidates before formally considering and recommending them for appointment to the Board. In reviewing and recommending to the Board of any new Director appointment, the NRC considers the candidate’s ability to discharge such responsibilities/function as expected from the Executive Director or Independent Non-Executive Director (“INED”). In the case of the appointment of an INED; the candidate’s competencies, commitment, contribution and performance, skills, knowledge, expertise and experience, professionalism, age, cultural backgrounds, leadership qualities and integrity. The NRC has conducted an annual review on the diversity in skills, experience, age, cultural background and gender of the Directors and Key Senior Management. The Board is of the view that the current Board members and Key Senior Management have an appropriate mix of skills, knowledge, experience, age, ethnicity and gender with diverse professional backgrounds, a wide range of experience and expertise in security; information technology and engineering; project development; corporate management/business; finance/taxation; accounting/auditing; legal and shariah law. This provides a collective range of skills, expertise and experience that fit the Group’s objectives and strategic goals. The appointment of Key Senior Management is also based on criteria of skill, experience and leadership qualities, driven by their respective job descriptions. During the year under review, there is no new appointment of Director or Key Senior Management.

Practice 4.5

The board discloses in its annual report the company's policies on gender diversity, its targets and measures to meet those targets. For Large Companies, the board must have at least 30% women directors.

Application	:	Departure
Explanation on application of the practice	:
Explanation for departure	:	The Board acknowledges and recognises the benefits arising from the boardroom and workforce diversity, including enhancing the Group's performance, improving efficiency and employee retention. Gender diversity includes, but is not limited to, gender, age, ethnicity, culture and socio-economic backgrounds. The Board, through the Nomination and Remuneration Committee, will take steps to ensure that women candidates are also sought as part of its recruitment exercise. Presently, the number of female Directors on the Board is two (2), representing approximately 14% of the total Board composition. In May 2017, the Board had adopted the Gender Diversity Policy and is available for reference on the Company's website at www.datasonic.com.my.

Intended Outcome

Board decisions are made objectively in the best interests of the company taking into account diverse perspectives and insights.

Practice 4.6

In identifying candidates for appointment of directors, the board does not solely rely on recommendations from existing board members, management or major shareholders. The board utilises independent sources to identify suitably qualified candidates.

Application	:	Departure
Explanation on application of the practice	:
Explanation for departure	:	The appointment of new Director to the Board is decided and approved by the Board members based on the recommendation of the Nomination and Remuneration Committee (“NRC”).
		In identifying suitable candidate for appointment of Director, the Board generally take into account recommendations from the Directors, management and various other sources. If necessary, the Board may source the suitable candidate from a Directors’ registry and open advertisements or the use of independent search firms.

Practice 4.7

The Nominating Committee is chaired by an Independent Director or the Senior Independent Director.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The Nomination and Remuneration Committee is chaired by Dato' Zaiful Ayu Ibrahim bin Ibrahim who is an Independent Non-Executive Director of the Company.
Explanation for departure	:
Large companies are required to complete the columns below. Non-large companies are encouraged to complete the columns below.
Measure	:
Timeframe	:

Intended Outcome

Stakeholders are able to form an opinion on the overall effectiveness of the board and individual directors.

Practice 5.1

The board should undertake a formal and objective annual evaluation to determine the effectiveness of the board, its committees and each individual director. The board should disclose how the assessment was carried out and its outcome.

For Large Companies, the board engages independent experts periodically to facilitate objective and candid board evaluations.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The Company Secretary facilitated the Nomination and Remuneration Committee (“NRC”) in carrying out the annual evaluation of the effectiveness of the Board, Board Committees and individual Directors based on questionnaires tailor-made for the Company incorporating practices of the Malaysian Code on Corporate Governance 2017. In May 2018, the NRC reviewed the results of the evaluation exercise and considered the comments given by the Board and Board Committees members and the areas for continuous improvement. The NRC agreed that the Board, Board Committees and each individual Director have performed well and effectively during the year under review. The overall results of the evaluation exercise were satisfactory with the rating ranging from the lowest of 4.21 points to the highest of 4.71 points, on a 5-point rating scale. Based on the NRC’s recommendation, the results of the annual evaluation and the areas for continuous improvement were deliberated and adopted by the Board.

Intended Outcome

The level and composition of remuneration of directors and senior management take into account the company's desire to attract and retain the right talent in the board and senior management to drive the company's long-term objectives.

Remuneration policies and decisions are made through a transparent and independent process.

Practice 6.1

The board has in place policies and procedures to determine the remuneration of directors and senior management, which takes into account the demands, complexities and performance of the company as well as skills and experiences required. The policies and procedures are periodically reviewed and made available on the company's website.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The Company's Remuneration Framework is designed to increase the motivation level and productivity of the Group's employees and ensures that the salary levels are commensurate to the individual staff performance level. The Remuneration Framework will be reviewed and updated periodically. As a general principle, the remuneration of Directors and Key Management Staff (i.e. Directors of the subsidiary companies, Chief Operating Officer and Heads of Departments) should be linked to their level of responsibilities and how well these responsibilities have been discharged by them. The remuneration packages of Executive Directors are to be structured so as to link reward to corporate and individual performance to encourage high performance standard. The fees for Non-Executive Directors should reflect the level of responsibility undertaken by them and their contribution to the effective functioning of the Board. The Remuneration Framework is available for reference on the Company's website at www.datasonic.com.my.
