Management's Discussion

“..... Group’s net profit doubled to RM14.8 million,

..... fuelled by not only the successful integration of SPEED, but also the increased transaction volume from new and existing services.”

Dear Shareholders,

The Board of Directors of My E.G. Services Berhad (“MYEG” or “the Company”) is pleased to present to you the Company’s Annual Report and financial statements for the financial year ended 30 June 2008 (“FY2008”).

Our second year as a public-listed company saw the Group registering commendable growth in overall business operations and financial performance. We can see that E-Government services have gained wider acceptance amongst the public, as evidenced in the increase in transaction volume during the financial year under review.

In line with the Government’s call to develop a knowledge-based society, the Group will remain focused on enhancing the efficiency and effectiveness of our current services to increase customers’ confidence in utilising electronic-based services, as well as ensuring the smooth flow of transactions between the participating government agencies and the general public.

Financial Performance

The Group's revenue reached RM49.3 million in FY2008, showing a significant improvement of 93.4% over RM25.5 million in the previous year. Correspondingly, the Group's net profit attributable to shareholders doubled to RM14.8 million from RM7.1 million in the preceding year. This robust growth was mainly fuelled by not only the successful integration after the acquisition of mySpeed.com Sdn Bhd ("SPEED") in July 2007, but also the increased transaction volume from E-Government services at Jabatan Pengangkutan Jalan ("JPJ")¹ and Jabatan Insolvency Malaysia ("JIM")².

Our earnings growth was also driven by the revision of rates for driving test services in 2007 and to a minor extent, the launch of our online road tax renewal service in April 2008. The road tax renewal service is already indicating its earnings potential, going into the new financial year ending 30 June 2009 ("FY2009").

Shareholders' equity as at 30 June 2008 amounted to RM49.4 million, as compared to RM36.4 million in the previous year. With the operations enjoying strong cash flow, the Group's balance sheet is healthy despite the increase in bank borrowings for the acquisition exercise. As at 30 June 2008, the Group's gearing is still at net cash position, affording us much leeway for further expansion.

At this juncture, the Board of Directors is pleased to propose for shareholders' approval at the forthcoming Annual General Meeting a final tax exempt dividend of 2 sen per share in respect of the FY2008, as compared to 0.693 sen in financial year ended 30 June 2007 ("FY2007"). The proposed dividend would amount to a payout of RM5.05 million, approximately 34.2% of the Group's net profit, which is above the Board's dividend policy of 30% of net profit.

Corporate Exercise – IPO and 1-for-1 Bonus Issue

The Company's Initial Public Offering ("IPO") exercise in January 2007 raised RM14.03 million in proceeds, in which RM8.16 million was utilised in FY2007 and the balance RM5.87 million allocated for capital expenditure was fully disbursed in FY2008. The utilisation of the IPO proceeds is detailed below:

As at 30 June 2008	Proposed utilisation (RM '000)	Amount utilised (RM '000)	Unutilised balance (RM '000)
Capital Expenditure	10,841	10,841	–
Working Capital	1,384	1,382	*2
Estimated Listing Expenses	1,800	1,802	*(2)
Total	14,025	14,025	–

* The deficit had been funded out of proceeds allocated for working capital.

During the financial year under review, the Company undertook a 1-for-1 Bonus Issue and an exercise to increase the Company's authorised share capital to RM50 million, from RM25 million previously. The Bonus Issue, completed in 19 November 2007, resulted in the issued and paid-up capital increasing to RM25.25 million comprising 252.5 million shares of RM0.10 each, from 126.3 million shares previously.

The Bonus Issue was aimed at rewarding our shareholders for their continued support as well as increasing the capital base of the Company to a level that better reflects the Group's current scale of operations. Furthermore, the additional shares in the market would help to improve the liquidity and marketability of the Company's shares.

Future Outlook

The future prospects of the Group remain positive despite the inflationary pressures and impact of higher fuel prices on the economy. Nonetheless, the resilience of the Group's operations will be supported by the expansion of our customer base, as the number of vehicle owners and registered drivers in Malaysia continue to rise. Over and above, our relentless introduction of new services will also be the key factor in sustaining the Group's growth.

The case in point is our recently-launched online road tax renewal, another innovative E-Government service, which was introduced in the last quarter of the financial year under review.

Another E-Government service that followed close on the heels of the online road tax renewal service was the online fuel cash rebate, a collaborative effort between MYEG and Pos Malaysia Berhad. This service enables eligible car owners to claim their fuel cash rebates simultaneously when they renew their road tax via the online channel. The government had introduced the fuel cash rebate scheme to cushion the impact of high fuel prices in May 2008.

Going forward, we will continue to invest in Research and Development ("R&D") to develop more E-Government services.

Meanwhile, with the Government's allocation of RM572.7 million under the Ninth Malaysia Plan to improve E-Government applications, including services provided by the Company, we expect continuous commitment from both the government and the concessionaires to see success in E-Government implementation.

Against the backdrop of strong organic expansion, together with forward-looking government and new pipeline services, the Group anticipates to enter into a new phase of growth.

Management's Discussion (Cont'd)

Corporate Social Responsibility

Whilst we pursue our business in earnestness, we acknowledge our responsibility in no less degree to our employees, business partners and the communities in which we carry out our business activities, as well as to the environment we operate in.

To this end, some of the activities that had been undertaken during the financial year include:

- (i) adopting of health and safety policy and programme to look into the overall welfare of our staff, property and public.
- (ii) providing training and motivation for our staff;
- (iii) recycling of paper based products;

As a responsible corporate citizen, ongoing donations are to be made to various communities and charity-based organisations, be it in cash or in kind.

Corporate Governance

The Board is committed to the adherence and maintenance of the highest standards of Corporate Governance practices within the Group. This sets the foundation in the discharge of our responsibilities, serving the best interests of shareholders, while enhancing the business prosperity of the Group. The measures implemented to ensure good corporate governance are highlighted in the Corporate Governance Statement in this Annual Report.

Acknowledgement

Our sincere appreciation goes to the management and staff for their earnest commitment to the success of the Group.

I would also like to take this opportunity to thank our valued shareholders, bankers, business associates and customers for their continuous support to the Group thus far.

Lastly, my gratitude to the various government agencies and authorities for the successful partnership in providing more E-Government services for the convenience of the public.

Dato' Dr Norraesah binti Haji Mohamad
Executive Chairman

Operational Review

For the financial year under review, the Group's revenues attained a record high of RM49.3 million compared with RM25.5 million of previous year. The tremendous growth was mainly attributed to the full-year contributions from SPEED, which MYEG successfully acquired in July 2007. In effect, for FY2008, SPEED had contributed 23.9%, or RM11.8 million, to the Group's revenues. The impressive financial performance of SPEED was a result of our efforts in integrating the enlarged group's operations.

Excluding SPEED's contribution, the Group's organic growth was a commendable 47.2% year-on-year to RM37.5 million, driven principally by the increase in rates as well as higher transaction volume from our existing E-Government services, most notably, the JPJ's electronic tests of Highway Code and JIM's e-insolvency services.

The adjusted rates for resits of JPJ's electronic tests taking of the Highway Code took effect in December 2006; as such, FY2008 realised the full impact of the adjustment. Correspondingly, the Group's gross margin improved from last financial year's 41.9% to 43.5% in the financial year under review. In addition, the economies of scale derived from the enlarged entity helped to enhance the Group's overall cost efficiency, as evidenced in the better pre-tax margin of 30.0% for the financial year under review, versus 27.9% previously.

Revenues generated from the Group's two strategic business divisions – Government Enterprise Solution ("GES") and Government to Citizen ("G2C") – improved remarkably to RM30.3 million and RM19.0 million respectively, from RM14.3 million and RM11.2 million in the previous year.

The E-Service Centre channel, through which our GES services are delivered, saw a growth to 54 E-Service Centres throughout Malaysia as compared to 28 E-Service Centres in the previous year. Whereas, the G2C services via the E-Service kiosks and the Internet experienced a marked jump in the number of recurring registered users to more than 5,000. The Group now has approximately 140 kiosks in the country.

In April 2008, we launched a new G2C service, namely, online road tax renewal service; and we expect this new service to be an earnings booster, from both the tariff as well as the commission from the automotive insurance. To further facilitate users' convenience, we have placed the majority of our E-Service kiosks in high-traffic vehicle-financing banks, insurance companies, shopping complexes and E-Service Centres, and plan to roll out more kiosks in the coming months. Furthermore, we have initiated an aggressive marketing campaign to raise the awareness of the new service and encourage adoption of the E-Government initiative.

On the whole, the Group's record financial performance for yet another year says as much of our benchmark-setting E-Services as our ability to create shareholders' value.

Research and Development (“R&D”) Review

We recognize that constant R&D is the key driver to ensure sustainable growth of the Group. In the financial year under review, the Group rolled out the online road tax renewal service for JPJ. In addition to that, the Group is now at the final stage of some pipeline projects, namely, the online booking of JPJ’s on the road driving test and online checking of KEJARA demerit points. These services are expected to be introduced in FY2009.

All in, the Group invested RM0.4 million in R&D activities, mainly for the above-mentioned projects during the year under review. Other approval-pending projects include online motor vehicle registration and electronic application of vehicle registration numbers.

As MYEG’s ultimate vision is to elevate the quality of interaction between the Government and the public, we will remain focused on developing a broader range of E-Services for both the existing and potential Government agencies in order to build a continuous pipeline of services for the Group.

Growth Strategy

We opine that Malaysia’s E-Government implementation is on the brink of attaining even higher growth, as there are many services at the various government departments that are still transacted over the counter. On top of that, the current low internet penetration rate of the country says much about the potential market size in the future.

To this end, the Group fully intends to carry on with our product development and market expansion plans in order to capture the anticipated demand amongst the increasingly-savvy Malaysian public.

In addition to the expected rollout of the above-mentioned new services, we will continue to work closely with more government departments to undertake innovative and customer-centric E-Government services in line with delivering efficient services and enhancing public convenience. We believe that providing an extensive range of products and services would attract a broader pool of customers and early adopters to the new level of convenience; hence, effectively enlarge our current customer base.

As for market expansion, we will continue to integrate our nationwide presence to ensure that our E-Service Centres are well spread-out and strategically located, in view of some overlaps arising from the acquisition of SPEED. At the same time, the Group is planning to set up an additional 10 to 15 E-Service Centres in Perak, Pahang and Johor, which will ultimately bring our total E-Service Centres to more than 70.

At the same time, more E-Service kiosks will be deployed in tandem with the potential uptake of the online road tax renewal service. Besides ensuring easy accessibility by the public, these measures are targeted at increasing the brand visibility of MYEG and reinforcing the key messages communicated in our ongoing marketing campaign.

Going forward, the Group remains committed to the delivery of first class E-services in line with the Government’s agenda to promote the use of Information and Communication Technology to access various government services.

This is in compliance with Rule 15.02(1) of the MMLR that at least two (2) Directors or one-third (1/3) of the Board, whichever is the higher, comprise Independent Directors.

A brief profile of each Director is presented on pages 14 to 17 of this Annual Report.

The Executive Directors are primarily responsible for the implementation of policies and decisions of the Board, overseeing the Group’s operations and developing the Group’s business strategies. The role of the Independent Non-Executive Directors is to provide objective and independent judgement to the decision making of the Board and as such, provide an effective check and balance to the Board’s decision making process.

With this composition of members, the Board is satisfied that it fairly reflects the investment of the minority shareholders and represents the required mix of skills and experience required for the effective discharge of the Board’s duties and responsibilities.

There is a clear division of responsibilities between the roles of the Chairman and Managing Director to ensure that there is equilibrium of power and authority in managing and directing the Group. The Chairman is primarily responsible for the effective and efficient conduct and working of the Board whilst the Managing Director oversees the day-to-day management of Group’s business operations and implementation of policies and strategies adopted by the Board.

The Board is of the opinion that the appointment of a Senior Independent Non-Executive Director to whom concerns can be conveyed is not necessary at this stage as the Chairman fully encourages active participation of each and every Board member at the Board meetings.

This responsibility includes designing, implementing and maintaining internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, selecting and applying appropriate accounting policies, and making accounting estimates that are reasonable in the circumstances.

Auditors' Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with approved standards on auditing in Malaysia. Those standards require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on our judgment, including the assessment of risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, we consider internal control relevant to the Company's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates made by the directors, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the financial statements have been properly drawn up in accordance with Financial Reporting Standards and the Companies Act 1965 in Malaysia so as to give a true and fair view of the financial position of the Group and of the Company as of 30 June 2008 and of their financial performance and cash flows for the year then ended.

5. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

(a) Critical Accounting Estimates and Judgements

Estimates and judgements are continually evaluated by the directors and management and are based on historical experience and other factors, including expectations of future events that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstances. The estimates and judgements that affect the application of the Group's and the Company's accounting policies and disclosures, and have a significant risk of causing a material adjustment to the carrying amounts of assets, liabilities, income and expenses are discussed below:-

(i) Revenue Recognition

Revenue is recognised to the extent that it is probable that the economic benefits will flow to the Group and the revenue can be reliably measured. The details of revenue recognition policies are disclosed in Note 5(t) to the financial statements.

(ii) Depreciation of Equipment

The estimates for the residual values, useful lives and related depreciation charges for the equipment are based on commercial factors which could change significantly as a result of technical innovations and competitors' actions in response to the market conditions.

The Group anticipates that the residual values of its equipment will be insignificant. As a result, residual values are not being taken into consideration for the computation of the depreciable amount.

Changes in the expected level of usage and technological development could impact the economic useful lives and the residual values of these assets, therefore future depreciation charges could be revised.

5. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (CONT'D)

(a) Critical Accounting Estimates and Judgements (Cont'd)

(iii) Income Taxes

There are certain transactions and computations for which the ultimate tax determination may be different from the initial estimate. The Group recognises tax liabilities based on its understanding of the prevailing tax laws and estimates of whether such taxes will be due in the ordinary course of business. Where the final outcome of these matters is different from the amounts that were initially recognised, such difference will impact the income tax and deferred tax provisions in the period in which such determination is made.

(iv) Impairment of Goodwill

The Group determines whether goodwill is impaired at least on an annual basis. This requires and estimation of the value-in-use of the cash-generating units ("CGU") to which goodwill is allocated. Estimating a value-in-use amount requires management to make an estimate of the expected future cash flows from the CGU and also to choose a suitable discount rate in order to calculate the present value of those cash flows.

Information relating to goodwill is disclosed in Note 9 to the financial statements.

(v) Impairment of Assets

When the recoverable amount of an asset is determined based on the estimate of the value-in-use of the cash-generating unit to which the asset is allocated, the management is required to make an estimate of the expected future cash flows from the cash-generating unit and also to apply a suitable discount rate in order to determine the present value of those cash flows.

(vi) Amortisation of Development Costs

Changes in the expected level of usage and technological development could impact the economic useful lives therefore future amortisation charges could be revised.

(vii) Allowance for Doubtful Debts of Receivables

The Group makes allowance for doubtful debts based on an assessment of the recoverability of receivables. Allowances are applied to receivables where events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amounts may not be recoverable. Management specifically analyses historical bad debt, customer concentrations, customer creditworthiness, current economic trends and changes in customer payment terms when making a judgement to evaluate the adequacy of the allowance for doubtful debts of receivables. Where the expectation is different from the original estimate, such difference will impact the carrying value of receivables.

(viii) Fair Value Estimates for Certain Financial Assets and Liabilities

The Group carries certain financial assets and liabilities at fair value, which requires extensive use of accounting estimates and judgement. While significant components of fair value measurement were determined using verifiable objective evidence, the amount of changes in fair value would differ if the Group uses different valuation methodologies. Any changes in fair value of these assets and liabilities would affect profit and equity.

for the Financial Year Ended 30 June 2008

5. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (CONT'D)

(b) Financial Instruments

Financial instruments are recognised in the balance sheet when the Company has become a party to the contractual provisions of the instruments.

Financial instruments are classified as liabilities or equity in accordance with the substance of the contractual arrangement. Interest, dividends, gains and losses relating to a financial instrument classified as a liability, are reported as an expense or income. Distributions to holders of financial instruments classified as equity are charged directly to equity.

Financial instruments are offset when the Company has a legally enforceable right to offset and intends to settle either on a net basis or to realise the asset and settle the liability simultaneously.

Financial instruments recognised in the balance sheet are disclosed in the individual policy statement associated with each item.

(c) Functional and Presentation Currency

The functional currency of each of the Group's entity is measured using the currency of the primary economic environment in which that entity operates.

The consolidated financial statements are presented in Ringgit Malaysia ("RM") which is the parent's functional and presentation currency.

(d) Basis of Consolidation

The consolidated financial statements include the financial statements of the Company and all its subsidiaries made up to 30 June 2008.

A subsidiary is defined as a company in which the parent company has the power, directly or indirectly, to exercise control over its financial and operating policies so as to obtain benefits from its activities.

All subsidiaries are consolidated using the purchase method. Under the purchase method, the results of the subsidiaries acquired or disposed of are included from the date of acquisition or up to the date of disposal. At the date of acquisition, the fair values of the subsidiaries' net assets are determined and these values are reflected in the consolidated financial statements. The cost of acquisition is measured at the aggregate of the fair values, at the date of exchange, of assets given, liabilities incurred or assumed, and equity instruments issued by the Group in exchange for control of the acquiree, plus any costs directly attributable to the business combination.

Intragroup transactions, balances and unrealised gains on transactions are eliminated; unrealised losses are also eliminated unless cost cannot be recovered. Where necessary, adjustments are made to the financial statements of subsidiaries to ensure consistency of accounting policies with those of the Group.

Minority interests in the consolidated balance sheets consist of the minorities' share of fair values of the identifiable assets and liabilities of the acquiree as at the date of acquisition and the minorities' share of movements in the acquiree's equity.

Minority interests are presented in the consolidated balance sheet of the Group within equity, separately from the Company's equityholders, and are separately disclosed in the consolidated income statement of the Group.

for the Financial Year Ended 30 June 2008

5. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (CONT'D)

(e) Goodwill on Consolidation

Goodwill represents the excess of the fair value of the purchase consideration over the Group's share of the fair values of the identifiable net assets of the subsidiary at the date of acquisition.

Goodwill is measured at costless accumulated impairment losses, if any. The carrying value of goodwill is reviewed for impairment annually. The impairment value of goodwill is recognised immediately in the consolidated income statement. An impairment loss recognised for goodwill is not reversed in a subsequent period.

If, after reassessment, the Group's interest in the fair values of the identifiable net assets of the subsidiaries exceeds the cost of the business combinations, the excess is recognised immediately in the consolidated income statement.

(f) Investments in Subsidiaries

Investments in subsidiaries are stated at cost in the balance sheet of the Company, and are reviewed for impairment at the end of the financial year if events or changes in circumstances indicate that their carrying values may not be recoverable.

On the disposal of the investments in subsidiaries, the difference between the net disposal proceeds and the carrying amount of the investments is taken to the income statement.

(g) Equipment

Equipment is stated at cost less accumulated depreciation and impairment losses, if any.

Depreciation is calculated under the straight-line method to write off the cost of the assets over their estimated useful lives. Depreciation of an asset does not cease when the asset becomes idle or is retired from active use unless the asset is fully depreciated. The principal annual rates used for this purpose are:-

Motor vehicles	16%
Office and communication equipment	12%
Office furniture and renovation	10%
Computers	20%
Software	20%

The depreciation method, useful life and residual values are reviewed, and adjusted if appropriate, at each balance sheet date to ensure that the amount, method and period of depreciation are consistent with previous estimates and the expected pattern of consumption of the future economic benefits embodied in the items of the equipment.

An item of equipment is derecognised upon disposal or when no future economic benefits are expected from its use. Any gain or loss arising from derecognition of the asset is included in the income statement in the year the asset is derecognised.

(h) Impairment of Assets

The carrying values of assets, other than those to which FRS 136 - Impairment of Assets does not apply, are reviewed at each balance sheet date for impairment when there is an indication that the assets might be impaired. Impairment is measured by comparing the carrying values of the assets with their recoverable amounts. The recoverable amount of the assets is the higher of the assets' net selling price and their value-in-use, which is measured by reference to discounted future cash flow.

An impairment loss is charged to the income statement immediately unless the asset is carried at its revalued amount. Any impairment loss of a revalued asset is treated as a revaluation decrease to the extent of a previously recognised revaluation surplus for the same asset.

(h) Impairment of Assets (Cont'd)

In respect of assets other than goodwill, and when there is a change in the estimates used to determine the recoverable amount, a subsequent increase in the recoverable amount of an asset is treated as a reversal of the previous impairment loss and is recognised to the extent of the carrying amount of the asset that would have been determined (net of amortisation and depreciation) had no impairment loss been recognised. The reversal is recognised in the income statement immediately, unless the asset is carried at its revalued amount. A reversal of an impairment loss on a revalued asset is credited directly to the revaluation surplus. However, to the extent that an impairment loss on the same revalued asset was previously recognised as an expense in the income statement, a reversal of that impairment loss is recognised as income in the income statement.

(i) Development Costs

Development costs comprise expenditure incurred on the development of the Group's software systems and integration used for the provision of Electronic Government Services. Costs incurred on development projects are capitalised to the extent that such expenditure is expected to generate future economic benefits.

Other development expenditure is recognised as an expense when incurred. Development costs previously recognised as an expense are not recognised as an asset in a subsequent period.

Development costs that have been capitalised are amortised from the commencement of the commercial service of the product to which they relate on a straight line basis over the period of their expected benefits but not exceeding 20 years.

(j) Equipment under Hire Purchase and Finance Lease

Leases of equipment where substantially all the benefits and risks of ownership are transferred to the Company are classified as finance leases.

Equipment acquired under hire purchase are capitalised in the financial statements.

Each lease or hire purchase payment is allocated between the liability and finance charges so as to achieve a constant rate on the finance balance outstanding. The corresponding outstanding obligation due under the finance lease and hire purchase after deducting finance charges are included as liabilities in the financial statements.

Finance charges are allocated to the income statement over the period of the respective lease and hire purchase agreements.

Equipment acquired under finance leases and hire purchase are depreciated over the useful lives of the assets. If there is no reasonable certainty that the ownership will be transferred to the Group, the assets are depreciated over the shorter of the lease terms and their useful lives.

(k) Operating Leases

Leases of assets where a significant portion of the risks and rewards of ownership are retained by the lessor are classified as operating leases. Payments are made under operating leases (net of any incentives received from the lessor) are charged to the income statement on the straight-line basis over the lease period. When an operating lease is terminated before the lease period has expired, any payment required to be made to the lessor by way of penalty is recognised as an expense in the period in which termination takes place.

(l) Receivables

Receivables are carried at anticipated realisable value. Bad debts are written off in the period in which they are identified. An estimate is made for doubtful debts based on a review of all outstanding amounts at the balance sheet date.

(m) Payables

Payables are stated at cost which is the fair value of the consideration to be paid in the future for goods and services received.

(n) Income Taxes

Income taxes for the year comprise current and deferred tax.

Current tax is the expected amount of income taxes payable in respect of the taxable profit for the year and is measured using the tax rates that have been enacted or substantially enacted at the balance sheet date.

Deferred tax is provided in full, using the liability method, on temporary differences arising between the tax bases of assets and liabilities and their carrying amounts in the financial statements. Deferred tax liabilities are recognised for all taxable temporary differences.

Deferred tax liabilities are recognised for all taxable temporary differences other than those that arise from goodwill or excess of the acquirer's interest in the net fair value of the acquiree's identifiable assets, liabilities and contingent liabilities over the business combination costs or from the initial recognition of an asset or liability in a transaction which is not a business combination and at the time of the transaction, affects neither accounting profit nor taxable profit.

Deferred tax assets are recognised for all deductible temporary differences, unused tax losses and unused tax credits to the extent that it is probable that future taxable profit will be available against which the deductible temporary differences, unused tax losses and unused tax credits can be utilised.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured at the tax rates that are expected to apply in the period when the asset is realised or the liability is settled, based on the tax rates that have been enacted or substantially enacted at the balance sheet date.

Deferred tax is recognised in the income statement, except when it arises from a transaction which is recognised directly in equity, in which case the deferred tax is also charged or credited directly to equity, or when it arises from a business combination that is an acquisition, in which case the deferred tax is included in the resulting goodwill or excess of the acquirer's interest in the net fair value of the acquiree's identifiable assets, liabilities and contingent liabilities over the business combination costs. The carrying amounts of deferred tax assets are reviewed at each balance sheet date and reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable that sufficient future taxable profits will be available to allow all or part of the deferred tax assets to be utilised.

(o) Interest-bearing Borrowings

Interest-bearing bank borrowings are recorded at the amount of proceeds received, net of transaction costs.

All borrowing costs are charged to the income statement as expenses in the period in which they are incurred.

for the Financial Year Ended 30 June 2008

5. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (CONT'D)

(p) Equity Instruments

Ordinary shares are classified as equity. Incremental costs directly attributable to the issue of new shares or options are shown in equity as a deduction, net of tax, from proceeds. Dividends on ordinary shares are recognised as liabilities when approved for appropriation.

(q) Cash and Cash Equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents comprise cash in hand, bank balances, demand deposits, deposits pledged with financial institutions, bank overdrafts and short-term, highly liquid investments that are readily convertible to known amounts of cash and which are subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value.

(r) Employee Benefits

(i) Short-term Benefits

Wages, salaries, paid annual leave, bonuses and non-monetary benefits are accrued in the period in which the associated services are rendered by employees of the Group.

(ii) Defined Contribution Plans

The Group's contributions to defined contribution plans are charged to the income statement in the period to which they relate. Once the contributions have been paid, the Group has no further liability in respect of the defined contribution plans.

(s) Related Parties

Parties are considered to be related if one party has the ability to control the other party or exercise influence over the other party, to the extent that it prevents the other party from pursuing its own separate interests in making financial and operating decisions.

(t) Revenue Recognition

(i) Services Rendered

Revenue is recognised upon delivery of services and when the outcome of the transaction can be estimated reliably. In the event the outcome of the transaction could not be estimated reliably, revenue is recognised to the extent of the expenses incurred that are recoverable.

(ii) Interest and Commission Income

Interest and commission income are recognised on an accrual basis.

9. GOODWILL ON CONSOLIDATION (CONT'D)

The recoverable amount of a cash-generating unit is determined based on value-in-use calculated using cash flow projections based on financial budgets approved by management covering a period of between 5 years to 12 years. The key assumptions used for value-in-use calculations are:-

	GROSS MARGIN		GROWTH RATE		DISCOUNT RATE
	2008	2007	2008	2007	2008	2007
Software solutions and other insurance-related services	70%	48%	14%	14%	10%	10%
E-business activities	32%	–	5%	–	10%	–

- (a) Budgeted gross margin The basis used to determine the value assigned to the budgeted gross margin is the average gross margins achieved in the year immediately before the budgeted year increased for expected efficiency improvements and cost saving measures.
- (b) Growth rate The growth rates used are based on the expected projection of the software solutions and other insurance-related services and e-business activities.
- (c) Discount rate The discount rates used are pre-tax and reflect specific risks relating to the relevant segments.
