Ending FY20 On a Strong Note; Maintain BUY

- Maintain BUY, new DDM-derived TP of MYR1.00 from MYR0.95, 10% upside with 7.6% FY21F yield. Sentral REIT (formerly known as MRCB-Quill REIT) closed 2020 on a good note as full-year earnings beat expectations, due to higher contributions from Menara Shell and Wisma Technip. Its average occupancy rate has been stable, and we view the likelihood of positive reversions as a positive for the REIT. However, non-renewal risk remains a concern this year, with 21% of NLA up for expiry.
- Earnings beat, again. 4Q20 earnings of MYR20.6m (+10.8% YoY, -4% QoQ) brought FY20 net profit to MYR81m (+12.3% YoY), at 105-106% of our and Street full-year estimates. The encouraging performance was due to higher revenue from Menara Shell, Wisma Technip and Tesco. The REIT's blended occupancy rate as at end-FY20 stood at 90%, ie a marginal dip from 90.5% in 3Q20. Considering the resilient occupancy levels, we do not rule out the possibility that rental reversions may be positive – especially in view of the step-up in rental rates at Menara Shell (which takes place every three years).
- 15% non-renewals in FY20. Only 85% of leases up for renewal in FY20 were renewed. The 15% non-renewals were at in Quill-Building 3, Platinum Sentral, Wisma Technip, and Menara Shell. From this trend, we have reason to believe that non-renewal risk remains a concern for the REIT in the new year – since 21% of leases are up for expiry in FY21. Although Sentral REIT has not seen a significant drop in occupancy rate, in the face of COVID-19 and the ensuing work-from-home trend, we believe that FY21 may possibly see higher vacancies in the REIT's buildings. The bulk of leases up for expiry, as per management's guidance, is for space at Wisma Technip and Menara Shell.
- Use of proceeds from Quill Building 5 (QB5) disposal. It is yet to be decided what the MYR45m cash proceeds from the disposal of the vacant QB5 last year will be used for. Options include paring down debt, funding any asset enhancement initiatives, and making investments in other assets. Management does not discount that the proceeds may be for a combination of uses, but the possibility of acquiring Menara Celcom is still on the backburner at this point in time.
- Maintain BUY. We introduce our FY23 earnings forecast of MYR76m, and increase FY21-22F net profit marginally by 1-3%, as we impute positive reversions (from flat-to-negative previously). Our TP increases to MYR1.00.
