NexG Bhd has announced the resignations of two senior board members namely executive deputy chairman Tan Sri Mohd Khairul Adib Abd Rahman and executive director Datuk Puvanesan Subenthiran effective today.

KUALA LUMPUR: NexG Bhd has announced the resignations of two senior board members namely executive deputy chairman Tan Sri Mohd Khairul Adib Abd Rahman and executive director Datuk Puvanesan Subenthiran effective today.

In separate filings with Bursa Malaysia, the company said both individuals stepped down to pursue other interests.

Mohd Khairul Adib, 63, a former Public Service Department director-general, was appointed to the board on March 28.

The company said he has no disagreements with the board and there are no matters related to his departure requiring shareholder attention.

He holds an indirect interest of 441.36 million shares in NexG.

Puvanesan, 49, also resigned without any dispute with the board and has no issues to bring to the attention of shareholders.

The company has not named successors for either position.

NexG closed at 50 sen today, with 54 million shares traded.
