Ni Hsin Moves Into Surrón E-Motorcycle Assembly

Ni Hsin Group Bhd's unit, Ni Hsin EV Tech Sdn Bhd, has signed a memorandum of understanding (MoU) with Chongqing Qiulong Technology Co Ltd to provide assembly services for Surrón electric motorcycles.

KUALA LUMPUR: Ni Hsin Group Bhd's unit, Ni Hsin EV Tech Sdn Bhd, has signed a memorandum of understanding (MoU) with Chongqing Qiulong Technology Co Ltd to provide assembly services for Surrón electric motorcycles.

In a filing with Bursa Malaysia, the company said the motorcycles will be supplied in completely knocked down form by Qiulong.

Ni Hsin said the MoU will enable it to expand its operations and product range, particularly in electric dirt bikes.

However, it added that the agreement is not expected to have a material impact on earnings for the financial year ending June 30, 2026.

As at 3.30pm, Ni Hsin's share price fell half a sen, or 6.25 per cent, to 7.5 sen, valuing the company at RM46.9 million.
