Intended Outcome

Every company is headed by a board, which assumes responsibility for the company's leadership and is collectively responsible for meeting the objectives and goals of the company.

Practice 1.1

The board should set the company's strategic aims, ensure that the necessary resources are in place for the company to meet its objectives and review management performance. The board should set the company's values and standards, and ensure that its obligations to its shareholders and other stakeholders are understood and met.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The Board is responsible for the leadership, oversight, control, development, and long-term success of the Group. It is also responsible for instilling the appropriate culture, values and behaviour throughout the Group. In discharging its responsibilities, the Board established functions which are reserved for the Board and those delegated to the Management. The key roles and responsibilities of the Board broadly cover formulation of the corporate policies and strategies, overseeing and evaluating the conduct of the Group's business. While the responsibility for monitoring the effectiveness of the Group's risk management and internal control systems has been delegated to the Audit and Risk Management Committee, the Board is ultimately responsible for determining the Group's "risk tolerance". In addition, the Board receives regular reports from the Chairman of the Audit and Risk Management Committee in relation to the work of that Committee in the area of internal control and risk management. The Company's Board Charter defines the specific duties and responsibilities of the Board which can be found at the Company's website at https://www.myeg.com.my/investor_relations.

Practice 11.2

Large companies are encouraged to adopt integrated reporting based on a globally recognised framework.

Application	:	Departure
Explanation on application of the practice	:	N/A
Explanation for departure	:	The Board is reviewing the steps needed to adopt an integrated reporting and will take measures to initiate the process. Executive Directors and Senior Management acknowledge that an integrated reporting is far more than simply combining a financial report and a sustainability report into a single document. In view that integrated reporting is a journey which should be built on the foundational steps and its effectiveness is clearly understood, the Group will conduct a study in integrated reporting to ensure its reporting framework would be met when presenting an integrated report to its stakeholders in the future. However, the current Annual report is prepared in reference to the Integrated Framework, helping the Company to set the path towards adopting the integrating reporting in the future.
		The current financial reporting and annual report complies with the applicable accounting standards, Companies Act 2016 and Main Market Listing Requirements of Bursa Securities.

Practice 12.3

Listed companies with a large number of shareholders or which have meetings in remote locations should leverage technology to facilitate—

- including voting in absentia; and
- remote shareholders' participation at General Meetings.

Application	:	Departure
Explanation on application of the practice	:	N/A
Explanation for departure	:	The Company held its General Meeting in an easily accessible location within the Klang Valley. The Company has leveraged on technology to facilitate electronic voting on its Seventeenth Annual General Meeting ("17th AGM") held on 7 December 2017, which have provided accurate results in an efficient manner. Nonetheless, voting in absentia and remote shareholders' participation at general meetings were not available.
		Shareholders who are unable to attend and vote at the 17th AGM of the Company are encouraged to submit the proxy form of the Company to the Share Registrar. Hence, this allows them to vote in absence.
