A. ROLE OF THE BOARD

The Board of Directors ("Board") in discharging its responsibilities is bound to ensure that the highest standard of corporate governance is practiced by the Company and its subsidiaries ("Group") which ultimately leads to improve corporate performance, accountability and the creation of long term shareholder value.

The Board continues to adopt the following principal responsibilities, which promote the discharge of the Board's functions in the best interest of the Group:

1. Defining and determining the strategic plan;
2. Overseeing the proper conduct of business;
3. Identifying principal risks and ensure the implementation of appropriate systems to manage these risks;
4. Succession Planning;
5. Overseeing the development and implementation of a shareholder communications policy for the Group; and
6. Reviewing the adequacy and the integrity of the Company's internal control systems and management information systems.

The matters listed in the Appendix A are reserved specifically for the Board's decision and approval.

The Board has delegated specific responsibilities to the following committees ("Committees"):

- i. Audit and Risk Committee
- ii. Remuneration Committee
- iii. Nominating Committee

The authorities delegated to the Committees are set out in the Terms of Reference of each of the Committees as approved by the Board and set out in the Appendices B, C and D.

B. BOARD MEMBERSHIP GUIDELINES

1. Composition and Board Balance

1.1 The Board, through the Nominating Committee, determines the size and composition of the Board subject to the terms of the Company's Constitution. The Company must ensure that at least two (2) directors or one third (1/3) of the Board, whichever is higher, shall be Independent Non-Executive Directors ("INEDs") as defined in Paragraph 15.02(1) of the Listing Requirements.

1.2 The presence of INEDs is to ensure that the business and investment proposals presented by management are fully deliberated and examined, and taking into consideration the long-term interests of shareholders, employees, customers, suppliers and other communities in which the Group conducts its business.

1.3 The Board shall undertake an annual assessment of the independence of its INEDs.

1.4 The tenure of an INED, unless approved by the shareholders for such further period, shall not exceed a cumulative term of nine (9) years. Upon exceeding the tenure nine (9) years, an Independent Director may continue to serve on the Board subject to the Director's re-designation as a Non-Independent Director or upon approval being obtained from the shareholders to retain him/her as an INED.

1.5 The Constitution of the Company also provide that at least one-third (1/3) of the number of Directors shall retire from office by rotation but shall be eligible for re-election at each Annual General Meeting (“AGM”).

1.6 On boardroom diversity, the Board support gender boardroom diversity recommended by the Malaysian Code on Corporate Governance 2021 (“Code 2021”) to provide the necessary diversity in insight and perspectives in the Board’s decision-making process.

1.7 The Company must ensure the positions of the Chairman and the Chief Executive Officer (“CEO”) are held by different individual.

2. Appointment to the Board

2.1 The Nominating Committee, all of whom are Non-Executive Directors, is charged with the responsibility of, amongst others, interviewing and where appropriate, recommending candidates suitable for the appointment of new Directors to the Board.

2.2 On the appointment of a new director to the Board, the new director shall be required to commit sufficient time to attend to the Company's meetings/matters before accepting his/her appointment to the Board.

2.3 All new directors are subject to election at the next Annual General Meeting after their appointment in accordance with the Company’s Constitution.

C. BOARD PROCEDURES

1. Board Meetings

1.1 Board meetings are scheduled in advance at the end of the previous calendar year to enable the Board members to plan their schedules accordingly.

1.2 The Board shall meet at least four (4) times a year, with additional meetings called, as and when required.

2. Access to Information & Independent Advice

2.1 All Directors shall have the same unrestricted right of access to the advice and services of the Company Secretary as well as to all information within the Group.

2.2 There is also a formal procedure sanctioned by the Board of Directors, whether as a full board or in their individual capacity, to seek external or independent professional advice and/or assistance from relevant experts, where necessary and in appropriate circumstances, in furtherance of their duties, at the Group’s expense.

D. DIRECTORS REMUNERATION

The objective of the Group’s remuneration policy is to attract and retain qualified, experienced and knowledgeable Directors required to lead and manage the Group effectively. In the case of Executive Directors, the components of the remuneration package are linked to corporate and individual performance. For Non-Executive Directors, the level of remuneration shall be reflective of their experience and level of responsibilities.

The Remuneration Committee recommends for the Board's approval, the remuneration framework of the Executive Directors' remuneration package. Non-Executive Directors' fees are to be determined by the Board as a whole with the Director concerned abstaining from deliberations and voting on decisions in respect of his fee.

E. INVESTOR RELATIONS AND SHAREHOLDER COMMUNICATION

The Board recognises the importance of an effective communication channel between the Board, its shareholders and other stakeholders. The annual reports, press releases, quarterly results and any announcements on material corporate exercises or developments are the primary methods of circulating information to the various stakeholders on the Group's business activities and financial performance.

The AGM represents the principal forum for dialogue and interaction with shareholders. At every meeting, the Board shall set out the progress and performance of the Group since the last meeting held. Shareholders are encouraged to participate in the question and answer sessions during the AGM wherein the Directors, the Chairman of the Committee, the Company Secretary, Heads of Department as well as the Group's External Auditors are present to respond to the queries raised. In the event that an answer cannot be readily given at the meeting, the Chairman will undertake to provide a written reply to the shareholder concerned.

F. DUTIES AND REPOSIBILITIES

1. Role of the Chairman

The Chairman carries out a leadership role in the conduct of the Board and its relations with the shareholders and other stakeholders. The Chairman is primarily responsible for:

- Setting the Board agenda and ensuring that Board members receive complete and accurate information in a timely manner;

- act as a channel of communication between management, shareholders and other stakeholders, and provide the relevant checks and balances, focusing on shareholders' and other stakeholders' interests and ensuring that high standards of corporate governance are applied.

3. Role of the CEO

The CEO is responsible for day-to-day running and management of business development and operational matters of the Group, to ensure the effective implementation of the Group's Business Plan and policies established by the Board. The CEO is responsible to the Board for the following:

- Developing long-term strategic and short-term profit plans, designed to ensure that the Group's requirements for growth, profitability and return on capital are achieved;
- Executive management of the Group's Business covering, the development of a strategic plan; an annual operating plan and budget; performance benchmarks to gauge management performance and the analysis of management reports;
- Ensures that the Group's Financial Reports present a true and fair view of the Group's financial condition and operational results and are in accordance with the relevant accounting standards;
- Assures the Group's corporate identity, products and services are of high standards and are reflective of the market environment;
- Ensures compliance with governmental procedures and regulations; and
- Assists the Chairman in organising information necessary for the Board to deal with the agenda and for providing this information to the Directors on a timely basis.
