SHARE CAPITAL AND VARIATION OF RIGHTS

|-----|---|--|
| 6. | The share in the original or increased capital may be divided into several classes and there may be attached thereto respectively any preferential, deferred or other special rights, privileges, conditions or restrictions whether in regard to dividend, return of capital, voting or otherwise. | Class of shares |
| 7. | Without prejudice to any special rights previously conferred on the holders of any existing shares or class of shares but subject to the provisions of this Constitution and the Act, the Directors shall have the power to allot and issue shares, grant options over shares, grant rights to subscribe for shares or otherwise dispose of such shares to such person at such price on such terms and conditions with such preferred, deferred or other special rights and subject to such restrictions and at such times as the Directors may determine Provided That: (1) in the case of shares other than ordinary shares, no special rights shall be attached until the same have been expressed in this Constitution and in the resolution creating the same; (2) no shares shall be issued which have the effect of transferring a controlling interest in the Company without the prior approval of Members in general meeting; and (3) no Director shall participate in a scheme that involves a new issuance of shares or convertible securities to employees unless the Members in a general meeting have approved the specific allotment to be made to such a Director. | Directors' power to allot and issue shares |
| 8. | Subject to the Act and the requirements of the Exchange and the Securities Commission, the Company may with the sanction of an Ordinary Resolution issue preference shares that are liable to be redeemed at the option of the Company and carrying such rights and restrictions as may be approved by the Members. | Preference Shares |
| 9. | If at any time the share capital is divided into different classes of shares, the rights attached to any class (unless otherwise provided by the terms of issue of the shares of that class) may, whether or not the Company is being wound up, be varied with the consent in writing of the holders of seventy-five per centum (75%) of the issued shares of that class, or with the sanction of a Special Resolution passed at a separate general meeting of the holders of the shares of that class. To every such separate meeting the provisions of this Constitution relating to meetings shall mutatis mutandis apply so that the necessary quorum shall be two (2) persons at least holding or representing by proxy at least one-third (1/3) of the issued shares of the class and that any holder of shares of the class present in person or by proxy may demand a poll. To every such Special Resolution, the provisions of Section 292 of the Act shall apply with such adaptations as are necessary. | Modification of class rights |
| 10. | Notwithstanding the provisions of Clause 8 hereof, the repayment of preference share capital other than redeemable preference shares or any alteration of the preference shareholders' rights shall only be made pursuant to a Special Resolution of the preference shareholders concerned Provided Always That where the necessary majority for such a resolution is not obtained at the meeting of the preference shareholders concerned, consent in writing obtained from seventy-five per centum (75%) of the holders of the preference shares within two (2) months of the meeting shall be valid and effectual as a Special Resolution carried at the meeting. | Repayment of preference capital |
| 11. | The rights conferred upon the holders of the shares of any class issued with preferred or other rights shall not, unless otherwise expressly provided by the terms of the issue of the shares of that class, be deemed to be varied by the creation or issue of further shares ranking as regards participation in the profits or assets of the Company in some or in all respects pari passu therewith. | Ranking of class rights |

12. The Company may pay a commission to any person in consideration of his subscribing or agreeing to subscribe, whether absolutely or conditionally, or procuring or agreeing to procure subscriptions, whether absolute or conditional, for any shares in the Company; Provided That such commission shall not exceed the rate of ten per cent (10%) of the price at which such shares are issued, or an amount equivalent thereto. Such commission may be satisfied by the payment of cash or the allotment of fully or partly paid shares, in which case the provisions of the Act shall be fully complied with. The Company may, on any new issue of shares, also pay brokerage as may be lawful. Commission on subscription of shares
13. Where any shares are issued for the purpose of raising money to defray the expenses of the construction of any works or buildings, or the provisions of any plant which cannot be made profitable for a long period, the Company may pay interest on the amount of such share capital as is for the time being paid up for the period and subject to the conditions and restrictions mentioned in Section 130 of the Act may charge the same to capital as part of the cost of the construction of the works or buildings or the provision of the plant. Interest on share capital during construction of works on building
14. Except as required by law and as provided for under the Rules, no person shall be recognised by the Company as holding any share upon any trust, and the Company shall not be bound by or be required in any way to recognise (even when having notice thereof) any equitable, contingent, future or partial interest in any share or unit of share or (except only as by this Constitution or by law otherwise provided) any other rights in respect of any share except an absolute right to the entirety thereof in the registered holder. Trust not to be recognized

ISSUE OF SECURITIES

15. The Company must ensure that all new issues of Securities for which listing is sought are made by way of crediting the Securities Account of the allottees with such Securities save and except where they are specifically exempted from compliance with Section 38 of the Central Depositories Act, in which event they shall be so similarly exempted from compliance with this provision. For this purpose, the Company shall notify the Depository of the names of the allottees and all such particulars required by the Depository to enable the Depository to make the appropriate entries in the Securities Accounts of such allottees. The Company must not cause or authorize its Registrar to cause the Securities Accounts of the allottees to be credited with the additional Securities until after the Company has filed with the Exchange an application for listing of such additional Securities and has been notified by the Exchange that they have been authorised for listing. Issue of Securities
16. Notwithstanding the provisions set out in the Act with regard to issuance of share certificates, the Company may issue jumbo certificates in respect of shares or other securities issued in the name of the Depository and/or its nominee as may be directed by the Securities Commission or the Depository pending the crediting of the shares or securities into the securities accounts of the persons entitled to such shares or securities or as may be prescribed in the Central Depositories Act and the Rules of the Depository Provided Always That every certificate so issued shall be issued under the Company's Seal in such form as the Board of Directors shall from time to time determine, and shall bear the facsimile signature of at least one (1) Director and a second Director or the Secretary or some other person appointed by the Board of Directors for such purpose, and shall specify the number and class of shares or securities to which it relates. Share certificates

CALLS ON SHARES

17. The Directors may, subject to the provisions of this Constitution, from time to time make such calls upon the Members in respect of any money unpaid on their shares, as they think fit, Provided That fourteen (14) days' notice at least is given for each call and each Member shall be liable to pay the amount of every call so made upon him to the Company, by instalment (where applicable) and at the date, time or times and places appointed by the Directors Provided That no call shall be payable at less than one (1) month from the date fixed for the payment of the last preceding call. A call may be revoked or postponed as the Directors may determine. Directors may make calls
18. At the trial or hearing of any action or other proceeding for the recovery of any money due for any call it shall be sufficient to prove that the name of the Member being sued is entered in the Register as the holder of the shares in respect of which such call was made, that the resolution making such call was duly recorded in the minute book and duly given to the Member being sued according to the provisions of these presents and it shall not be necessary to prove the appointment of the Directors who made such call nor any other matter whatsoever but the proof of the matters aforesaid shall be conclusive evidence of a debt due from the said Member to the Company. Evidence in action for call
19. A call shall be deemed to have been made at the time when the resolution of the Directors authorising such call was passed and may be required to be paid in one sum or by instalments. No shareholders shall be entitled to receive any dividend or to exercise any privileges as a Member until he has paid all calls for the time being due and payable on every share held by him, together with interest and expenses (if any). When call deemed made
20. If before or on the day appointed for payment thereof, a call or instalment payable in respect of a share is not paid, the person from whom the same is due shall pay interest on the amount of the call or instalment at such rate not exceeding eight percent (8%) per annum, as the Directors shall fix from the date appointed for payment thereof to the time of actual payment but the Directors may if they think fit, waive payment of such interest wholly or in part. Interest on unpaid calls
21. Any sum which by the terms of issue of a share is payable on allotment or at any fixed date, shall for the purposes of this Constitution, be deemed to have been duly called for and shall be payable on the date on which by the terms of issue the same becomes payable, and in case of non-payment, all the relevant provisions of this Constitution as to payment of interest and expenses, forfeiture or otherwise, shall apply as if the sum had become payable by virtue of a call duly made and notified. Term of issue may be treated as call
22. The Directors may, on the issue of shares, differentiate between the holders as to the amount of calls or instalments to be paid and the times of payment of such calls. Difference in calls
23. The Directors may, if they think fit, receive from any Member willing to advance the same, all or any part of the money payable in respect of any share held by him beyond the amount of the calls actually made thereon and upon all or any part of the money so advanced may (until the same would, but for the advance, become payable) pay interest at such rate not exceeding 8% per annum (unless the Company in general meeting shall otherwise direct) as may be agreed between the Directors and the Member paying the sum in advance. Capital paid up in advance of calls shall not whilst carrying interest confer a right to participate in profits. Except in liquidation, sums paid in advance of calls shall not, until the same would but for such advance have become payable, be treated as paid up on the shares in respect of which they have been paid. Advance of calls

INFORMATION ON SHAREHOLDINGS

24. (1) The Company may, by notice in writing, require any Member of the Company within such reasonable time as is specified in the notice:-
- Company may require information of a Member
- (a) to inform the Company, whether he holds any voting shares in the Company as beneficial owner or as trustee; and
- (b) if he holds them as trustee, to indicate so far as he can, the persons for whom he holds the voting shares by name or by other particulars sufficient to enable those persons to be identified and the nature of their interest.
- (2) Where the Company is informed pursuant to a notice given to any person under subparagraph (1) of this Clause or under this subparagraph that any other person has an interest in any of the voting shares in the Company, the Company may by notice in writing require that other person within such reasonable time as is specified in the notice:-
- Company may require any information of beneficial interest
- (a) to inform the Company whether he holds that interest as beneficial owner or as trustee; and
- (b) if he holds it as trustee, to indicate so far as he can, the person for whom he holds the interest by name and by other particulars sufficient to enable them to be identified and the nature of their interest.
- (3) The Company may by notice in writing require a Member to inform the Company within such reasonable time as is specified in the notice, whether any of the voting rights carried by any voting shares in the Company held by him are the subject of an agreement or arrangement under which another person is entitled to control his exercise of those rights and, if so, to give particulars of the agreement or arrangement and the parties to it.
- Member to inform Company

TRANSFER OF SHARES

25. The transfer of any listed security or class of listed security of the Company, shall be by way of book entry by the Depository in accordance with the Rules and, notwithstanding Sections 105, 106 and 110 of the Act, but subject to Section 148(2) of the Act and any exemption that may be made from compliance with subsection 148(1) of the Act, the Company shall be precluded from registering and effecting any transfer of such listed securities.
- Transfer of securities
26. The transfer of securities by the Company to the Depository and from the Depository to the Company shall be in accordance with the Applicable Laws.
- Transfer of securities to and from Depository
27. The Depository may refuse to register any transfer of securities that does not comply with the Central Depositories Act and/or the Rules. No shares or securities shall in any circumstances be transferred and/or registered to any infant, bankrupt or person of unsound mind or a partnership.
- Refusal to register transfer
28. Subject to the provisions of this Constitution, the Directors may recognise a renunciation of any share by the allottee thereof in favour of some other person.
- Renunciation

29. Neither the Company or its Directors nor any of its officers shall incur any liability for the act of the Depository in registering or acting upon a transfer of securities apparently made by a Member or any persons entitled to the securities by reason of the death, bankruptcy or insanity of the members, although the same may by reason of any fraud or other cause not known to the Company or its Directors or the Depository or other officers be legally inoperative or insufficient to pass the property in the shares proposed or professed to be transferred, and although the transfer may, as between the transferor and transferee, be liable to be set aside, and notwithstanding that the Company may have notice that such instrument or transfer was signed or executed and delivered by the transferor in blank as to the name of the transferee of the particulars of the securities transferred, or otherwise in a defective manner.

Non-liability
Company's Directors and officer in respect
of transfer

And in every such case, the person registered as transferee and whose name appears on the Record of Depositors, his executors, administrators and assignees alone shall be entitled to be recognised as the holder of such securities and the previous holder shall, so far as the Company is concerned, be deemed to have transferred his whole title thereto.

TRANSMISSION OF SHARES

30. In the case of the death of a Member, the executors or administrators of the deceased shall be the only persons recognised by the Company as having any title to his shares or securities, but nothing herein contained shall release the estate of a deceased shareholder from any liability in respect of any share or securities held by him.
31. Any person becoming entitled to a share or securities in consequence of the death or bankruptcy of a Member may, upon such evidence being produced as may from time to time properly be required by the Depository and subject as hereinafter provided, elect either to be registered himself as holder of the share or securities or to have some person nominated by him registered as the transferee thereof, but the Depository shall in either case have the same right to decline or suspend registration as it would have had in the case of a transfer of the share or securities by that Member before his death or bankruptcy as the case may be. Provided always that a transfer or withdrawal of the share or securities may be carried out by the person becoming so entitled in accordance with the Rules.
32. If any person so becoming entitled shall elect to be registered himself, he shall deliver or send to the Depository, a notice in writing signed by him and stating that he so elects. If he shall elect to have another person registered, he shall testify his election by executing to that other person a transfer of the share or securities in accordance with the Rules. All the limitations, restrictions and provisions of this Constitution relating to the right to transfer and the registration of transfers of shares or securities shall be applicable to any such notice or transfer as aforesaid as if the death or bankruptcy of the Member had not occurred and the notice or transfer were a transfer signed by that Member.
33. Where the registered holder of any share dies or becomes bankrupt, his personal representative or the assignee of his estate, as the case may be, shall upon the production of such evidence as may from time to time be properly required by the Directors and/or the Depository and upon registration as a Member be entitled to the same dividends and other advantages and to the same rights (whether in relation to the meetings of Members or to voting or otherwise) as the registered holder would have been entitled to if he had not died or become bankrupt.

34. Where (if applicable):-

Transmission of securities from Foreign Register

- (a) the securities of the Company are listed on another stock exchange, and
- (b) the Company is exempted from compliance with Section 14 of the Central Depositories Act or Section 29 of the Securities Industry (Central Depositories) (Amendment) Act 1998, as the case may be, under the Rules in respect of such securities, the Company shall, upon the request of a securities holder, permit a transmission of securities held by such securities holder from the register of holders maintained by the registrar of the Company in the jurisdiction of the other stock exchange, to the register of holders maintained by the registrar of the Company in Malaysia and vice versa Provided That there shall be no change in the ownership of such securities.

FORFEITURE OF SHARES

35. If any Member fails to pay the whole or any part of any call or instalment of a call, on or before the date appointed for the payment thereof, the Directors may at any time thereafter during such time as the call or instalment or any part thereof remains unpaid; serve a notice on him or on the person entitled to the share by transmission requiring him to pay such call or instalment or such part thereof as remain unpaid, together with interest at such rate not exceeding eight per cent (8%) per annum, as the Directors shall determine, or compensation that may have accrued by reason of such non-payment. Notice to pay calls
36. The notice shall name a further day (not earlier than the expiration of fourteen (14) days from the date of the notice) on or before which the payment required by the notice is to be made and the place where payment is to be made, and shall state that, in the event of non-payment on or before the time and at the place appointed, the shares in respect of which such call was made, will be liable to be forfeited. Length of notice
37. If the requirements of any such notice as aforesaid are not complied with, any share, in respect of which such notice has been given, may at any time thereafter, before the payment required by the notice has been made, be forfeited by a resolution of the Directors to that effect. Such forfeiture shall include, if applicable, dividends declared in respect of the forfeited shares and not actually paid before the forfeiture. Failure to comply with notice
38. When any share has been forfeited in accordance with the Articles, notice of the forfeiture shall forthwith be given to the holder of the share or to the person entitled to the share by transmission, as the case may be within fourteen (14) days of the forfeiture, and any entry of such notice having been given, and of the forfeiture with the date thereof, shall forthwith be made in the Register of Members or the Record of Depositors opposite to the share and in the Securities Account of that holder of the share sold; but the provisions of this Article are directory only, and no forfeiture shall in any manner be invalidated by any omission or neglect to give such notice or to make such entry as aforesaid. Notice of forfeiture
39. Notwithstanding any such forfeiture as aforesaid, the Directors may, at any time before the forfeited share has been otherwise disposed of, annul the forfeiture upon the terms of payment of all calls and interest due thereon and all expenses incurred in respect of the share and upon such further terms (if any) as they shall see fit. Annulment of forfeiture

| 40. | A share so forfeited shall become the property of the Company and may be sold, re-allotted or otherwise disposed of, either to the person who was before forfeiture the holder thereof or entitled thereto, or to any other person upon such terms and in such manner as the Directors shall think fit, and the Directors may if necessary, authorise some person to transfer the same to such other person as aforesaid. If any shares are forfeited and sold, any residue after the satisfaction of the unpaid calls and accrued interest and expenses, shall be paid to the person whose shares have been forfeited, or his executors, administrators or assignees or as he directs. | Sale of forfeited shares |
| 41. | A person whose shares have been forfeited shall cease to be a Member in respect of the forfeited shares, but shall, notwithstanding, remain liable to pay to the Company all money which, at the date of forfeiture, was payable by him to the Company in respect of the shares (together with interest or compensation at a rate of 8% per annum on the money for the time being unpaid from the date of forfeiture until the date of the Company's receipt of payment if the Directors think fit to enforce payment of such interest), but his liability shall cease if and when the Company receives payment in full of all such money in respect of the shares. | Liability of member whose shares are forfeited |
| 42. | The forfeiture of a share shall involve the extinction at the time of forfeiture of all interest in and all claims and demands against the Company in respect of the share, and all other rights and liabilities incidental to the share as between the Member whose share is forfeited and the Company, except only such of those rights and liabilities as are by this Constitution expressly saved, or as are by the Act, the Central Depositories Act and the Rules, given or imposed in the case of past Members. | Consequence of forfeiture |
| 43. | A statutory declaration in writing that the declarant is a Director or the Secretary of the Company, and that a share in the Company has been duly forfeited on a date stated in the declaration shall be conclusive evidence of the facts therein stated as against all persons claiming to be entitled to the share. | Evidence of forfeiture |
| 44. | The Company may receive consideration, if any, given for a forfeited share on any sale or disposition thereof and may execute a transfer of the share in favour of the person to whom the share is sold or disposed of and he shall thereupon be registered as the holder of the share, and shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money (if any), nor shall his title to the share be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings in reference to the forfeiture, sale or disposal of the share. | Title of purchaser of forfeited share |
| 45. | The provisions of this Constitution as to forfeiture shall apply in the case of non-payment of any sum which, by the terms of issue of a share, becomes payable at a fixed time as if the same had been payable by virtue of a call duly made and notified. | Forfeiture for non-payment of any sum under call |

|-----|---|--------------------------|
| 46. | The Company shall have a first and paramount lien on every share (not being fully paid up share), such lien to be restricted to the unpaid calls and instalments upon the specific shares in respect of which such moneys are due and unpaid, and to such amount as the Company may be called by law to pay and has paid in respect of the shares of the Member or deceased Member. The Company's lien, if any, on share shall extend to all dividends payable thereon and other moneys payable thereon or in respect thereof. The Directors may at any time declare any share to be wholly or in part exempted from provisions of this Clause. | Company's lien on shares |
| 47. | The Company may sell, in such manner as the Directors think fit, any shares on which the Company has a lien, but no sale shall be made unless a sum in respect of which the lien exists is presently payable, and until the expiration of fourteen (14) days from a notice in writing, stating and demanding payment of such sum in respect of which the lien exists, has been given to the Member, or the person entitled thereto by reason of his death or bankruptcy. | Notice to pay amount due |

48. To give effect to any such sale, the Directors may authorise some person to transfer the shares sold to the purchaser thereof, and the purchaser shall be registered as the holder of the shares comprised in any such transfer, and the Directors shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money, nor shall the purchaser's title to the shares be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings relating to the sale. Transfer on sale under lien
49. The proceeds of the sale shall be received by the Company and applied in payment of such part of the amount in respect of which the lien exists as is presently payable, and the residue, if any, shall (subject to a similar lien for sums not presently payable which exists over the shares before the sale) be paid to the person entitled to the shares at the date of the sale or his executors administrators, or assignees or as he directs. Application of proceeds of sale

CONVERSION OF SHARES INTO STOCK

50. The Company may by Ordinary Resolution convert any paid-up shares into stock or reconvert any stock into paid-up shares of any denomination. Conversion of shares into stock and reconversion
51. The stockholders may transfer the same, or any part thereof, in the same manner, and subject to this Constitution, as and subject to which, the shares from which the stock arose might previously to conversion have been transferred, or as near thereto as circumstances permit; but the Directors may from time to time fix the minimum amount of stock transferable, and restrict or forbid the transfer of fractions of that minimum. Transfer of stock
52. The holders of stock shall according to the amount of their interest in the stock held by them have the same rights, privileges, and advantages with regards to dividends, voting at meetings of Members and other matters as if they held the shares, from which the stock arose, but no such rights, privileges or advantages (except participation in the dividends and profits of the Company and in the assets on winding up) shall be conferred by any amount of the stock which would not, if existing in shares, have conferred that rights, privileges or advantages. Rights of stockholders
53. All provisions of this Constitution as are applicable to paid-up shares shall apply to stock, and the words "share" and "shareholder" shall include "stock" and "stockholder". Provision applicable to shares shall apply to stock

INCREASE OF CAPITAL

54. The Company may from time to time, whether all the shares for the time being issued shall have been fully called and paid up, by Ordinary Resolution increase its share capital by the creation and issue of new shares, such new capital to be of such amount and to be divided into shares of such respective amounts and to carry such rights or to be subject to such conditions or restrictions in regard to dividend, return of capital or otherwise as the Company by the resolution authorising such increase may direct. Power to increase capital
55. Subject to any direction to the contrary that may be given by the Company in a meeting of Members, all new shares or other convertible securities shall, before issue, be offered to such persons as at the date of the offer are entitled to receive notices from the Company of meetings of Members in proportion, as nearly as the circumstances admit, to the amount of the existing shares or securities to which they are entitled. The offer shall be made by notice specifying the number of shares or securities offered, and, limiting a time within which the offer, if not accepted, will be deemed to be declined, and after the expiration of such time, or on the receipt of an intimation from the person to whom the offer is made that he declines to accept the shares or securities offered, the Directors may dispose of those shares or securities in such manner as they think most beneficial to the Company. The Directors may likewise also dispose of any new shares or securities which (by reason of the ratio which the new shares or securities bear to shares or securities held by persons entitled to an offer of new shares or securities) cannot, in the opinion of the Directors, be conveniently offered under this Constitution. Shares to be offered to members before issue

56. Except so far as otherwise provided by the conditions of issue in this Constitution, any share capital raised by the creation of new shares shall be considered as part of the original share capital of the Company and shall be subject to the same provisions with reference to the payment of calls, lien, transfer, transmission, forfeiture and otherwise as the original share capital.

Ranking of new shares

ALTERATIONS OF CAPITAL

57. The Company may by Ordinary Resolution :-
- consolidate and divide all or any of its share capital into shares of larger amount than its existing shares;
 - sub-divide its existing shares, or any of them, into shares of smaller amount than is fixed by this Constitution subject, nevertheless, to the provisions of the Act and so that as between the resulting shares, one or more of such shares may, by the resolution by which such sub-division is effected, be given any preference or advantage as regards dividends, return of capital voting or otherwise over the others or any other of such shares;
 - cancel any shares which, at the date of the passing of the resolution have not been taken or agreed to be taken by any person or which have been forfeited and diminish the amount of its share capital by the number of shares so cancelled; or
 - subject to the provisions of the Act, convert and/or reclassify any class of shares into another class of shares.

Power to alter capital

58. The Company may by Special Resolution reduce its share capital in any manner permitted or authorised under and in compliance with the Applicable Laws.

Power to reduce capital

59. The Company may, subject to it obtaining such approval from the relevant authorities (if required) and to its compliance with all Applicable Laws, purchase its own shares. Any shares so purchased by the Company shall be dealt with in accordance with the Applicable Laws.

GENERAL MEETINGS

60. The Company shall, in each year, hold an annual general meeting within six (6) months of the Company's financial year end and not more than fifteen (15) months after the last preceding annual general meeting. All other meetings of Members other than the annual general meeting shall be called "extraordinary general meeting".

Annual General Meeting

61. The Directors may whenever they think fit, convene an extraordinary general meeting. In addition, an extraordinary general meeting shall also be convened on such requisition as referred to in Section 311 of the Act or if the Company makes default in convening a meeting in compliance with a requisition received pursuant to Section 311 of the Act, a meeting may be convened by the requisitionists themselves in the manner provided in Section 313 of the Act. Any meeting convened by the requisitionist shall be convened in the same manner, as nearly as possible, as that in which meetings are to be convened by the Board.

Extraordinary General Meeting

62. All meetings of Members (both annual general meetings and extraordinary general meetings) shall be held at such time and at such places as the Directors shall determine Provided That the main venue of the meetings shall be in Malaysia, and the Chairman shall be present at the main venue of the meetings.

Place of meeting of members

63. The meeting of Members may be held at more than one (1) venue using any technology or method that enables the Members to participate and to exercise the Members' rights to speak and vote at the meeting.

Meeting of members at 2 or more venues

70. The notice of every meeting of Members shall be given in any manner authorised in this Constitution to:

Persons entitled to receive notice

- (a) every Member holding shares conferring the right to attend and vote at the meeting who, at the time of convening of the meeting shall have paid all calls or other sums presently payable by him in respect of any such shares in the Company;
- (b) the Auditors of the Company;
- (c) The Exchange;
- (d) every person entitled to a share in consequence of the death or bankruptcy of a Member who, but for his death or bankruptcy, would be entitled to receive notice of the meeting; and
- (e) the Director of the Company.

PROCEEDINGS AT GENERAL MEETINGS

71. No business shall be transacted at any meeting of Members unless a quorum is present at the time when the meeting proceeds to business. For all purposes the quorum shall be two Members personally present or represented by proxy.

Quorum

72. If within half (1/2) an hour from the time appointed for the holding of a meeting of Members, a quorum is not present, the meeting, if convened on the requisition of Members, shall be dissolved. In any other case, it shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week (or if that day is a public holiday, then, to the next business day following such public holiday) at the same time and place or to such other day and at such other time and place as the Directors may determine, and if at such adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within half (1/2) an hour from the time appointed for holding the adjourned meeting, any Member present shall be a quorum.

Adjournment
if quorum not present

73. The Chairman, if any, of the Board of Directors shall preside at every general meeting, but if there be no such Chairman or if at any meeting he shall not be present within fifteen (15) minutes after the time appointed for holding the same or shall be unwilling to act as Chairman, the Directors present shall choose one (1) Director to act as the Chairman of the meeting or if no Director be present, or if all the Directors present decline to take the Chair, the Members present shall choose one (1) Member present to be Chairman of the meeting. However, a proxy shall not be eligible for election as Chairman of the meeting.

meeting

74. The Chairman, may with the consent of any meeting at which a quorum is present and shall, if so, directed by the meeting, adjourn any meeting from time to time and from place to place as the meeting shall determine. Whenever a meeting is adjourned for thirty (30) days or more, notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given in the same manner as in the case of an original meeting. Save as aforesaid, no Member shall be entitled to any notice of an adjournment or of the business to be transacted at any adjourned meeting. No business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place.

Adjournment
with consent of
meeting

75. A resolution put to vote at any meeting of Members shall be determined by poll. A poll shall be taken in such manner and either forthwith or after an interval or adjournment or otherwise as the chairperson of the meeting directs and the result of the poll shall be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was taken, but a poll demanded on the election of the chairperson of the meeting or on a question of adjournment shall be taken immediately. The Company shall appoint at least one (1) scrutineer for the purpose of verifying the results of the poll in accordance with the Applicable Laws, and may, in addition to the power of adjourning meetings, adjourn the meeting to some place and time fixed for the purpose of declaring the result of the poll.
- The poll may be conducted manually using voting slips or electronically using various forms of electronic voting devices, and the votes shall be counted by the poll administrator, and verified by the appointed scrutineer.
76. The Chairman of the meeting declares whether or not a resolution put to vote at a meeting of Members is carried based on the poll results which show the total number of votes cast on the poll (together with the percentage) in favour of and against the resolution, as announced by the scrutineer.
77. In case of an equality of votes, the Chairman of the meeting shall be entitled to a casting vote in addition to the votes to which he may be entitled as a Member.
78. If :
- (a) any objection shall be raised to the qualification of any voter; or
 - (b) any votes have been counted which ought not to have been counted which might have been rejected; or
 - (c) any votes are not counted which ought to have been counted
- the objection or error shall not vitiate the decision of the meeting on any resolution unless the same is raised or pointed out at the meeting or the adjourned meeting at which the vote objected to is given or tendered or at which the error occurs. Any objection or error shall be referred to the Chairman of the meeting and shall only vitiate the decision of the meeting on any resolution if the Chairman decides that the same is of sufficient magnitude to vitiate the resolution or may otherwise have affected the decision of the meeting. The decision of the Chairman on such matters shall be final and conclusive.

The instrument appointing a proxy, in any form as approved by the Directors, shall be in writing under the hand of the appointor or of his attorney duly authorized in writing or, if the appointor is a corporation, either under its common seal or under the hand of an officer or attorney duly authorized. A proxy may but need not be a Member of the Company. The instrument appointing a proxy shall be deemed to confer authority to demand or join in demanding a poll. There shall be no restriction as to the qualification of the proxy. Instrument appointing proxy to be in writing
86. The instrument appointing a proxy and the power of attorney or other authority, if any, under which it is signed or a notarially certified copy of that power or authority shall be deposited at the Office or at such other place within Malaysia as is specified for that purpose in the notice convening the meeting, not less than forty-eight (48) hours before the time for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the person named in the instrument proposes to vote or in the case of a poll, not less than twenty-four (24) hours before the time appointed for the taking of the poll or such other period as may from time to time be permitted under the Applicable Laws and stipulated in the form of proxy or in the notice of the meeting, otherwise such instrument appointing a proxy shall not be treated as valid for the purpose of the meeting. Delivery of instrument appointing proxy
87. A vote given in accordance with the terms of an instrument appointing a proxy or attorney shall be valid notwithstanding the previous death or unsoundness of mind of the appointer or revocation of the instrument or of the authority under which the instrument was executed, or the transfer of the share in respect of which the instrument or authority is given, if no intimation in writing of such death, unsoundness of mind, revocation or transfer as aforesaid has been received by the Company at the Office before the commencement of the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the instrument is used. Validity of vote given under proxy
88. The instrument appointing a proxy shall be in such form as the Board may from time to time prescribe or approve. Form of Proxy

89. Any corporation which is a Member of the Company may by resolution of its directors or other governing body authorise such person as it thinks fit to act as its representative at any meeting of Members. If the corporation authorises more than one (1) representative, every one (1) of its representatives is entitled to exercise the same powers on behalf of the corporation as that corporation could exercise Provided That the corporation shall specify the proportion of its shareholdings to be represented by each one (1) of its representatives. A certificate of appointment of corporate representative issued by the corporation shall be prima facie evidence of the appointment or the revocation of the appointment, as the case may be, of the representative or representatives.

Representative of a Member which is a corporation

 - (g) otherwise vacates his office in accordance with the Constitution of the Company.

ALTERNATE DIRECTOR

97. (1) A Director may from time to time appoint any person (other than Director) to act as his alternate Director and at his discretion by way of a notice to the Company, remove such alternate Director, Provided That such person does not act as an alternate for more than one Director of Company, the appointment of such alternate Director is approved by a majority of the other Directors and any fee paid by the Company to an alternate Director shall be deducted from that Director's remuneration.
- Appointment or removal of an alternate Director
- Any appointment or removal of an alternate Director may be made in writing and sent by hand, post, facsimile or in any other form or manner, electronic or otherwise, as approved by the Board.
- (2) If a Director making any such appointment as aforesaid shall cease to be a Director (otherwise than by reason of vacating his office at a meeting of the Company at which he is re-elected), the person appointed by him shall thereupon cease to have any power or authority to act as an alternate Director.
- Cessation of appointment of an alternate Director
- (3) An alternate Director shall (except as regards the power to appoint an alternate Director and remuneration) be subjected in all respects to the terms and conditions existing with reference to the other Directors, and shall be entitled to receive notices of all meetings of the Directors and to attend, speak and vote at any such meeting at which his appointor is not present.
- Rights of an alternate Director
- An alternate Director shall not be taken into account in reckoning the minimum or maximum number of Directors allowed for the time being but he shall be counted for the purpose of reckoning whether a quorum is present at any meeting of the Directors attended by him at which he is entitled to vote.

MANAGING AND/OR EXECUTIVE DIRECTORS

|------|--|---|
| 98. | The Directors may from time to time appoint any one (1) or more of their body to any executive office or person performing the functions of a managing director, by whatever name called including the offices of Chief Executive, Managing Director, Deputy Managing Director or Executive Director for such period and upon such terms as they think fit. The appointment may entrust to and confer upon the Directors holding such executive office, any powers exercisable by them as Directors generally as they may think fit, but such Chief Executive, Managing Director, Deputy Managing Director or Executive Director shall be subject to the control of the Board. | Appointment |
| 99. | The remuneration of a Director holding an executive office pursuant to this Constitution shall be fixed by the Board and may be by way of salary or commission or participation in profits or otherwise or by any or all of these modes. | Remuneration of Director holding executive office |
| 100. | A Managing Director and/or Deputy Managing Director shall, while he continues to hold that office, be subject to retirement by rotation, and he shall be reckoned as a Director for the purpose of determining the rotation or retirement of Directors or in fixing the number of Directors to retire, and he shall, subject to the provisions of any contract between him and the Company, be subject to the same provisions as to resignation and removal as the other Directors of the Company, and if he ceases to hold the office of Director for any cause, his appointment as a Managing Director and/or Deputy Managing Director shall be automatically determined. | Cessation of office |

| 101. | The business and affairs of the Company shall be managed by, or under the direction of the Board. The Board shall have all the powers necessary for managing, directing and supervising the management of the business and affairs of the Company subject to any modification, exception or limitation contained in the Act and this Constitution, and may pay all expenses incurred in promoting and registering the Company and exercise all such powers of the Company as are not, by this Constitution or by the Act required to be exercised by the Company in a general meeting, subject nevertheless, to any provisions of this Constitution, to the provisions of the Act and to such regulations, being not inconsistent with the aforesaid regulations or provisions, as may be prescribed by the Company in general meeting, but no regulations made by the Company in general meeting shall invalidate any prior act of the Directors which would have been valid if such regulation had not been made. | General powers of the Directors to manage the Company's business |
| 102. | The Directors may from time to time and at any time by power of attorney under the Seal appoint any corporation, firm or person or body of persons, whether nominated directly or indirectly by the Directors, to be the attorney or attorneys of the Company for such purposes and with such powers, authorities and discretions (not exceeding those vested in or exercisable by the Directors under this Constitution) and for such period and subject to such conditions as they may think fit, and any such powers of attorney may contain such provisions for the protection and convenience of persons dealing with any such attorney as the Directors may think fit and may also authorise any such attorney to delegate all or any of the powers, authorities and discretions vested in him. | Power to appoint attorneys |

| 108. | Subject to this Constitution, at each annual general meeting one-third (1/3) of the Directors for the time being, or, if their number is not a multiple of three (3), the number nearest to one-third (1/3) with a minimum of one (1), shall retire from office and an election of directors shall take place Provided Always that all Directors including Managing and Executive Directors, shall retire once in every three (3) years but shall be eligible for re-election. A Director retiring at a meeting shall retain office until the close of the meeting whether adjourned or not. An election of Directors shall take place each year. | Rotation and retirement of Directors |
| 109. | The Director to retire in every year shall be those who, being subject to retirement by rotation, have been longest in office since their last election or appointment, but as between persons who became Directors on the same day, the one to retire shall (unless they otherwise agree among themselves) be determined by lot. | Selection of Directors to retire |
| 110. | No person, not being a retiring Director shall be eligible for election to the office of Director at any general meeting unless a Member intending to propose him for election has, at least eleven (11) clear days before the meeting, left at the Office a notice in writing duly signed by the nominee, giving his consent to the nomination and signifying his candidature for the office, or the intention of such Member to propose him for election, Provided That in the case of a person recommended by the Directors for election, nine (9) clear days' notice only shall be necessary, and notice of each and every candidature for election to the Board shall be served on the Members at least seven (7) days prior to the meeting at which the election is to take place. | Notice of candidate as a Director |
| 111. | The Company at the meeting at which a Director retires under any provision of this Constitution may by Ordinary Resolution, fill the vacated office by electing a person thereto. Unless at that meeting it is expressly resolved not to fill the vacated office, or a resolution for the re-election of the Director retiring at the meeting is put to the meeting and lost or some other people is elected as Director, a retiring Director shall, if offering himself for re-election and not being disqualified under the Act from holding office as a Director, be deemed to have been re-elected. | Retiring Director deemed to be re-appointed |
| 112. | At any general meeting at which more than one (1) Director is to be elected, each candidate shall be the subject of a separate motion and vote unless a motion for the appointment of two (2) or more persons as Directors by a single resolution shall have first been agreed to by the meeting without any vote being given against it. | Motion for appointment of Directors |
| 113. | The Company may from time to time by Ordinary Resolution increase or reduce the number of Directors to be appointed to the Board and may also determine in what rotation the increased or reduced number is to retire from office. | Increase or reduction of number of Directors |
| 114. | The Company may by Ordinary Resolution of which special notice is given in accordance with Section 206 of the Act, remove any Director before the expiration of his period of office and may by Ordinary Resolution appoint another Director in his stead. The person so appointed shall hold office for as long as the Director in whose place he is appointed would have the same if he had not been removed. | Removal of Directors |
| 115. | The Board shall have power at any time and from time to time to appoint any person to be a Director, either to fill a casual vacancy or as an additional Director, but the total number of Directors shall not at any time exceed the maximum number fixed by or in accordance with this Constitution. Any director so appointed shall hold office only until the next annual general meeting and shall then be eligible for re-election, but shall not be taken into account in determining the Directors who are to retire by rotation at that meeting. | Power to fill Casual vacancy or to appoint additional director |

PROCEEDINGS OF DIRECTORS

116. The Directors may meet together for the despatch of business, adjourn, or otherwise regulate their meetings, as they think fit. A Director may, and the Secretary on the requisition of any Director shall, at any time summon a meeting of the Directors. A notice of meeting of the Directors shall be sent to every Director who is in Malaysia, and the notice shall include the date, time and place of the meeting and the matters to be discussed. Any irregularity in the notice of a meeting of Directors is waived if all Directors who are entitled to receive notice of the meeting, attend the meeting without any objection to the irregularity. Meetings of Directors
117. The quorum necessary for the transaction of business may be fixed by the Directors, and unless so fixed, the quorum shall comprise two (2) Directors of the Company. Notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary contained in this Constitution, any Director may participate in a meeting of the Directors by way of teleconferencing or video-conferencing or by means of any other audio or visual telecommunication equipment whereby all Directors participating in the meeting are able to hear each other, in which event such Director shall be counted in the determination of the quorum of the meeting. Any meeting held in such manner shall be deemed to be held at such place as shall be agreed upon by the Directors attending the meeting Provided That at least one (1) of the Directors present at the meeting was at such place for the duration of that meeting. Quorum of meetings of Directors
118. The Board Chairman shall preside as chairman at meetings of the Board. If at any meeting, the Board Chairman is not present within fifteen (15) minutes after the time appointed for the holding of the meeting, the Directors present may elect one (1) of their number to be the chairperson of that meeting. Chairperson at a meeting of Directors
119. Questions arising at any meeting of the Directors shall be decided by a majority of votes of the Directors, with the Directors having one (1) vote each. In case of an equality of votes, the chairperson of the meeting shall have a second or casting vote Provided That where two (2) Directors form a quorum, the chairperson at which only such a quorum is present or at which only two (2) Directors are competent to vote on the motion shall not have a second or casting vote. A Director present at a meeting of the Directors is presumed to have agreed to, and to have voted in favour of a resolution of the Board of Directors unless he expressly dissents from or votes to object against the resolution at the meeting. Where a resolution of the Directors is passed at an adjourned meeting of the Directors, the resolution shall, for all purposes be treated as having been passed on the date on which it was in fact passed and not at any earlier date. Voting at a meeting of Directors
120. The Directors may delegate any of their powers to board committees consisting of such members of their body as they think fit. Any board committee so formed shall in the exercise of the powers so delegated to it conform to any regulations that may be imposed on it by the Directors. The respective chairpersons of the board committees shall from time to time be determined by the Directors. A board committee may meet and adjourn its meetings as its members think proper. If at any meeting of a board committee, the chairperson is not present within fifteen (15) minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting, the other members of the board committee present may choose one of their number to be the chairperson of that meeting. Questions arising at any meeting of a board committee shall be determined by a majority of votes of the members of the board committee present, and in case of an equality of votes, the chairperson shall have a second or casting vote. All provisions as to meetings of the Directors set out in this Constitution shall mutatis mutandis apply to every meeting of the board committees. Board committees

121. All acts bona fide done by any meeting of Directors, or by a committee of Directors, or by any person acting as a Director, shall, notwithstanding it be afterwards discovered that there was some defect in the appointment of any such Director or person acting as aforesaid, or that they or any of them were disqualified, be as valid as if every such person had been duly appointed and was qualified to be a Director. Validation of acts of Directors
122. The Directors shall ensure that the minutes of the proceedings of all meetings of the Members, the Directors and the board committees are kept, and any such minutes, signed by the chairperson at such meeting or by the chairperson of the next succeeding meeting, shall be conclusive evidence without any further proof of the facts therein stated. Minutes to be kept
123. A resolution in writing signed by all Directors for the time being present in Malaysia and who are entitled to receive notice of meetings of the Directors, is as valid and effective as if it had been passed at a meeting of the Directors duly convened and held. All such resolutions shall be described as "Directors' Circular Resolution", and may consist of several documents in the like form, each signed by one (1) or more of the Directors or their alternates, and shall be delivered to the Secretary by hand or transmitted by electronic communication, and shall be recorded in the Company's minutes book following the receipt thereof by the Secretary. Resolution in writing
124. A Director shall declare his interest in the Company and his interest in any contract or proposed contract with the Company as may be required by law. Subject to Section 222 of the Act, a Director shall not participate in any discussion or vote in respect of any contract or proposed contract or arrangement in which he has directly or indirectly a personal interest and if he should do so his vote should not be counted. A Director shall, notwithstanding his interest, be counted in the quorum for any meeting where a decision is taken upon any contract or proposed contract or arrangement in which he is in any way interested. Disclosure of interest and restriction on deliberation and voting
125. A Director may vote in respect of: Power to vote
- (a) any arrangement for giving any Director any security or indemnity in respect of money lent by him or obligations undertaken by him for the benefit of the Company; or
 - (b) any arrangement for the giving by the Company of any security to a third party in respect of a debt or obligation of the Company for which the Director himself has assumed responsibility in whole or in part under a guarantee or indemnity or by the deposit of security.

SECRETARY

126. The Secretary shall be appointed by the Directors in accordance with the Act for such term at such remuneration and upon such conditions as they may think fit, and any Secretary so appointed may be removed by the Directors. The Directors may from time to time by resolution appoint any other person who is eligible pursuant to Section 235 of the Act as a joint Secretary or an assistant or deputy Secretary. Appointment or removal of a Secretary

SEAL

127. The Directors shall provide for the safe custody of the Seal which shall only be used pursuant to a resolution of the Directors or a committee of the Directors authorizing the use of the Seal. The Directors may from time to time make such regulations as they think fit in determining the persons and the number of such persons in whose presence the Seal shall be affixed and, until otherwise so determined, the Seal shall be affixed in the presence of at least one (1) Director and counter-signed by the Secretary or by a second Director or by some other person appointed by the Directors for that purpose who shall sign every instrument to which the Seal is affixed and the Directors may by resolution determine either generally or in any particular case that the signatures of any Director, the Secretary or such other person appointed as aforesaid may be affixed or reproduced by facsimile, autographic or other mechanical means Provided That the use of such is restricted to a share certificate, instrument or other document of title in respect of any share, stock, debenture or securities created or issued by the Company.
- Manner in which Seal shall be fixed
128. The Company may exercise the powers conferred by Section 62 of the Act with regard to having an official seal for use abroad, and such powers shall be vested in the Directors.
- The Company may also have a Share Seal pursuant to Section 63 of the Act which shall be an exact copy of the Seal of the Company with the addition on its face of the words "Securities".
- Official Seal for use abroad and for share certificates

DIVIDENDS AND RESERVES

129. The Company may by Ordinary Resolution declare dividends to the Members out of profits of the Company available if the Company is solvent, but no dividend shall exceed the amount as authorised by the Board. The Board may authorise a distribution at such time and in such amount as the Board considers appropriate, if the Board is satisfied that the Company will be solvent immediately after the distribution is made. The Company is regarded as solvent if the Company is able to pay its debts as and when the debts become due within twelve (12) months immediately after the distribution is made.
- Distribution of dividends out of profits
130. Subject to any preferential or special rights for the time being attached to any special class of shares, all dividends shall be declared and paid in proportion to the amounts paid up or credited as paid up on the shares in respect of which the dividend is paid, but no amount paid in advance of a call shall be treated as the amount paid up on the shares for the purpose of this Clause.
- Dividends to be paid in proportion to the amount paid up on shares
131. No dividend or other moneys payable in respect of a share shall bear interest against the Company unless otherwise provided by the rights attached to the share.
- No interest on dividends
132. The Directors may deduct from any dividend payable to any Member all sums of money, if any, presently payable by him to the Company on account of calls or otherwise in relation to the shares in the Company.
- Deduction of dividends
133. The Directors may retain any dividend or any moneys payable on or in respect of a share on which the Company has a lien, and may apply the same in or towards satisfaction of the debts, liabilities or engagements in respect of which the lien exists.
- Retention of dividend

134. Any dividend, interest or other money payable in cash in respect of shares may be paid by cheque or warrant sent through the post to the last registered address of the Member or to such person and to such address as the Member may in writing direct or by way of telegraphic transfer or electronic transfer or remittance to such account as designated by such Member or the person entitled to such payment. Every such cheque or warrant or telegraphic transfer or electronic transfer or remittance shall be made payable to the order of the person to whom it is sent and the payment of any such cheque or warrant or telegraphic transfer or electronic transfer or remittance shall operate as a good discharge to the Company in respect of the payment represented thereby, notwithstanding that in the case of payment by cheque or warrant, it may subsequently appear that the same has been stolen or that the endorsement thereon has been forged. Every such cheque or warrant or telegraphic transfer or electronic transfer or remittance shall be sent at the risk of the person entitled to the money thereby represented.
135. The Directors may retain the dividends payable on shares in respect of which any person is under the provisions as transmission of shares hereinbefore contained to become a Member, or which any person under those provisions is entitled to transfer, until such person shall become a Member in respect of such shares or shall duly transfer the same.
136. Subject to the Unclaimed Moneys Act, 1965, all dividends unclaimed for one (1) year, after having been declared, may be dealt with in accordance with the provisions of the Unclaimed Moneys Act, 1965 and any statutory modification, amendment or reenactment thereof for the time being in force.
137. The Directors, in authorising a distribution of dividends, may direct the payment of such dividends wholly or partly by the distribution of specific assets and in particular of fully issued shares, debentures or debenture stock of any company or in any one or more of such ways. Where any difficulty arises in regard to payment of such distribution, the Directors may settle the same as they think expedient and fix the value for distribution of such specific assets or any part thereof and may determine that cash payments shall be made to any Member upon the footing of the value so fixed in order to adjust the rights of all parties, and may vest any such specific assets in trustees as the Directors may deem expedient.
138. The Directors may before authorizing any distribution of dividend, set aside out of the profits of the Company such sums as they think proper as reserves which shall, at the discretion of the Directors, be applicable for any purpose to which the profits of the Company may be properly applied, and pending any such application may, at the like discretion, either be employed in the business of the Company or be invested in such investments as the Directors may from time to time think fit. The Directors may also without placing them to reserve carry forward any profits which they may think prudent not to divide.
