Intended Outcome

Every company is headed by a board, which assumes responsibility for the company's leadership and is collectively responsible for meeting the objectives and goals of the company.

Practice 1.1

The board should set the company's strategic aims, ensure that the necessary resources are in place for the company to meet its objectives and review management performance. The board should set the company's values and standards, and ensure that its obligations to its shareholders and other stakeholders are understood and met.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The Board establishes the vision and strategic objectives of the Group, directs the Company's strategic planning, financial, operational and resource management, key policies, risk assessment and management and provides effective oversight of Management and stewardship of the Group's resources towards realising the Vision of the Group. In preparing the strategies and budget for the Group for 2018, a pre-budget offsite meeting was held in October 2017 for the Board and the Group Managing Director to discuss the business strategies and plans for 2018 and the long-term strategies and vision of the Group. On 30 November 2017, the Board approved the Strategic Plan and Budget for 2018 of the Group. The Vision of the Group was updated to "To be the Market Leader in our Operating Segments domestically and a Regional Presence by 2020" in line with changing market conditions. Details of the Board's leadership's role and responsibilities are disclosed in the Corporate Governance (CG) Overview Statement on pages 48 to 50 of the Annual Report.

Intended Outcome

There is demarcation of responsibilities between the board, board committees and management.

There is clarity in the authority of the board, its committees and individual directors.

Practice 2.1

The board has a board charter which is periodically reviewed and published on the company's website. The board charter clearly identifies–

- the respective roles and responsibilities of the board, board committees, individual directors and management; and
- issues and decisions reserved for the board.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The Board charter is available on the Company's corporate website www.deleum.com which sets out, amongst others: - composition of the Board; - duties and responsibilities of the Board; - division of responsibilities and powers between Chairman, Deputy Chairman and Group Managing Director; - responsibilities of the Independent Non-Executive Directors and Senior Independent Director; - matters reserved for the Board as well as those which the Board may delegate to the Board Committees, Group Managing Director and Management; - establishment of Board Committees; and - processes and procedures for convening Board meetings as well as operations and processes of the Board to promote the standards of corporate governance in line with the Group's shared values. The Board Charter which was adopted by the Board in 2012 was last reviewed and revised on 26 February 2018.

Measure	:
Timeframe	:

Intended Outcome

The board is committed to promoting good business conduct and maintaining a healthy corporate culture that engenders integrity, transparency and fairness.

The board, management, employees and other stakeholders are clear on what is considered acceptable behaviour and practice in the company.

Practice 3.1

The board establishes a Code of Conduct and Ethics for the company, and together with management implements its policies and procedures, which include managing conflicts of interest, preventing the abuse of power, corruption, insider trading and money laundering.

The Code of Conduct and Ethics is published on the company's website.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	Deleum has established a Code of Business Conduct (COBC) as a guidance to be followed by the Directors and employees as well as its contractors, subcontractors, consultants, agents and other service providers with regard to the Group's standard of integrity and rules of conduct to be observed in the performance of work and business practices. Employees were briefed on the COBC by the Group Managing Director at the town hall briefing held on 2 March 2017. All new employees are briefed on the COBC and other key policies of the Group by the Human Resource Department to ensure their awareness and conformity of the same. During the financial year 2017, employees had undertaken an online awareness test through a set of questionnaires administered by the Human Resource Department to ascertain their understanding of the COBC. The COBC and the questionnaires are available in both English and Bahasa Malaysia to ensure maximum accessibility especially for the large number of offshore based employees and is accessible via the Group's intranet and corporate website. In addition, the Board has also adopted and implemented a Directors' Code of Ethics which outlines certain standards of business conduct and ethical behavior to be observed by all Directors in discharging their duties and responsibilities. Both the COBC and Directors' Code of Ethics are available on the Company's corporate website.

Practice 3.2

The board establishes, reviews and together with management implements policies and procedures on whistleblowing.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The Board has established a Whistleblowing Policy to provide an avenue to facilitate employees of the Group and external parties to report any wrongdoings and provide assurance of protection in accordance with the procedures of the policy. Key provisions of the policy include the commitment to non-victimization, maintenance of strict confidentiality and the procedures and processes governing any investigation. The Board whilst pleased to note that there was no case reported in 2017 via the Whistleblowing channel, is mindful that the objectives and purposes of the policy should be more widely communicated and socialised and had entrusted Management to take the necessary measures and actions to achieve the desired awareness levels. The policy is available on the Company's corporate website. It is reviewed regularly and was last updated on 22 August 2017.

Intended Outcome

Board decisions are made objectively in the best interests of the company taking into account diverse perspectives and insights.

Practice 4.1

At least half of the board comprises independent directors. For Large Companies, the board comprises a majority independent directors.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	Throughout the financial year 2017, the Board comprised of seven (7) Directors with four (4) Independent Directors and three (3) Non-Independent Directors, i.e. there are more than 50% Independent Directors on the Board. The Independent Directors provide unbiased views and objectivity in deliberations. They bring a wide range of experience and expertise to the Group's affairs, and carry significant weight in the Board's decision. The Board composition is well balanced to achieve the promotion of shareholders' interest and effective governance of the business.

Measure	:
Timeframe	:

Intended Outcome

Board decisions are made objectively in the best interests of the company taking into account diverse perspectives and insights.

Practice 4.2

The tenure of an independent director does not exceed a cumulative term limit of nine years. Upon completion of the nine years, an independent director may continue to serve on the board as a non-independent director.

If the board intends to retain an independent director beyond nine years, it should justify and seek annual shareholders' approval. If the board continues to retain the independent director after the twelfth year, the board should seek annual shareholders' approval through a two-tier voting process.

Application	:	Applied - Annual shareholders' approval for independent directors serving beyond 9 years
Explanation on application of the practice	:	During the financial year 2017, two (2) Independent Directors, Datuk Ishak bin Imam Abas and Datuk Chin Kwai Yoong, have served more than nine (9) years but less than 12 years as at the Annual General Meeting (AGM) held on 18 May 2017. The Joint Remuneration and Nomination Committee and the Board have assessed, reviewed and determined that Datuk Ishak and Datuk Chin have remained objective and continued to be independent and unbiased in expressing their views and in participating in deliberations. The Board had sought shareholders' approval at the 2017 AGM held to retain Datuk Ishak bin Imam Abas and Datuk Chin Kwai Yoong as Independent Directors. The resolutions were duly passed by the shareholders. The Board will continue to seek shareholders' approval for their retention as Independent Directors at the forthcoming AGM scheduled to be held on 16 May 2018. The Board does not encourage a Director whose term of appointment has exceeded a cumulative period of 12 years to be retained as Independent Director, unless upon assessment by an independent third party, the Board is satisfied that the said Director remains objective and continues to be independent in all aspects and will continue to seek shareholders' approval at general meeting for the retention of such Independent Director.

Practice 4.3 - Step Up

The board has a policy which limits the tenure of its independent directors to nine years.

Application	:	Not Adopted
Explanation on adoption of the practice	:

Intended Outcome

Board decisions are made objectively in the best interests of the company taking into account diverse perspectives and insights.

Practice 4.4

Appointment of board and senior management are based on objective criteria, merit and with due regard for diversity in skills, experience, age, cultural background and gender.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	Appointments to the Board are based on good blend of competencies, skills, merits, extensive experience and knowledge and contribution to the overall working of the Board and the needs of the Group. Due considerations are given to the individual's skills, industry experience and knowledge, character, integrity and time to effectively discharge his or her role and responsibilities. No Director was appointed in financial year 2017. Diversity in relation to the Group's workforce is covered under the Equal Opportunity Policy of equal pay for equal value. Deleum is committed to provide fair and equal opportunity in employment and nurturing with the Group regardless of race, nationality, ethnic origin, age, religion or belief, gender, marital status, disability, or any other characteristic unrelated to the performance of the job. Recruitment and appointment of Senior Management and staff are based on a candidate's background, qualifications, experience and competency per the requirements of the job function taking into consideration workforce diversity and any applicable regulatory requirements. As at 31 December 2017, the workforce of the Group comprised 852 employees in the proportion of 77% male and 23% female. The higher ratio of male employees is due to the nature of the Group's activities which are largely performed offshore. Currently, there are 38 employees holding senior management positions of the Group, of which 10 are female.

Practice 4.5

The board discloses in its annual report the company's policies on gender diversity, its targets and measures to meet those targets. For Large Companies, the board must have at least 30% women directors.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The Company's Board gender diversity policy is to have at least one female Director. The Company has on 1 January 2015 appointed Datuk Noor Azian binti Shaari, its first female Director to the Board. The Board will endeavour to meet the target of at least 30% women directors based on merits and effective blend of skills, experience and knowledge in areas identified, the size of the Board and the needs of the Company. The Board will do so to ensure there is greater women representation on the Board if the candidates are of equal standing.

Practice 4.6

In identifying candidates for appointment of directors, the board does not solely rely on recommendations from existing board members, management or major shareholders. The board utilises independent sources to identify suitably qualified candidates.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	During financial years 2016 and 2017, there was no appointment of Directors to the Board. Selection of candidates to be considered for appointment as Directors is facilitated through recommendations from the Directors, major shareholders, Management or external parties including the Company's contacts in related industries, finance, legal and accounting professions. The Board will also consider sourcing candidates from other independent channels.

Practice 4.7

The Nominating Committee is chaired by an Independent Director or the Senior Independent Director.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The Nominating Committee of Deleum is combined with the Remuneration Committee and known as Joint Remuneration and Nomination Committee (JRNC). The JRNC is chaired by Datuk Ir (Dr) Abdul Rahim bin Hashim, the Senior Independent Director.

Measure	:
Timeframe	:

Intended Outcome

Stakeholders are able to form an opinion on the overall effectiveness of the board and individual directors.

Practice 5.1

The board should undertake a formal and objective annual evaluation to determine the effectiveness of the board, its committees and each individual director. The board should disclose how the assessment was carried out and its outcome.

For Large Companies, the board engages independent experts periodically to facilitate objective and candid board evaluations.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The Board through the Joint Remuneration and Nomination Committee (JRNC) and facilitated by the Company Secretary, annually assesses the effectiveness of the Board as a whole, Board Committees and the contribution of each individual Director. In January 2018, questionnaires were distributed to each member of the Board and Board Committees for the assessment/self-assessment in respect of the Board of Directors, individual Directors and Board Committees in respect of financial year 2017. The parameters used in the assessment are as below: (a) Board as a whole - structure, operation and interaction as well as Board's roles and responsibilities; (b) Individual Directors - contribution to interaction, quality of input, understanding of his/her role and training needs; (c) Independent Directors are further measured on his/her ability to exercise independent judgement and ability to demonstrate the values and principles associated with independence; and (d) Board Committees namely Audit Committee, JRNC and Board Risk Committee - structure and composition, operation and interaction, accountability and responsibilities. During the meeting held in February 2018, summary of results of the assessments were tabled at the JRNC meeting for deliberation. Subsequently, the Chairman of the JRNC made an oral presentation to the Board based on the results of the assessments at the Board meeting held on 26 February 2018. The outcome of the evaluation highlighted certain key focus areas and future priorities for the Board's consideration, amongst others, including the following: • enhancement in risks identification and assessment and the detailed action plans to mitigate the identified risks and monitoring of action plans;

	• to further exploit the existing investments in information technology (IT) and to embrace new technologies to drive business efficiencies and sharpen competitiveness; and • to consider for Board membership, person with IT knowledge and expertise given the continuing importance of technologies and innovations in driving business sustainability. At the Board meeting held on 26 February 2018, the Board confirmed that: • the Board's size and composition is appropriate given the scale of the Group's business and operations, and well balanced, thereby constituting an effective Board able to discharge its duties professionally and efficiently; • individual Directors of the Company possessed the required competence and character to manage the Group's affairs and created value for the organisation and its shareholders; and • the Board Committees are effective in discharging their duties and responsibilities in accordance with their Terms of Reference.

Intended Outcome

The level and composition of remuneration of directors and senior management take into account the company's desire to attract and retain the right talent in the board and senior management to drive the company's long-term objectives.

Remuneration policies and decisions are made through a transparent and independent process.

Practice 6.1

The board has in place policies and procedures to determine the remuneration of directors and senior management, which takes into account the demands, complexities and performance of the company as well as skills and experience required. The policies and procedures are periodically reviewed and made available on the company's website.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The Company has in place procedures to determine the remuneration of Executive Director and Senior Management as follows: 1. Group Managing Director (GMD)'s remuneration is reviewed and deliberated by Joint Remuneration and Nomination Committee (JRNC) and approved by the Board of Directors on recommendation of the JRNC. 2. Senior Management's remuneration is proposed and recommended by GMD and presented to JRNC for review and recommendation to Board for approval. Where the Senior Management personnel is not direct reportee of GMD, the Chief Operating Officers or the functional heads will propose and give recommendation to GMD. The Company has in place a remuneration framework for the Directors and the Key Senior Management personnel which takes into account the demands, complexities and performance of the Company as well as skills and experience required. The objective of the Group's remuneration policies is to provide fair and competitive remuneration to its Board and Senior Management for retaining a high quality team for the Group. The Non-Executive Directors Remuneration Framework and the Remuneration Framework for Executive Directors and Key Senior Management are available on the Company's corporate website. The detailed remuneration of GMD, Non-Executive Directors and the top (5) Key Senior Management personnel are disclosed in the CG Overview Statement on pages 61 to 64 of the Annual Report.

The board discloses on a named basis the top five senior management's remuneration component including salary, bonus, benefits in-kind and other emoluments in bands of RM50,000.

Application	:	Departure
Explanation on application of the practice	:
Explanation for departure	:	While the Company notes the need for corporate transparency on the remuneration of key senior management executives, the disclosure of details on a named basis may be detrimental to its business interests, given the competitive human capital environment for personnel with the requisite knowledge, expertise and experience of the Company's business activities. The Board believes that the interest of the shareholders will not be prejudiced as a result of the non-disclosure on a named basis the remuneration within the disclosure bands of the Group's top five (5) senior management who are not Directors. To provide an insight of the level of remuneration paid to the top five (5) senior management, the alternative disclosure is adopted whereby their aggregate total remuneration with breakdowns and in the bands RM50,000 in number are disclosed in the CG Overview Statement on pages 63 to 64 of the Annual Report instead of on named basis. This is in line with the spirit of the disclosure guidelines and in the interest of the employees concerned and shareholders.

Practice 9.1

The board should establish an effective risk management and internal control framework.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The Board through the Board Risk Committee oversees the implementation of the Group's risk management framework. It ensures the Group has in place a sound enterprise risk management framework and such framework has been effectively implemented to enhance the Group's ability to achieve its strategic objectives. The Group has established the Enterprise Risk Management (ERM) Framework which was formalised in 2012 and is consistent with The Committee of Sponsoring Organizations of the Treadway Commission's (COSO) ERM framework in running the risk management functions. The Group has also adopted the Project Risk Management Guideline in 2015. In April 2017, with the recommendation of the Board Risk Committee, the Company set up a Management Risk Committee with the objective of charging Management with managing risk on a day to day basis.

Intended Outcome

Companies make informed decisions about the level of risk they want to take and implement necessary controls to pursue their objectives.

The board is provided with reasonable assurance that adverse impact arising from a foreseeable future event or situation on the company's objectives is mitigated and managed.

Practice 9.3 - Step Up

The board establishes a Risk Management Committee, which comprises a majority of independent directors, to oversee the company's risk management framework and policies.

Application	:	Adopted
Explanation on adoption of the practice	:	The Board Risk Committee (formerly known as "Risk Committee") was established since July 2009. On 22 August 2017, Encik Nan Yusri bin Nan Rahimy, the Group Managing Director resigned as a member of the Board Risk Committee to be in line with Step Up 9.3 of the Malaysian Code on Corporate Governance where the Board Risk Committee should comprise a majority of independent directors to oversee the Company's risk management framework and policies. Currently, the Board Risk Committee comprises two (2) Independent Non-Executive Directors and one (1) Non-Independent Non-Executive Director.

Intended Outcome

Companies have an effective governance, risk management and internal control framework and stakeholders are able to assess the effectiveness of such a framework.

Practice 10.1

The Audit Committee should ensure that the internal audit function is effective and able to function independently.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The Company engaged the services of BDO Governance Advisory Sdn. Bhd. (BDO), a well-established firm that complies with the International Professional Practices Framework issued by the Institute of Internal Auditors (IIA), as the outsourced Internal Audit Function (IAF). The IAF reports directly to the Audit Committee and is independent of Management. It has full access to the Group's entities, records and personnel. The IAF is effective and able to function independently of the activities it audits. It has, and has exercised, direct access to the members of the Audit Committee as deemed necessary. The leaderships and key members of the IAF team have worked on the Company's internal audit engagements consistently and has built up a good understanding of the Group's business and the peculiarities of the industry in which the Group operates.

Practice 10.2

The board should disclose—

- whether internal audit personnel are free from any relationships or conflicts of interest, which could impair their objectivity and independence;
- the number of resources in the internal audit department;
- name and qualification of the person responsible for internal audit; and
- whether the internal audit function is carried out in accordance with a recognised framework.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	As disclosed in Practice 10.1 above, the Audit Committee is supported by BDO Governance Advisory Sdn. Bhd. (BDO) as the outsourced Internal Audit Function (IAF). The IAF is free from any relationships or conflicts of interest, which could impair their objectivity and independence. BDO has no relationship with the Group and is independent from Management, staff, Directors and substantial shareholders. The Audit Committee is of the opinion that BDO is independent and objective in carrying out its role as IAF. The IAF is carried out in accordance with The Committee of Sponsoring Organizations of the Treadway Commission (COSO) framework. In carrying out the internal audit for the Group, the IAF team is headed by the Executive Director – Advisory of BDO who possesses the relevant qualification and experience and assisted by four (4) staff including a senior manager.
