SECTION A – DISCLOSURE ON MALAYSIAN CODE ON CORPORATE GOVERNANCE

Disclosures in this section are pursuant to Paragraph 15.25 of Bursa Malaysia Listing Requirements.

Intended Outcome

Every company is headed by a board, which assumes responsibility for the company's leadership and is collectively responsible for meeting the objectives and goals of the company.

Practice 1.1

The board should set the company's strategic aims, ensure that the necessary resources are in place for the company to meet its objectives and review management performance. The board should set the company's values and standards, and ensure that its obligations to its shareholders and other stakeholders are understood and met.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The Board is responsible for the leadership, oversight, control, development and long-term success of the Group. It is also responsible for instilling the appropriate culture, values and behaviour throughout the Group. The Company's Board Charter defines the following duties and responsibilities of the Board which can be found at the Company's website at www.minetech.com.my :- <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>a) Reviewing the code of conduct of the Company and implementing appropriate internal systems to support, promote and ensure its compliance;</li><li>b) Reviewing and adopting a strategic plan for the Company;</li><li>c) Overseeing the conduct of the Company's business to evaluate whether the business is being properly managed;</li><li>d) Reviewing, ratifying and monitoring systems of risk management and internal control and ethical and legal compliance. This includes establishing sound risk management framework, reviewing procedures to identify the main risks associated with the Company's businesses and the implementation of appropriate systems to manage these risks;</li><li>e) Reviewing the procedures for appointment of senior management and Directors and ensuring that succession planning is in place;</li><li>f) Establishing an internal audit function which reports directly to the Audit Committee;</li><li>g) Ensuring there is a sound framework of reporting on internal controls, risk management and regulatory compliance;</li><li>h) Ensuring its members have access to information, appropriate continuing education programmes</li><li>i) To supervise and assess management performance to determine whether the business is being properly managed</li><li>j) Promoting ethical business conduct and maintaining a healthy corporate culture that engenders integrity, transparency and fairness</li></ul>

	The Board has delegated some of its responsibilities to the Committees of the Board, namely Audit Committee (“AC”), Nomination Committee (“NC”), Remuneration Committee (“RC”) and Risk Management Committee (“RMC”). The activities of each Committee are set out in the Corporate Governance Overview Statement of the Annual Report 2018. While the responsibility for monitoring the effectiveness of the Group’s risk management has been delegated to the RMC, the Board retains ultimate responsibility for determining the Group’s “risk tolerance” and annually considers a report in relation to the monitoring, controlling and reporting of identified risks and uncertainties. In addition, the Board receives regular reports from the Chairman of the RMC. The Board promotes the application of sustainability practices throughout the Group, the benefits of which are believed to translate into better corporate performance and ensure the integrity in the Company’s financial and non-financial reporting. A report on sustainability activities, demonstrating the Group’s commitment to the environment, community, marketplace and workplace, appears in the Sustainability Statement of this Annual Report. The Board has conducted a review on the Board policies including the Board Charter and Term of References of the Board Committees in May and July 2018 guided by the new Malaysian Code on Corporate Governance and Bursa Securities’s Main Market Listing Requirements.

Intended Outcome

The board is committed to promoting good business conduct and maintaining a healthy corporate culture that engenders integrity, transparency and fairness.

The board, management, employees and other stakeholders are clear on what is considered acceptable behaviour and practice in the company.

Practice 3.1

The board establishes a Code of Conduct and Ethics for the company, and together with management implements its policies and procedures, which include managing conflicts of interest, preventing the abuse of power, corruption, insider trading and money laundering.

The Code of Conduct and Ethics is published on the company's website.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The Code of Ethics and Conduct ("the Code") was adopted in May 2018. The Code sets out the standards which the Directors, officers and employees (together "Personnel") of the Company and its subsidiaries are expected to comply in relation to the affairs of the Company's businesses when dealing with each other, shareholders and the broader community. The Board is required to observe compliance of the Code as well as the Board Charter and high standard of corporate governance at all times. The Board members are required to declare any personal, professional or business interest that may conflict with director's responsibilities. This Code is intended to focus on the Board and Management on areas of ethical risk, provide guidance to Personnel to help them to recognise and deal with ethical issues, provide mechanisms to report unethical conduct, and help to foster a culture of honesty and accountability. The Code includes, inter alia, matters relating to conflicts of interest, proper use of the Company's assets and properties as well as knowledge and information on prohibited activities or misconduct involving gifts, gratuities, bribes and corruption, insider trading and money laundering. The Code is available on the Company's website at www.minetech.com.my. The Board and Senior Management of the Company will periodically review the Code on an annual basis and communicate changes to all levels of officers.

Practice 4.1

At least half of the board comprises independent directors. For Large Companies, the board comprises a majority of independent directors.

Application	:	Departure
Explanation on application of the practice	:
Explanation for departure	:	The Board is of the view that the current composition provides the right balance between Executive Directors and Non-Executive Directors with an appropriate mix of relevant skills, knowledge and industry experience required to lead and oversee the Group. Presently, the Company's Independent Directors is 33.33%. A detailed breakdown of the composition is as below:- <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• 1 Non-Independent Non-Executive Chairman;</li><li>• 2 Executive Directors;</li><li>• 3 Non-Independent Non-Executive Directors; and</li><li>• 3 Independent Non-Executive Directors.</li></ul> Notwithstanding that the current Board composition does not comprise at least half of the Independent Directors, the three (3) Independent Directors together with the Chairman of the Board committees (i.e Audit Committee, Nomination Committee, Remuneration Committee and Risk Management Committee) are Independent Non-Executive Directors and able to exercise strong independent judgement and provide independent views and advices to all Board deliberations. An annual assessment of independence of the Independent Directors would be conducted on annual basis. Based on the evaluation results, the Board was satisfied that each Independent Director has fulfilled the independence criteria set out in the Main Market Listing Requirements of Bursa Malaysia Securities Berhad and they will continue to demonstrate their independence through their engagement in all meetings, providing objective challenge to the Management and bringing independent judgement to decisions taken by the Board.

Intended Outcome

Board decisions are made objectively in the best interests of the company taking into account diverse perspectives and insights.

Practice 4.2

The tenure of an independent director does not exceed a cumulative term limit of nine years. Upon completion of the nine years, an independent director may continue to serve on the board as a non-independent director.

If the board intends to retain an independent director beyond nine years, it should justify and seek annual shareholders' approval. If the board continues to retain the independent director after the twelfth year, the board should seek annual shareholders' approval through a two-tier voting process.

Application	:	Not applicable - No independent director(s) serving beyond 9 years
Explanation on application of the practice	:	Currently, none of the INEDs of the Company have exceeded the cumulative terms of nine (9) years.  Should the Board intends to retain any of its Independent Directors beyond nine (9) years or twelve (12) years, it would provide justification and seek annual shareholders' approval.

Practice 4.3 - Step Up

The board has a policy which limits the tenure of its independent directors to nine years.

Application	:	Not Adopted
Explanation on adoption of the practice	:

Intended Outcome

Board decisions are made objectively in the best interests of the company taking into account diverse perspectives and insights.

Practice 4.4

Appointment of board and senior management are based on objective criteria, merit and with due regard for diversity in skills, experience, age, cultural background and gender.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	In recommending the appointment of Directors and Senior Management, the NC considers salient attributes such as mix of skills and experience, strengths, expected contribution, independence (where applicable) and the multiple facets of diversity to ensure a balanced mix of talents on the Board and Senior Management level. The Board, alongside the NC, undertakes periodic reviews of the composition of the Board and Senior Management to ensure that they remain diverse. The current composition of the Board includes a diverse mix of skill sets, knowledge and experience (eg. Accounting, legal, finance, business and management) and age (range between 35-65). The appointment of Senior Management personnel is also based on pre-determined criteria that includes skill sets and leadership qualities, driven by their respective job descriptions.

Practice 4.5

The board discloses in its annual report the company's policies on gender diversity, its targets and measures to meet those targets. For Large Companies, the board must have at least 30% women directors.

Application	:	Departure
Explanation on application of the practice	:
Explanation for departure	:	The Board recognises the challenges in achieving the right balance of diversity in the Company. This will be done over time, taking into account the present size, the valuable knowledge and experience of the present Senior Management and the evolving challenges to the Company over time.
		The Board takes cognisance of the recommendation of the MCCG which stipulate a goal for women participation to reach 30% for large company and continuously considering suitable women candidates to be appointed with the intention to further diversify the composition of the Board.
		The Company had adopted the Diversity Policy which outlines its approach to achieving and maintaining diversity (including gender diversity) on its Board of Directors and in Senior Management positions.

Intended Outcome

Board decisions are made objectively in the best interests of the company taking into account diverse perspectives and insights.

Practice 4.6

In identifying candidates for appointment of directors, the board does not solely rely on recommendations from existing board members, management or major shareholders. The board utilises independent sources to identify suitably qualified candidates.

Application	:	Departure
Explanation on application of the practice	:
Explanation for departure	:	The current process with regards to the appointment of new Directors to the Board is based on the recommendation of the NC. The Board relies on the existing network and referrals from existing Directors, Senior Management and major shareholders as primary means to source for new Directors as they represent a tried and tested method of sourcing high-calibre directors with a sound understanding of the business.
	:	The Directors appointment process is carried out based on methodical and robust process undertaken by the NC. Candidates recommended are thoroughly assessed based on their competence, integrity, character, time commitment and experience as stated in Paragraph 2.20A of Bursa Securities Main Market Listing Requirements. The Board will consider external and independent sources if applicable.

Intended Outcome

Stakeholders are able to form an opinion on the overall effectiveness of the board and individual directors.

Practice 5.1

The board should undertake a formal and objective annual evaluation to determine the effectiveness of the board, its committees and each individual director. The board should disclose how the assessment was carried out and its outcome.

For Large Companies, the board engages independent experts periodically to facilitate objective and candid board evaluations.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The NC conducted internally facilitated Board assessment via questionnaires on yearly basis. The results and recommendations from the evaluation of the Board and Board Committees are reported to the Board for consideration and action.  During the year under review, the NC had conducted its evaluation of the Board, Board Committees, individual Directors and level of independency for Independent Directors and concluded that the Directors (individually and collectively) have discharged their respective roles and responsibilities in a conscientious manner.

Intended Outcome

The level and composition of remuneration of directors and senior management take into account the company's desire to attract and retain the right talent in the board and senior management to drive the company's long-term objectives.

Remuneration policies and decisions are made through a transparent and independent process.

Practice 6.1

The board has in place policies and procedures to determine the remuneration of directors and senior management, which takes into account the demands, complexities and performance of the company as well as skills and experience required. The policies and procedures are periodically reviewed and made available on the company's website.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The Board acknowledges that remuneration is a key ingredient in attracting, retaining and motivating talented and high-calibre individuals that can successfully run and manage the business. In this regard, the Board has adopted a Directors' and Senior Management's Remuneration Policy in May 2018. In setting the remuneration of directors, the Board is guided by the Directors' and Senior Management's Remuneration Policy. The Executive Directors shall not participate in decisions regarding their individual remuneration. The remuneration of Non-Executive Directors is determined by the Board as a whole. The remuneration package for Executive Directors has been structured to link rewards to corporate and individual performance while Non-Executive Directors' remuneration reflects the experience and level of responsibilities undertaken by individual Non-Executive Directors. The Directors' Remuneration Policy and accompanying procedures are disclosed on the Company's website.
