Practice 12.3

Listed companies with a large number of shareholders or which have meetings in remote locations should leverage technology to facilitate–

- including voting in absentia; and
- remote shareholders' participation at General Meetings.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The Company does not have a large shareholder base. Its general meetings are held in a location which is easily accessible and not remote. As such, the Board is of the view that voting in absentia and remote shareholders' participation at General Meetings are not warranted. Nevertheless, the Board is also monitoring the developments in the market in respect of new technologies to facilitate the conduct of General Meetings and may consider implementing the same in the future if there is a strong case to do so.
