WHISTLE BLOWING POLICY

1. Purpose

This Whistle Blowing Policy (this “Policy”) is intended for MY E.G. Services Berhad (“MYEG” or “the Company”) and all subsidiary companies within MYEG Group (“the Group”). This Policy applies to all matters involving the Group’s employees and any external stakeholders / public providing services to the Group, including consultants, vendors, independent contractors, external agencies and/or any other party with a business relationship with the Group.

All employees of the Group play an important role in maintaining the highest level of corporate ethics within the Group and have a professional responsibility to report any known malpractices or wrongdoings (hereon referred to as “Concern” or “Concerns”).

This Policy is applicable to, and can be used by, any persons internal or external to the Group, including Directors and employees, customers, any external stakeholders providing services to the Group, and the general public.

2. Safeguards

A person or entity making a protected disclosure or report is commonly referred to as a “Whistleblower”, who provides initial information related to a reasonable belief that an improper activity may potentially occur, is occurring and/or has occurred.

A Whistleblower who reports a Concern in good faith is protected against retaliation, such as being dismissed or penalised by the Group. Retaliation, which is in violation of this Policy, is itself a reportable Concern under this Policy.

Such protection from retaliation, however, does not extend to any complicity in the matters that are the subject of the Concern or any other ensuing investigation. If the Whistleblower is involved in the Concern reported, the Group will nevertheless consider the circumstances, on a case-by-case basis, and the fact that the Whistleblower has reported the Concern.

3. Confidentiality

Every effort will be made to treat the Whistleblower’s identity with appropriate regard for confidentiality. The Group gives the assurance that it will not reveal the identity of the Whistleblower to any third party not involved in the investigation or prosecution of the matter. The only exception to this assurance relates to an overriding legal obligation to breach confidentiality. The Group is obligated to reveal the identity of the Whistleblower and confidential information relating to a whistleblowing report, if ordered to do so by a court of law.
