Meeting expectations

- 1HFY18 earnings were in line with expectations
- Lower revenue from Platinum Sentral as well as loss of income from disposal of QB8
- Dividend yields of 6.6% are attractive with total potential returns of 15.6%. Maintain BUY with TP of RM1.27

What's New

2QFY18 results within expectations

MQREIT's 2QFY18 core net distributable income came in at RM21.3m (-3.4% y-o-y). This brings 1HFY18 distributable income to RM42.3m (-6.4% y-o-y). This is in line with ours/consensus expectations.

The decrease for the quarter was mainly due to lower revenue generated from Platinum Sentral as well as loss of revenue from the disposal of QB8 – DHL XPJ which took place on 12 April 2018.

Property operating expenses inched down to RM10.0m (-1.2% y-o-y) as it tightened control on costs and reduced expenses from the disposal of QB8. There was also a gain of RM2.2m from the divestment of property. Thus, NPI came in at RM23.5m (+6.5% y-o-y).

A DPU of 4.23 sen was announced implying a 96.7% payout for 1HFY18.

Stable occupancy, some lease expiries coming up

Portfolio occupancy was steady at c.96.0%, slightly lower vs 1QFY18's 96.2%.

About 28.0% of total NLA is due for renewal in FY18, of which c.3.0% have been renewed. The expiring leases in FY19 form 15% of total NLA, and 17% in FY20. We believe rental reversion were flattish, as per guidance by management, as it focused on tenant retention to cope with a challenging operating environment.

Flash Note

Going forward, we expect some challenges in negotiating positive rental reversions due to the oversupply of office space in the market.

Outlook

MRCB connection. MQREIT has the right of first refusal to MRCB's stable of investment properties, which is worth up to RM1.5bn in aggregate. Notable assets include Ascott Sentral (serviced apartments), Plaza Alam Sentral (retail), Sooka Sentral (lifestyle/retail) and Kompleks Sentral (industrial). The REIT may also acquire office assets from the Quill Group, the original sponsor of MQREIT with a remaining stake of c.11%. However, MQREIT's current gearing of c.37% indicates that new equity issuance will likely be necessary for sizeable acquisitions in the near term.

Valuation

We maintain our BUY recommendation with an unchanged TP of RM1.27. Despite factoring in flat rental reversions, FY18 dividend yields are attractive at 6.6%. MQREIT's appeal is the availability of an asset acquisition pipeline of completed investment properties from MRCB. Confirmation of injections at accretive yields will be a re-rating catalyst for the stock. Our DDM-derived TP employs 7.4% cost of equity and 1% terminal growth.
