SECTION A – DISCLOSURE ON MALAYSIAN CODE ON CORPORATE GOVERNANCE

Disclosures in this section are pursuant to Paragraph 15.25 of Bursa Malaysia Listing Requirements.

Intended Outcome

Every company is headed by a board, which assumes responsibility for the company's leadership and is collectively responsible for meeting the objectives and goals of the company.

Practice 1.1

The board should set the company's strategic aims, ensure that the necessary resources are in place for the company to meet its objectives and review management performance. The board should set the company's values and standards, and ensure that its obligations to its shareholders and other stakeholders are understood and met.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The Board recognises the importance of good corporate governance practices within the Company and its subsidiary companies ("Group") as a fundamental part of discharging its responsibilities to safeguard shareholders' investments and to protect the interests of all stakeholders. In discharging its fiduciary duties and leadership functions, the Board is guided by the Code of Conduct and Ethics, Whistle-Blowing Policy, Anti-Corruption Policy as well as the terms of reference of the Board Committees which are published on the Company's Corporate website at http://www.gbg.com.my/. These outline the duties and responsibilities of the Board, matters reserved for the Board as well as those which the Board may delegate to the Board Committees, the Managing Directors/Group Chief Executive Office and Management. The Board also has reserved a formal schedule of matters for its decision making to ensure that direction and control of the Company are firmly in its hands. It has also set the strategic direction of the Company, exercised oversight on Management and set the appropriate tone at the top, while providing thought leadership and championing good governance and ethical practices throughout the Company. Its role can be summarised by the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Reviewing and adopting a strategic plan for the Group.• Overseeing and evaluating the conduct of the Group's business.• Identifying principal risks and ensuring the implementation of appropriate internal controls and mitigation measures.• Establishing a succession planning for Board and senior management including appointing, training, fixing the compensation of, and where appropriate, replacing Key Senior Management.

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Overseeing the development and implementation of stakeholders' communications policy for the Group to ensure an effective, transparent and regular communication with its stakeholders. • Reviewing the adequacy and the integrity of the management information and internal control system of the Group including systems for compliance with applicable laws, regulations, rules, directives, and guidelines. • Formulating of corporate policies and strategies. • Approving key matters such as financial results as well as major investments and divestments, major acquisitions and disposals and major capital expenditure in accordance with the limits of authority. • Annual Assessment of the Board, Board Committees and individual Directors. In line with its overall responsibility for the proper conduct of the Group's business, the Board is also responsible for establishing the Group's business goals and strategic directions, setting operating goals and performance targets for Management and monitoring the achievement of those operating goals and performance targets. The Board also oversees the process of evaluating the adequacy and effectiveness of the system of internal control and risk management processes.

Practice 1.5

Directors receive meeting materials, which are complete and accurate within a reasonable period prior to the meeting. Upon conclusion of the meeting, the minutes are circulated in a timely manner.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	To facilitate the Directors' time management, a scheduled meeting calendar is prepared and circulated in advance of each new year which is usually circulated to the Board by end of the calendar year. The calendar provides Directors with scheduled dates for meetings of the Board, Board Committees and the Annual General Meeting. The Notices for Board Meetings and Board Committees' Meetings are sent to the Directors via email at least seven (7) working days prior to the meeting. Further, the Company Secretaries will circulate the proper notice of meetings together with the agendas and meeting materials at least five (5) business days before the meeting date or in a timely manner, via electronically if necessary, to allow reasonable time for Directors to view the Board papers and Board Committees' papers. The deliberations and decisions at Board and Board Committees' meetings are well documented in the minutes, including matters where interested Directors are abstained from voting and deliberation. The minutes of Board meetings are circulated to all Directors on a timely basis for their perusal prior to confirmation of the minutes to be done at the commencement of the following Board meeting. The Directors may request for clarification or raise comments before the minutes are tabled for confirmation. Upon receiving confirmation from all the members at the Board meetings, the minutes will be signed by the Chairman of the meeting as a correct record of the proceedings of the meeting. Actionable items would be recorded as matters arising until they are eventually resolved. Signed copies of the minutes were kept in the minutes book maintained by the Company Secretary.

Practice 4.2

The tenure of an independent director does not exceed a cumulative term limit of nine years. Upon completion of the nine years, an independent director may continue to serve on the board as a non-independent director.

If the board intends to retain an independent director beyond nine years, it should justify and seek annual shareholders' approval. If the board continues to retain the independent director after the twelfth year, the board should seek annual shareholders' approval through a two-tier voting process.

Application	:	Applied - Annual shareholders' approval for independent directors serving beyond 9 years
Explanation on application of the practice	:	Our Board takes cognisance of the best practice of MCGG on the tenure of Independent Director which shall not exceed a cumulative term of nine (9) years and if the Board intends to retain the Independent Directors beyond nine (9) years, it should justify and seek annual shareholders' approval. Shareholders' approval had been sought at the last Annual General Meeting ("AGM") for Datuk Kamarudin bin Md. Ali who has attained his nine years term on 6 July 2020, to continue in office until the conclusion of the forthcoming AGM. Mr Muk Sai Tat was appointed as an Independent Non-Executive Director of the Company on 2 November 2012 and therefore, will have served the Board in that capacity for a cumulative term of nine (9) years by 2 November 2021. Hence, prior approval should be obtained from the shareholders at the forthcoming AGM before he reaches the nine (9) years term limit on 2 November 2021. The Board through the Nomination Committee has undertaken relevant assessment and recommended Datuk Kamarudin bin Md and Mr Muk Sai Tat to continue to serve as Independent Non-Executive Directors of the Company based on the following justification:- (a) They have fulfilled the criteria under the definition of an Independent Director as stated in the Main Market Listing Requirements ("MMLR") of Bursa Securities and thus, they would be able to function as check and balance, provide a broader view and bring with them an element of objectivity to the Board. (b) They have not been involved in any business or other relationship which could hinder the exercise of independent judgement, objectivity or their ability to act in the best interests of the Company. (c) They have no potential conflict of interest, whether business or non-business related with the Company.

	(d) There are significant advantages to be gained from a long-serving Independent Director as they have many years of experience with incumbent knowledge of the Company and the Group's activities and corporate history, and have provided invaluable contributions to the Board in their roles as an Independent Non-Executive Directors.

Practice 4.4

Appointment of board and senior management are based on objective criteria, merit and with due regard for diversity in skills, experience, age, cultural background and gender.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The Board acknowledges the importance of diversity in terms of skills, profiles, age, ethnicity, gender, business experience and personal skills of the Directors and Senior Management. Having a range of diversity brings the necessary perspective, experience and expertise required to achieve effective stewardship and management of the Company's operation. The Nomination Committee is responsible to lead the process for the nomination of new Board appointments and making the necessary recommendations to the Board of Directors. Therefore, in making its recommendations, the Nomination Committee should consider the following criteria of the candidates:- <ul style="list-style-type: none">• qualification;• skills, knowledge, expertise and experience;• specialist knowledge and technical skills;• professionalism;• integrity; and• in the case of candidates for the position of independent non-executive directors, the nomination committee should also evaluate the candidate's ability to discharge such responsibilities/ functions as expected from independent non-executive directors and time commitment to the Company. All appointments will be assessed based on the merits of each candidates and candidates will be considered against objective criteria, having due regard for the benefits of diversity of the Board and workforce.

Practice 4.6

In identifying candidates for appointment of directors, the board does not solely rely on recommendations from existing board members, management or major shareholders. The board utilises independent sources to identify suitably qualified candidates.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The Board considers a variety of sources for the identification of suitable candidates. The Board may rely on recommendations from the existing Board members, Senior Management, major shareholders as well as other independent sources. During the financial year 2020, the Company has appointed Puan Latifah binti Abdul Latiff as an Independent Non-Executive Director of the Company. The Board will ensure that all Directors are appointed on merit, in line with standards as set out in Paragraph 2.20A of the MMLR of Bursa Securities. Although the selection/identification of candidates of appointment was made based on the recommendation from existing Board members, the Board decisions are still made objectively in the best interest of the Company taking into the account the diverse skills, expertise and perspective of the current Board members.

Intended Outcome

Stakeholders are able to form an opinion on the overall effectiveness of the board and individual directors.

Practice 5.1

The board should undertake a formal and objective annual evaluation to determine the effectiveness of the board, its committees and each individual director. The board should disclose how the assessment was carried out and its outcome.

For Large Companies, the board engages independent experts periodically to facilitate objective and candid board evaluations.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The Nomination Committee (NC) carries out an annual evaluation of the effectiveness of the Board as whole, the Board Committees and the contribution or performance of each individual Director. The NC also assists the Board in assessing the independence of the Independent Directors annually. The annual evaluation, which was internally facilitated, involves individual Director and Committee members completing separate evaluation performance questionnaires regarding processes of the Board and its Committees, their effectiveness and where improvements could be considered. The criteria for the evaluation is guided by the 3rd Edition of the Corporate Governance Guidebook issued by Bursa Malaysia. The assessment consists of the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none">▪ Performance Evaluation Sheet - Individual Director's Self/Peer Evaluation;▪ Board and Board Committee Evaluation Form;▪ Audit Committee Evaluation Form;▪ Audit Committee Members' Self and Peer Evaluation Form; and▪ Independent Directors' Self-Assessment Checklist. The assessment and comments by all Directors were summarised and discussed at the NC meeting which were then reported to the Board at the Board meeting held thereafter. These assessments and evaluations carried by the NC are properly documented. The Board is satisfied with the results of the annual assessment. The Board views that the current size and the existing composition of the Board are sufficient and well balanced, cater effectively to the scope of the Group's operations and there is appropriate mix of knowledge, skills, attributes and core competencies in the Board. As presently constituted, the Board has the stability, continuity and commitment as well as capacity to discharge its responsibilities effectively.
