1. OBJECTIVES

The objectives of the Board Charter are to ensure that all the Board of Directors (the “Board”) acting on behalf of Mynews Holdings Berhad (the “Company”) are aware of their duties and responsibilities as Board members and various legislations and regulations affecting their conduct and that the principles and practices of good Corporate Governance are applied in their dealings in respect, and on behalf of, the Company.

This Board Charter sets out the principles for the operation of the Board and describes the functions of the Board and those functions delegated to management of the Company (the “Management”).

2. BOARD STRUCTURE

2.1 Composition and Board Balance

- The Board shall be of a size and composition comprising of individuals with different qualification, background, experience and diversity who will effectively contribute to the Board’s perspective and oversight of the Company and its subsidiaries’ (the “Group’s”) current and emerging issues and business operation.
- In accordance with Malaysian Code on Corporate Governance 2021 (“MCCG 2021”), the Board shall comprise at least 50% of independent directors.
- If the Chairman of the Board (“Chairman”) is not an Independent Director, the Board shall comprise a majority of Independent Directors.
- The Independent Directors shall provide independent judgement, experience and objectivity without being subordinated to operational considerations.
- The Independent Directors shall assist to ensure that the interests of all shareholders, and not only the interests of a particular faction or group, are indeed taken into account by the Board and that the relevant issues are subjected to objective and impartial consideration by the Board.
- The views of the Independent Directors should carry significant weight in the Board’s decision making.
- If, on any matter discussed at a Board meeting, any Director holds views contrary to those of any of the other Directors, the Board minutes will clearly reflect this.

- The Board recognises the importance of having a clearly accepted division of power and responsibilities at the head of the Company to ensure a balance of power and authority. It is the policy of the Board to keep the roles of the Chairman and Group Chief Executive Officer separate.
- The Board promotes and embraces diversity and gender mix in its composition and believes that the presence of diverse ethnicities, age, nationalities and gender on the Board can widen the Board's perspectives in effectively discharging its duties and responsibilities. While promoting diversity, due recognition to the financial, technical, experience and skill-sets of the Director concerned and the Board as a whole and business imperative shall remain a priority. In line with MCCG 2021, the Board is mindful to have 30% women participation.
- The Board reviews whether the Board's representation satisfies the requirement to fairly reflect the investment of the minority shareholders in the Company other than the significant shareholders.
- The Board reviews the required mix of skills and experience and other qualities, including core competencies which Non-Executive Directors should bring to the Board and assessing the effectiveness of the Board on the whole.
- The Board examines the size of the Board with a view to determine the impact of the number upon its effectiveness.

2.2 Appointments

- Members of the Board are expected to have appropriate knowledge, skills and experience in order for them to participate and to make positive contribution to the Board's performance of its duties and to give sufficient time and attention to the affairs of the Company.
- The appointment of a new Director is a matter for consideration and decision by the full Board upon appropriate recommendation from the Nominating Committee.
- In the case of candidates for the position of Independent Directors, the Nominating Committee shall also evaluate the candidates' ability to discharge such responsibilities/functions as expected from Independent Directors.
- The Company Secretary has the responsibility of ensuring that relevant procedures relating to the appointments of new Directors are properly executed.

- Directors appointed should devote the required time to serve the board effectively. Any appointment that may cast doubt on the integrity and governance of the company should be avoided.
- A Director shall inform the Board's Chairman before he/she accepts any new directorships in other companies including listed and non-listed companies. The directorships held by any Board member at any one time shall not exceed five (5) listed companies listed on the Main Market Listing Requirements of Bursa Malaysia Securities Berhad ("Bursa Malaysia") or as imposed by the relevant authorities/regulators from time to time.

2.3 Re-election

- All newly appointed Directors shall retire from office but shall be eligible for re-election in the next Annual General Meeting ("AGM") subsequent to their appointment.
- One-third (1/3) of the Directors shall be subject to re-election by rotation at each AGM.
- The directors to retire in each year shall be those who have been longest in office since their last election, but as between persons who became directors on the same day those to retire (unless they otherwise agree among themselves) shall be determined by the drawing of lots.

2.4 Independence of Director

- An Independent Director is independent of management and free from any relationship or any transaction, which could materially interfere with his exercise of objective, independent judgment or his ability to act in the best interest of the Group.
- The Board undertakes to assess the independence of the Independent Directors annually.

2.5 Independence Criteria

In determining/assessing the "independence" of its Directors, the Company also adopts the independence criteria of the Main Market Listing Requirements and Practice Note 13 which states that an Independent Director:

- is not an executive director of the Company or any related corporation ("Said Corporation");
- is not and has not been within the last 3 years, an officer* (except as a non-executive director) of the Said Corporation;

- is not a major shareholder of the Said Corporation;
- is not a family member of any executive director, officer or major shareholder of the Said Corporation;
- is not acting as a nominee or representative of any executive director or major shareholder of the Said Corporation;
- has not been engaged as a professional adviser or is not presently a partner, director (except as an independent director) or a major shareholder, as the case may be, of a firm or corporation (“Entity”) which provides professional services to the Said Corporation (provided that the consideration for the professional advisory services in aggregate is not more than 5% of the gross revenue on a consolidated basis (where applicable) of the said Director or Entity or RM1 million, whichever is higher – Practice Note 13 of the Main Market Listing Requirements); and
- has not engaged in any transactions or is not presently a partner, Director or major shareholder as the case may be, of the Entity (other than subsidiaries of the Company) which has been engaged in any transactions (provided that the consideration for the transaction in aggregate is not more than 5% of the gross revenue on a consolidated basis (where applicable) of the Said Director or Entity or RM1 million, whichever is higher – Practice Note 13 of the Main Market Listing Requirements).

Note:

* officer has the meaning given in Section 2 of the Companies Act, 2016

 major shareholder has the meaning given in Chapter 1.01 Main Market Listing Requirements

 nominee has the meaning given in Practice Note 13(3)

2.6 Tenure of Independent Director

- The tenure of an Independent Non-Executive Director should not exceed a cumulative term limit of nine (9) years. Upon completion of the nine (9) years limit, an Independent Non-Executive Director may continue to serve on the Board as a Non-Independent Non-Executive Director. If the Board intends to retain an Independent Non-Executive Director beyond nine (9) years, it shall justify and seek annual shareholders’ approval through a two-tier voting process. Under the 2-tier voting process, shareholders’ votes will be cast in the following manner at the same shareholders meeting:

Tier 1: Only the Large Shareholder(s) of the Company votes and Tier 2: Shareholders other than Large Shareholder(s) votes.

3. PERFORMANCE

3.1 Performance Assessment / Board Evaluation

- The Board has entrusted the Nominating Committee with the responsibility for carrying out the annual performance assessment.
- The Nominating Committee reviews and evaluates the performance of the Board and the performance of the other Committees i.e. Remuneration Committee, Risk Management Committee and Audit Committee on an annual basis against both measurable and qualitative indicators.

4. COMPANY SECRETARY

- The Board appoints the company secretary ("Company Secretary"), who plays an important advisory role, and ensures that the Company Secretary fulfils the functions for which he/she has been appointed.
- The Company Secretary provides guidance to the Board on matters pertaining to the Board's responsibilities in order to ensure that they are effectively discharged within relevant legal and regulatory requirements.
- The appointment and removal of the Company Secretary is a matter for the Board as a whole. The Board recognises the fact that the Company Secretary should be suitably qualified and capable of carrying out the duties required.
- The Company Secretary must keep abreast of, and inform, the Board of current governance practices.

5. BOARD COMMITTEES

- The Board reserves the right to establish committees from time to time in the discharge of its duties and responsibilities.
