SECTION A – DISCLOSURE ON MALAYSIAN CODE ON CORPORATE GOVERNANCE

Disclosures in this section are pursuant to Paragraph 15.25 of Bursa Malaysia Listing Requirements.

Intended Outcome

Every company is headed by a board, which assumes responsibility for the company's leadership and is collectively responsible for meeting the objectives and goals of the company.

Practice 1.1

The board should set the company's strategic aims, ensure that the necessary resources are in place for the company to meet its objectives and review management performance. The board should set the company's values and standards, and ensure that its obligations to its shareholders and other stakeholders are understood and met.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The Board is responsible for the leadership, oversight, control, development and long-term success of the Group. It is also responsible for instilling the appropriate culture, values and behaviour throughout the Group. The Company's Board Charter defines specific duties and responsibilities of the Board which can be found at the Company's website at www.minetech.com.my. The Board plays an important role in overseeing the governance of the Group and in ensuring that the Group's culture and values is set from the top. In carrying out its duties and responsibilities, the Board is assisted by three (3) Board Committees, namely Audit and Risk Management Committee ("ARMC"), Nomination and Remuneration Committee ("NRC") and Investment Committee ("IC"). The Board delegates certain functions to these Committees in accordance with their respective Terms of References. The activities of each Board Committee are set out in the Corporate Governance Overview Statement of the Annual Report 2022. While the responsibility for monitoring the effectiveness of the Group's risk management has been delegated to the ARMC, the Board retains ultimate responsibility for determining the Group's "risk tolerance" and annually considers a report in relation to the monitoring, controlling and reporting of identified risks and uncertainties. In addition, the Board receives regular reports from the Chairman of the ARMC in relation to the work of that Committee in the area of internal control. The Board has conducted an annual review of the Board policies including the Board Charter, Term of References of the Board Committees, Code of Ethics and Conduct, Anti-Bribery Management System Policy, Conflict of Interest Policy, Diversity Policy, Succession Planning Policy, Whistleblower Policy and Directors' and Senior

	Management's Remuneration Policy annually to ensure it remains effective and relevant to the Board's objective and responsibilities.

Practice 1.3

The positions of Chairman and CEO are held by different individuals.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The Board recognises the importance of exercising objective oversight over Management and therefore believes in the separation of the roles of the Chairman and Management. The roles of Chairman and Chief Executive Officer (“CEO”) are undertaken by separate persons and the details of responsibilities are clearly set out in the Board Charter, which is available on the Company’s website at www.minetech.com.my. The position of Chairman is currently held by Dato’ (Dr). Ts. Awang Daud Bin Awang Putera who is responsible for orderly conduct and function of the Board as well as leads and manages the Board by focusing on strategy, governance and compliance. Whereas the position of CEO is vacated since the resignation of the former CEO. Presently, the functions and responsibilities of CEO are performed and held jointly by Executive Directors of the Company. The Board understands the importance of the separation of powers between the CEO and the Chairman to ensure an appropriate balance of role, responsibility and accountability at Board level such that no one individual has unfettered decision-making powers. The Board will identify a suitable, competent and experienced candidate to assume the role of CEO, if necessary.

Practice 4.5- Step Up

The board identifies a designated person within management, to provide dedicated focus to manage sustainability strategically, including the integration of sustainability considerations in the operations of the company.

Note: The explanation on adoption of this practice should include a brief description of the responsibilities of the designated person and actions or measures undertaken pursuant to the role in the financial year.

Application	:	Not Adopted
Explanation on adoption of the practice	:

Intended Outcome

Board decisions are made objectively in the best interests of the company taking into account diverse perspectives and insights.

Practice 5.1

The Nomination Committee should ensure that the composition of the board is refreshed periodically. The tenure of each director should be reviewed by the Nomination Committee and annual re-election of a director should be contingent on satisfactory evaluation of the director's performance and contribution to the board.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The NRC assists the Board in reviewing the required mix of experience and other qualities of the Board on an annual basis, including core competencies which Non-Executive Directors should bring to the Board. During the year under review, the NRC screened the profile of Mr Loke Kim Meng for non-independent non-executive director position before formally considering and recommending for appointment to the Board. Candidates would be required to furnish curriculum vitae containing information on their academic/ professional qualification, work experience and employment history. When considering the Directors for re-election, the NRC considered the following:- <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Director's performance and contribution based on self and peer assessment result from the Board's evaluation;• The Director's level of contribution to the Board deliberations through several aspects, i.e. skills, experience, time commitment, strength in qualities;• The level of independence demonstrated by the Director (if applicable) and the Director's ability to act in the best interests of the Company;• Compatibility within the overall composition of the Board to match the profile and activities of the Company;• Degree of familiarity with the Company's business activities and its operating environment. The NRC is satisfied with the performance and contribution of all Directors of the Board as of the present.

Practice 5.2

At least half of the board comprises independent directors. For Large Companies, the board comprises a majority independent directors.

Application	:	Departure
Explanation on application of the practice	:
Explanation for departure	:	As at 31 March 2022, the Board comprised of one (1) Executive Chairman, five (5) Executive Directors, three (3) Independent Non-Executive Directors and one (1) Non-Independent Non-Executive Director, of which the independent directors represented 30% of the Board composition. The Board is of the view that the current Board composition provides appropriate balance in terms of skills, knowledge and industry experience to lead and oversee the Group. The nominees for the major shareholders are balanced by the presence of the Independent Directors on the Board whose collective views carry significant weight in the Board's deliberation and decision-making process. The presence of Independent Non-Executive Directors of the Company provides check and balance on the Board as they are able to provide unbiased and independent views by taking into account the interests of the Group and minority shareholders, challenge management proposals constructively and review management performance in meeting agreed objectives and targets. All Independent Non-Executive Directors meet the criteria for independence as prescribed under the MMLR of Bursa Securities and no politician is appointed on the Board of the Company as at the date of this report. The NRC and the Board have upon their assessment for the financial year under review concluded that the Independent Non-Executive Directors were independent in their judgment and decisions. The Board aims to move towards adopting Practice 5.2 in the future. However, the Board would not bludgeon through changes for the mere sake of compliance in form. Instead, the Board will search for the right candidates that can contribute to the Group's long term growth strategy.

Practice 5.4 - Step Up

The board has a policy which limits the tenure of its independent directors to nine years without further extension.

Note: To qualify for adoption of this Step Up practice, a listed issuer must have a formal policy which limits the tenure of an independent director to nine years without further extension i.e. shareholders' approval to retain the director as an independent director beyond nine years.

Application	:	Not Adopted
Explanation on adoption of the practice	:

Intended Outcome

Board decisions are made objectively in the best interests of the company taking into account diverse perspectives and insights.

Practice 5.5

Appointment of board and senior management are based on objective criteria, merit and with due regard for diversity in skills, experience, age, cultural background and gender.

Directors appointed should be able to devote the required time to serve the board effectively. The board should consider the existing board positions held by a director, including on boards of non-listed companies. Any appointment that may cast doubt on the integrity and governance of the company should be avoided.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	In recommending the appointment of Directors and senior management, the NRC considers salient attributes such as mix of skills and experience, strengths, expected contribution, independence (where applicable) and the multiple facets of diversity to ensure a balanced mix of talents on the Board and senior management level. The Board, alongside the NRC, undertakes periodic reviews of the composition of the Board and senior management to ensure that they remain diverse, in the context of the needs of the Company's businesses and strategies. The current composition of the Board includes a diverse mix of skill sets, knowledge and experience (eg. leadership, strategic planning, corporate governance, risk management and internal controls, government and policy, business management, and entrepreneurial) and age (range between 38-69). The appointment of senior management personnel is also based on pre-determined criteria that includes skill sets and leadership qualities, driven by their respective job descriptions.

Practice 5.6

In identifying candidates for appointment of directors, the board does not solely rely on recommendations from existing board members, management or major shareholders. The board utilises independent sources to identify suitably qualified candidates.

If the selection of candidates was based on recommendations made by existing directors, management or major shareholders, the Nominating Committee should explain why these source(s) suffice and other sources were not used.

Application	:	Departure
Explanation on application of the practice	:
Explanation for departure	:	The current process with regards to the appointment of new Directors to the Board is based on the recommendation of the NRC. The Board relies on the existing network and referrals from existing Directors, senior management and major shareholders as primary means to source for new Directors as they represent a tried and tested method of sourcing high-calibre directors with a sound understanding of the business. The Directors appointment process is carried out based on methodical and robust process undertaken by the NRC. Candidates recommended are thoroughly assessed based on their competence, integrity, character, time commitment and experience as stated in Paragraph 2.20A of MMLR of Bursa Securities. The Board will consider external and independent sources if applicable. During the financial year ended 31 March 2022, Mr Loke Kim Meng was appointed as Non-Independent Non-Executive Director of the Company.

Intended Outcome

Stakeholders are able to form an opinion on the overall effectiveness of the board and individual directors.

Practice 6.1

The board should undertake a formal and objective annual evaluation to determine the effectiveness of the board, its committees and each individual director. The board should disclose how the assessment was carried out its outcome, actions taken and how it has or will influence board composition.

For Large Companies, the board engages an independent expert at least every three years, to facilitate objective and candid board evaluation.

Note: For a Large Company to qualify for adoption of this practice, it must undertake annual board evaluation and engage an independent expert at least every three years to facilitate the evaluation.
Application	: Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	The Board has adopted a formal and objective annual evaluation of the Board, Board Committees and Directors' performance. The assessment took into account the contribution and performance of the Directors in relation to their competencies, time commitment, and experience in meeting the needs of the Company. The NRC conducted Board assessment via questionnaires on yearly basis. The results and recommendations from the evaluation of the Board and Board Committees are reported to the Board for consideration and action. The results of individual directors' evaluation are also used by NRC to review, where appropriate, the composition of the Board and Board Committees. During the year under review, the Board engages the external Company Secretary who is from an independent external secretarial firm to facilitate the Board evaluation via evaluation forms. Our external Company Secretaries from Boardroom Corporate Services Sdn Bhd assist in the preparation of documents for the annual evaluation and facilitates the evaluation which includes self and peer evaluation. Upon completion of the assessments, the evaluation forms will be submitted to the Company Secretaries for tabulation and the results will be presented to the NRC together with agreed action plans to address the gaps/areas for improvement, if any, for deliberation and onward submission to the Board. Key criteria used in the assessment of the effectiveness of individual Directors during the year were: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Integrity – disclosure of conflict of interest with the Group (if any) and ethical behaviour in managing businesses;

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Professionalism – ability to provide opinion and explanation objectively, technically sound and tactfully on issues discussed; • Availability – responsiveness to enquiries and providing assistance and advice to the Board when outside the boardroom; • Business knowledge – sharing of information or insights to Group’s businesses and formulation of strategies; • Meeting attendance – regularly and timely attendance of Board meetings; • Meeting preparation – well prepared prior to the meetings by reading agenda papers to have a proper and relevant depiction of the issues at hand and understands the technical requirements, risk and management of the Company’s business by providing concrete advice and oversight to the Management on various opportunities and risks; • Board participation – participates actively in Board activities and work constructively with peers; • Relationship with Board members – maintaining good relationship with each Board members and able to communicate persuasively in a clear and non-confrontational manner; • Public Relations – exercise duty of care and professionalism when maintaining contact with all stakeholders; • Contribution and performance – ability to offer practical and realistic advice to Board and/or committee discussions Key criteria used in the assessment of the effectiveness of each Independent Directors during the year included: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Criteria of Independence based on the MMLR of Bursa Securities; and • Attendance of Meeting; • Tenure/ Length of Service as Independent Director in Company. In line with the assessment of Board effectiveness, an assessment of the Board Committees as a function of the Board is also carried out to evaluate the effectiveness of the Committees in meeting the objectives for which they are established. Committee members will assess their roles in assisting the Board to fulfil its responsibilities as delegated to the Committee by its terms of reference. Key criteria used in the assessment of the effectiveness of a Board Committee during the year were: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The right composition of the committee; • Overall effectiveness of committee practice; • Receipt of meeting materials; • Ability to discharge responsibilities, deployment of resources and expertise and provision of useful recommendations to the Board; • Timely dissemination of information; • Committees’ performance. The Board was satisfied with the outcome and that the skills and experience of the current Directors satisfy the requirements of the skills

There is an effective and independent Audit Committee.

The board is able to objectively review the Audit Committee's findings and recommendations.
The company's financial statement is a reliable source of information.

Practice 9.1

The Chairman of the Audit Committee is not the Chairman of the board.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The Chairman of the ARMC is Encik Ahmad Ruslan Zahari Bin Zakaria (“Encik Ruslan”), whilst the Chairman of the Board is Dato' (Dr). Ts. Awang Daud Bin Awang Putera. Having the Board Chairman and Chairman of the ARMC assumed by different individuals allows the Board to review the ARMC’s findings and recommendations objectively. Encik Ruslan was a Chartered Accountant in UK before joining Merchants Business Growth Consulting as its Group Financial Controller in Europe. Upon his return to Malaysia, he joined CIMB Investment Bank Berhad in the Corporate Finance Department and thereafter appointed as ASEAN Regional Director/Managing Director (Malaysia) of Clear Channel Communications Inc, the leading global media organisation listed on New York Stock Exchange. Having vast of experience within the area of finance and accounting, Encik Ruslan was appointed the CEO for several companies in Malaysia. The possession of sound financial understanding and experience equips the Chairman of the ARMC with the ability to lead discussions and deliberations and ultimately be satisfied that the end result fairly reflects the understanding of the ARMC.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The Board considers the Annual General Meeting (“AGM”) as an invaluable platform for shareholders to engage the Board and Management of the Company in a productive and constructive two-way dialogue. As such, the Board strives to ensure that shareholders are accorded with sufficient time to prepare and accord due consideration to the resolutions that will be discussed and decided upon at the AGM. In 2021, the Company issued the 19th AGM Notice on 30 August 2021, i.e. 28 clear days prior to the AGM on 28 September 2021. In 2022, The Notice convening the 20th AGM scheduled to be held on 30 August 2022 is dated 29 July 2022, giving the shareholders 31 clear days’ notice (exclude the day of sending the notice and the day of the meeting). In addition to sending notice, the Company also published the AGM Notice on the nationally circulated newspaper alongside an announcement on the website of Bursa Securities and on its Company’s website. This allows shareholders to have immediate access on the notice of AGM and make the necessary preparations to attend the AGM or to participate, through corporate representatives, proxies or attorneys.

Practice 13.3

Listed companies should leverage technology to facilitate—

- voting including voting in absentia; and
- remote shareholders' participation at general meetings.

Listed companies should also take the necessary steps to ensure good cyber hygiene practices are in place including data privacy and security to prevent cyber threats.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	At the 19th AGM held on 28 September 2021, the Company had conducted its electronic and virtual AGM through live streaming and online remote participation via Remote Participation and Voting facilities (“RPV facilities”) by appointing Tricor Investor & Issuing House Services Sdn Bhd (“Tricor”) as Poll Administrator to conduct the polling process. This is in accordance with Section 327 of the Companies Act 2016 and Clause 64 of the Company’s Constitution which allows for General Meetings to be held at more than (1) one venue using any technology or electronic means. A fully virtual meeting has greatly enhanced the participation of shareholders during the outbreak of Covid-19 pandemic. Shareholders were encouraged to raise questions, suggestions or comments vide typed-text before or during the AGM. All the questions raised by the shareholders were responded. The Administrative Guide which set out all the details on the online AGM was published on the Company’s corporate website to facilitate the shareholders for registering themselves to participate in fully virtual AGM. The RPV facilities enable the shareholders to exercise their right as members of the Company to participate and vote in the 19th AGM. In addition, submission of e-Proxy Form is available on the RPV facilities for shareholders who were unable to deposit the hardcopy of the proxy forms to appoint proxies. During the 19th AGM, all the resolutions were put to vote by means of electronic poll voting using RPV facilities. An independent scrutineer was appointed to validate the poll results. Voting results of the AGM were announced by being displayed on the screen to shareholders/proxies after all resolutions were verified by the scrutineer. Similarly, the Company will hold its 20th AGM fully virtual in 2022 by using RPV facilities. The virtual AGM is in compliance with the Companies Act 2016 and other legal requirements.

	Tricor had adopted cyber hygiene practices to ensure data privacy and security to prevent cyber threats. To this, Tricor had confirmed that it has implemented an Information Technology and Information Security policy, endpoint controls and data classification for cyber hygiene practices of the staff. Stress test and penetration testing had been performed on TIIH Online to test its resiliency. To provide further assurance to the public, Tricor Malaysia is ISO27001 certified in October 2021. In addition to this, the TIIH Online is hosted on a secure cloud platform and the data centre is ISO27001 certified.

The board must ensure that the conduct of a virtual general meeting (fully virtual or hybrid) support meaningful engagement between the board, senior management and shareholders. This includes having in place the required infrastructure and tools to support among others, a smooth broadcast of the general meeting and interactive participation by shareholders. Questions posed by shareholders should be made visible to all meeting participants during the meeting itself.

Note: The explanation of adoption of this practice should include a discussion on measures undertaken to ensure the general meeting is interactive, shareholders are provided with sufficient opportunity to pose questions and the questions are responded to. Further, a listed issuer should also provide brief reasons on the choice of the meeting platform.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The 19th AGM was live streamed for access via TIH Online website at https://tiah.online. The RPV facilities allows meeting participants to join the AGM remotely by using different electronic devices such as smartphones, tablets or computers as well as viewing live webcast of the meeting. TIH Online website also allowed shareholders to pose questions to the Board via type-text. Questions posted by shareholders had been captured and transmitted to the Company for action and response, prior to and during the 19th AGM.
