Intended Outcome

Every company is headed by a board, which assumes responsibility for the company's leadership and is collectively responsible for meeting the objectives and goals of the company.

Practice 1.1

The board should set the company's strategic aims, ensure that the necessary resources are in place for the company to meet its objectives and review management performance. The board should set the company's values and standards, and ensure that its obligations to its shareholders and other stakeholders are understood and met.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The Board of Directors ("Board") is responsible for the performance and affairs of Radiant Globaltech Berhad ("Radiant Globaltech") and its subsidiaries ("Radiant Globaltech Group" or the "Group"). The Board provides necessary leadership which includes practicing a high level of good governance to ensure the long-term success of the Group and the delivery of sustainable value to its stakeholders. In discharging its fiduciary duties and leadership functions, the Board is guided by the Board Charter which sets out the principles and guidelines that are to be applied by the Board. The Board assumes, amongst others, the following responsibilities:- <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Overseeing the conduct and sustainability of the Group's business, assuming the responsibility for succession planning.</li><li>• Reviewing, adopting and approving the Group's overall strategic direction, business plans, key operational initiatives, annual budgets, major acquisitions, disposal of undertakings, capital commitments and funding decisions.</li><li>• Maintaining a sound system of internal control to safeguard shareholders' investments and the Company's assets and reviewing the adequacy and integrity of the system.</li><li>• Assess the training needs of the Directors and ensure Directors have access to a continuing education programme.</li><li>• Responsible for the quality and completeness of the financial statements of the Group and ensuring that they are prepared based on the appropriate and consistently applied accounting policies.</li></ul>

Intended Outcome

Every company is headed by a board, which assumes responsibility for the company's leadership and is collectively responsible for meeting the objectives and goals of the company.

Practice 1.4

The Chairman of the board should not be a member of the Audit Committee, Nomination Committee or Remuneration Committee

Note: If the board Chairman is not a member of any of these specified committees, but the board allows the Chairman to participate in any or all of these committees' meetings, by way of invitation, then the status of this practice should be a 'Departure'.
Application	:	Departure
Explanation on application of the practice	:
Explanation for departure	:	The Chairman of the Board, Dato' Siow Kim Lun is also a member of the ARMC and NRC.
		The Company's Board is moderately sized, consisting of three (3) Independent Directors, and the Chairman of the Board does not hold the position of Chairman for any committees. The Board believes that the diverse skills and competencies of its individual Directors, particularly the Independent Directors, have been instrumental in forming a strong and capable Board. Therefore, the Chairman's involvement in committees is based on their ability to contribute and participate rather than solely on the need for objectivity. Nevertheless, the Board is confident that the objectivity in receiving and assessing committee reports remains uncompromised.

Directors receive meeting materials, which are complete and accurate within a reasonable period prior to the meeting. Upon conclusion of the meeting, the minutes are circulated in a timely manner.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	To facilitate the Directors' time planning, an annual meeting calendar is prepared and circulated in advance prior to the new calendar year. The calendar provides the Directors with the scheduled dates for meetings of the Board and Board Committees, the Annual General Meeting ("AGM") as well as the closed periods for dealings in securities by Directors and principal officers of the Company based on the targeted dates of announcements of the quarterly results. The notice of meetings of the Board and Board Committees are sent to the Directors via emails at least five (5) working days prior to the date of the meetings. Meeting materials are also circulated to Directors at least five (5) business days in advance of the Board and Board Committee meetings to ensure they have been given sufficient time to prepare for the meetings. The Management and other advisers are invited to attend the meetings to report and brief on their respective areas of responsibility, if required. The deliberation and decision of matters discussed in the Board and Board Committees meetings are duly recorded in the minutes of meetings, including whether any Director abstains from voting or deliberating on a particular matter. The minutes of meetings are circulated to the respective Board and Board Committees for review in a timely manner before it is finalised and tabled at the next meeting for confirmation. All the records of proceedings and resolutions passed are kept at the registered office of the Company. For matters which require the Board's decision on an urgent basis outside of Board Meetings, relevant supporting documents along with the Directors' Written Resolution will be circulated for the Board's consideration. All written resolutions approved by the Board will be tabled for notation at the next Board Meeting.

Practice 5.1

The Nomination Committee should ensure that the composition of the board is refreshed periodically. The tenure of each director should be reviewed by the Nomination Committee and annual re-election of a director should be contingent on satisfactory evaluation of the director's performance and contribution to the board.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The NRC oversees the overall composition of the Board in terms of size, a mix of skills, experience and core competencies, as well as the balance between Executive Directors and Independent Non-Executive Directors. The effectiveness of the Board as a whole and the contribution of each Director to the effectiveness of the Board and the contribution of the Board's various committees will be assessed on an annual basis. The Board acknowledges the recent amendments to the Listing Requirements by Bursa Securities on 19 January 2022. According to the new regulations, the tenure of an Independent Non-Executive Director shall not exceed a cumulative term of twelve (12) years effective on or after 1 June 2023. Furthermore, if the Board intends to retain an Independent Non-Executive Director who has served the Board a cumulative term of more than nine (9) years, it must justify its decision and seek the shareholders' approval through a two-tier voting process at a general meeting as recommended by the MCGG. During the FYE 2022, none of our Directors has served the Board as an Independent Director of the Company for a cumulative term of more than nine (9) years. The annual re-election of retiring Directors has been contingent on a satisfactory evaluation of the retiring Directors' performance and contribution to the Board. In addition, the Directors' Fit and Proper Policy serves as a guidance to NRC and the Board for the appointment and re-election of Directors of the Group. Practice 5.4 - Step Up

The board has a policy which limits the tenure of its independent directors to nine years without further extension.

Note: To qualify for adoption of this Step Up practice, a listed issuer must have a formal policy which limits the tenure of an independent director to nine years without further extension i.e. shareholders' approval to retain the director as an independent director beyond nine years.

Application	:	Not Adopted
Explanation on adoption of the practice	:

Intended Outcome

Board decisions are made objectively in the best interests of the company taking into account diverse perspectives and insights.

Practice 5.5

Appointment of board and senior management are based on objective criteria, merit and with due regard for diversity in skills, experience, age, cultural background and gender.

Directors appointed should be able to devote the required time to serve the board effectively. The board should consider the existing board positions held by a director, including on boards of non-listed companies. Any appointment that may cast doubt on the integrity and governance of the company should be avoided.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The Board recognises that a diverse Board in the Company could offer greater depth and breadth compared to a non-diverse Board whilst the diversity at Senior Management will lead to better decisions. The Board appoints its members via a formal and transparent selection process. The NRC is responsible to consider and nominate new candidates for appointment and make the necessary recommendations to the Board for approval. ### Intended Outcome

Board decisions are made objectively in the best interests of the company taking into account diverse perspectives and insights.

Practice 5.6

In identifying candidates for appointment of directors, the board does not solely rely on recommendations from existing board members, management or major shareholders. The board utilises independent sources to identify suitably qualified candidates.

If the selection of candidates was based on recommendations made by existing directors, management or major shareholders, the Nominating Committee should explain why these source(s) suffice and other sources were not used.

Application	:	Departure
Explanation on application of the practice	:
Explanation for departure	:	The members of the Board are to be appointed in a formal and transparent practice as endorsed by the Malaysian Code on Corporate Governance. The NRC will scrutinise the candidates and recommend the same for the Board's approval. In discharging this duty, the NRC will assess the suitability of an individual by taking into account the individual's mix of skill, functional knowledge, expertise, experience, professionalism, integrity and/or other commitments that the candidate can bring to complement the Board. The policies and procedures for the recruitment and appointment of Directors are guided by the TOR of the NRC. The NRC leverages on various sources to gain access to a wider pool of potential candidates. Besides the recommendation from the existing Board members, Management and/or major shareholders, the NRC also considers potential candidates from the industry based on their educational background, skills, and experience. No new Director was appointed to the Board during the FYE 2022. The Board will consider referrals from external sources to identify suitably qualified candidates when the need arises in the future and will not solely rely on recommendations from existing Board members, Management and/or major shareholders.

Practice 5.7

The board should ensure shareholders have the information they require to make an informed decision on the appointment and reappointment of a director. This includes details of any interest, position or relationship that might influence, or reasonably be perceived to influence, in a material respect their capacity to bring an independent judgement to bear on issues before the board and to act in the best interests of the listed company as a whole. The board should also provide a statement as to whether it supports the appointment or reappointment of the candidate and the reasons why.

Practice 5.9

The board comprises at least 30% women directors.

Application	:	Departure
Explanation on application of the practice	:
Explanation for departure	:	The Board currently has one (1) female Director, which represents 20.00% of the Board composition. It reflects the Board’s commitment towards achieving a more gender-diversified Board.
		As at FYE 2022, approximately 30% of the Senior Management team are females.
		Women's representation on the Board and in senior management will be taken into consideration when vacancies arise and suitable candidates are identified, underpinned by the overriding primary aim of selecting the best candidate to support the achievement of the Company’s strategic objectives.
		The Board recognises the importance of diversity and inclusivity in its decision-making process, and thus, has identified the inclusion of more female Directors as a crucial long-term goal. To ensure the successful implementation of this objective, the Board will take incremental steps and establish practical measures within a reasonable timeframe.

Practice 5.10

The board discloses in its annual report the company's policy on gender diversity for the board and senior management.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	In view of the gained attention of boardroom diversity as an important element of a well functioned organisation, the Board has established and adopted a Gender Diversity Policy which provides a framework for the Company to improve its gender diversity at the Board level. The objectives/principles and measures as set out in the Gender Diversity Policy are disclosed in the Corporate Governance Overview Statement (“CG Statement”) in the Annual Report 2022. To avoid any mismatch and ineffective appointment of female Directors, the Board does not set any specific target for female Directors in the Gender Diversity Policy. However, the Board practises non-gender discrimination, endeavours to promote workplace diversity and supports the representation of women in the composition of Board and Senior Management positions of the Company.

Intended Outcome

Stakeholders are able to form an opinion on the overall effectiveness of the board and individual directors.

Practice 6.1

The board should undertake a formal and objective annual evaluation to determine the effectiveness of the board, its committees and each individual director. The board should disclose how the assessment was carried out its outcome, actions taken and how it has or will influence board composition.

For Large Companies, the board engages an independent expert at least every three years, to facilitate objective and candid board evaluation.

Note: For a Large Company to qualify for adoption of this practice, it must undertake annual board evaluation and engage an independent expert at least every three years to facilitate the evaluation.
Application	: Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	The Board recognises the importance of assessing the effectiveness of the individual Directors, the Board and its Committees as a whole. The Board has, through the NRC, conducted an annual evaluation to determine the effectiveness of the Board, its Board Committees, each individual Director and the Group CEO in the FYE 2022. ### Intended Outcome

The level and composition of remuneration of directors and senior management take into account the company's desire to attract and retain the right talent in the board and senior management to drive the company's long-term objectives.

Remuneration policies and decisions are made through a transparent and independent process.

Practice 7.1

The board has remuneration policies and procedures to determine the remuneration of directors and senior management, which takes into account the demands, complexities and performance of the company as well as skills and experience required. The remuneration policies and practices should appropriately reflect the different roles and responsibilities of non-executive directors, executive directors and senior management. The policies and procedures are periodically reviewed and made available on the company's website.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	In view that fair remuneration is crucial to attract, retain and motivate Directors and Senior Management, the Board had adopted a formal and transparent Remuneration Policy that sets out the principles and guidelines for the Board and the NRC to determine the remuneration of Directors and Senior Management of the Company, which take into account the demands, complexities and performance of the Company as well as skills and experience required. The Remuneration Policy is available on the Company's website at www.rgtech.com.my. The remuneration is reviewed by the NRC on an annual basis prior to making its recommendations to the Board for approval. ### Intended Outcome

Companies make informed decisions about the level of risk they want to take and implement necessary controls to pursue their objectives.

The board is provided with reasonable assurance that adverse impact arising from a foreseeable future event or situation on the company's objectives is mitigated and managed.

Practice 10.3 - Step Up

The board establishes a Risk Management Committee, which comprises a majority of independent directors, to oversee the company's risk management framework and policies.

Application	:	Adopted
Explanation on adoption of the practice	:	The ARMC comprises all Independent Non-Executive Directors and its members are listed below:- <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>(a) Tevanaigam Randy Chitty (Chairman);</li><li>(b) Dato' Siow Kim Lun (Member); and</li><li>(c) Mashitah Binti Osman (Member).</li></ul> The scope and function of the ARMC are set out in the TOR which is available on the Company's website at www.rgtech.com.my.

Intended Outcome

Companies have an effective governance, risk management and internal control framework and stakeholders are able to assess the effectiveness of such a framework.

Practice 11.1

The Audit Committee should ensure that the internal audit function is effective and able to function independently.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The internal audit function is outsourced to an independent professional service firm that assists the ARMC in managing the risks and establishing of the internal control system and processes of the Group by providing an independent assessment of the adequacy, efficiency and effectiveness of the Group's risk management and internal control system and processes. The Internal Auditors report directly to the ARMC. The ARMC has the responsibility to review and assess the adequacy of the scope, functions, competency and resources of the internal audit functions. In developing the scope of the internal audit function, the ARMC is satisfied that – <ol style="list-style-type: none"><li>the person responsible for the internal audit has relevant experience, sufficient standing and authority to enable him to discharge his functions effectively;</li><li>the firm appointed to carry out the Group's internal audit function has sufficient resources and is able to access information to enable it to carry out its role effectively; and</li><li>the personnel assigned to undertake internal audits have the necessary competency, experience and resources to carry out the function effectively.</li></ol> The Internal Auditors are precluded from providing any services that may impair their independence or conflict with their role as Internal Auditors. To ensure that the responsibilities of Internal Auditors are fully discharged, the ARMC evaluated the performance of the Internal Auditors for the FYE 2022 based on the following evaluation criteria as set out in the Internal Auditors' Annual Assessment Form:- <ol style="list-style-type: none"><li>Calibre of the internal audit firm;</li><li>Quality of the internal audit engagement team;</li><li>Quality of communication and interaction with the internal auditors;</li><li>Internal audit scope and quality processes;</li><li>Audit Governance and independence; and</li></ol>

	f. Internal audit fee. The ARMC concluded its assessment that the Internal Auditors have sufficient experience and resources to satisfy their TOR and adequately deliver quality services to the Group. The internal audit function is independent of the operations of the Group and provides reasonable assurance that the Group's system of internal control is satisfactory and operating effectively. Areas for improvement are highlighted to the ARMC and the implementation of recommendations has consistently been monitored. The Internal Auditors have provided assurance to the ARMC that none of the internal control weaknesses have resulted in any material losses, contingencies or uncertainties that would require disclosure in the Annual Report 2022. Further details of the internal audit function and activities are set out in the Statement on Risk Management and Internal Control and the ARMC Report in the Annual Report 2022.
