SECTION A – DISCLOSURE ON MALAYSIAN CODE ON CORPORATE GOVERNANCE

Disclosures in this section are pursuant to Paragraph 15.25 of Bursa Malaysia Listing Requirements.

Intended Outcome

Every company is headed by a board, which assumes responsibility for the company's leadership and is collectively responsible for meeting the objectives and goals of the company.

Practice 1.1

The board should set the company's strategic aims, ensure that the necessary resources are in place for the company to meet its objectives and review management performance. The board should set the company's values and standards, and ensure that its obligations to its shareholders and other stakeholders are understood and met.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The Board, with its collective and overall responsibility in leading and directing the Group's strategic affairs, has the ultimate responsibility for corporate governance and formulation of policies and plays a key role in charting the vision, strategic direction, development and control of the Group as well as overseeing the investment of the Company. There is a schedule of matters reserved specifically for the Board's decision which includes reviewing and approving the Group's quarterly and annual results, the business plan, the direction of the Group, new investment and business proposals, the management/performance of the business of subsidiaries, corporate plans and annual budgets, acquisitions and disposals as well as material agreements, major capital expenditures and long-term plans. To ensure the effective discharge of its functions and responsibilities, there is a Business Authority Limits which sets out relevant matters for each of the subsidiaries, delegated to the Management Team led by the Group Managing Director. These authority limits are reviewed and revised as and when required, to ensure an optimum structure for efficient and effective decision-making in the Group. The Business Authority Limits for all the subsidiaries were last reviewed and updated on 21 September 2016 with the approval from the Board. Additionally, the Board assumes, amongst others, the following duties and responsibilities: (a) Overseeing and evaluating the conduct and performance of the Company and the Group; (b) Establishing a succession plan;

- (c) Identifying principal risks and ensuring implementation of a proper risk management system;
- (d) Overseeing the development and implementation of a shareholder communication policy for the Company; and
- (e) Reviewing the adequacy and the integrity of management information and internal controls system of the Company.

In order to create a foundation for ensuring sound, transparent and efficient management, the Board had established a corporate governance system within the organisation which reinforces ethical, prudent and professional behaviour. The Board has set out various key policies which are available for reference on the Company's website:

- (a) Board Charter;
- (b) Fit and Proper Policy;
- (c) Terms of Reference of Audit, Risk Management and Sustainability Committee; and Nomination and Remuneration Committee;
- (d) Code of Ethics and Conduct;
- (e) Whistleblowing Policy; and
- (f) Anti-Bribery and Corruption Policy.

The above policies will be reviewed and updated periodically in accordance with the needs of the Company and any new regulations that may have an impact on the discharge of the Board's responsibilities.

The Board meets at least five (5) times a year, with additional meetings held as and when required by the Board to discuss amongst others the administration and implementation of matters delegated to the Management which is overseen by the Board. The Management's proposals which are reserved for the Board's approvals will be discussed at the Board Meetings where the Board members will have ample time and opportunity to peruse and discuss the proposal as well as seek clarification from the Management team. This practice is put in place to ensure the Management's strategies are in line with the Company's business targets for the year and also for future medium and long-term basis.

The Board also facilitates in matters of risk management, sustainability initiatives, succession planning, developing and implementing investor relations and reviewing internal controls. The Board has delegated specific responsibilities to the following Board committees ("Committees"):

- (a) Audit, Risk Management and Sustainability Committee ("ARMSC"); and
- (b) Nomination and Remuneration Committee ("NRC").

The Board had on 31 October 2023 merged the Audit Committee ("AC") with the Risk Management Committee ("RMC") into a single Board Committee, named as the Audit and Risk Management

	Committee (“ARMC”). Subsequently, the ARMC was renamed as the ARMSC on 29 May 2024. The Board had also on 31 October 2023 merged the Nomination Committee with the Remuneration Committee into a single Board Committee, named as the NRC.

Remuneration policies and decisions are made through a transparent and independent process.

Practice 7.1

The board has remuneration policies and procedures to determine the remuneration of directors and senior management, which takes into account the demands, complexities and performance of the company as well as skills and experience required. The remuneration policies and practices should appropriately reflect the different roles and responsibilities of non-executive directors, executive directors and senior management. The policies and procedures are periodically reviewed and made available on the company's website.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	Clause 6 in the Board Charter outlined the policies and procedures to determine the remuneration of directors and senior management. The Board aims to set remuneration at levels which are sufficient to attract and retain the Directors needed to run the Company successfully, taking into consideration all relevant factors including the function, time commitment and responsibilities involved, but without paying more than is necessary to achieve this goal. The level of remuneration for the Group Managing Director and Executive Directors is recommended by the NRC after giving due consideration to the compensation levels for comparable positions in the market. No Director other than the Group Managing Director and Executive Directors shall have a service contract with the Company. A formal independent review of the Directors' remuneration is undertaken not less than once in every three (3) years.

Intended Outcome

There is an effective and independent Audit Committee.

The board is able to objectively review the Audit Committee’s findings and recommendations. The company’s financial statement is a reliable source of information.

Practice 9.2

The Audit Committee has a policy that requires a former partner of the external audit firm of the listed company to observe a cooling-off period of at least three years before being appointed as a member of the Audit Committee.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The Board recognises the need to uphold the independence of the external auditors from the Board and Management. None of the members of the ARMSC are former key audit partners of external audit firm(s) servicing the Company. The ARMSC had revised the Terms of Reference of the ARMSC which provides a cooling off period of three (3) years for a former key audit partner to observe before being appointed as a member of the ARMSC.

Intended Outcome

There is an effective and independent Audit Committee.

The board is able to objectively review the Audit Committee's findings and recommendations. The company's financial statement is a reliable source of information.

Practice 9.4 - Step Up

The Audit Committee should comprise solely of Independent Directors.

Application	:	Adopted
Explanation on adoption of the practice	:	The ARMSC of the Company comprises solely of Independent Non-Executive Directors.

Intended Outcome

There is an effective and independent Audit Committee.

The board is able to objectively review the Audit Committee's findings and recommendations. The company's financial statement is a reliable source of information.

Practice 9.5

Collectively, the Audit Committee should possess a wide range of necessary skills to discharge its duties. All members should be financially literate, competent and are able to understand matters under the purview of the Audit Committee including the financial reporting process.

All members of the Audit Committee should undertake continuous professional development to keep themselves abreast of relevant developments in accounting and auditing standards, practices and rules.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The ARMSC comprised of three (3) Independent Non-Executive Directors, whom amongst them possess a mix of skills, experience and qualification ranging from chartered accountant, solicitors, directors of several private; and public companies and public listed companies. Financial literacy is part of their qualifications and line of work. The directors undertake continuous professional development as prescribed in the Board Charter.

Intended Outcome

Companies make informed decisions about the level of risk they want to take and implement necessary controls to pursue their objectives.

The board is provided with reasonable assurance that adverse impact arising from a foreseeable future event or situation on the company's objectives is mitigated and managed.

Practice 10.1

The board should establish an effective risk management and internal control framework.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The Group through the ARMSC has established a formal Risk Management Framework, which enables the management and the Board to share a common model for the effective communication and evaluation of all principal risks and controls. The Risk Management Framework covers a broad variety of risks, including but not limited to business continuity issues, governance issues, financial issues and operational issues. A Risk Coordinator has been appointed to administer the Risk Management Framework. Under the Risk Management Framework, for each risk, the root cause is first identified, then the consequence is ascertained and the risk is then classified into either controllable or inherent. Each risk is then assigned two risk scores; one measures the impact and the second measuring the likelihood. These scores are used to determine a risk grade. Finally, control measures and action plans to manage, minimise or mitigate the risks are then identified. All the above mentioned are recorded and updated in the Risk Register which is then used to develop a risk profile for each company. The Risk Coordinator works in conjunction with the management of each subsidiary to work through the Risk Management Framework and updates the Risk Register. The results of this exercise are then reported to the ARMSC, on a quarterly basis. The ARMSC reviews and discusses the risk profiles of the various subsidiaries, taking special note of any changes and developments, the existing controls, action plans in place to manage the risks and any further actions necessary. The ARMSC then reports to the Board on a quarterly basis.
