13.2. Articles of Association

1. The provisions of the Articles of Association of the Company in respect of the arrangements for the transfer of Shares of the Company and the restrictions on their free transferability are as follows:-

Article 43

Subject to the Act, the transfer of any securities or class of securities of the Company shall be made by way of book entry by the Central Depository in accordance with the Rules and, notwithstanding Sections 103 and 104 of the Act, but subject to subsection 107C(2) of the Act and any exemption that may be made from compliance with subsection 107C(1) of the Act, the Company shall be precluded from registering and effecting any transfer of securities.

Transfer of Securities

Article 44

The instrument of transfer lodged with the Company shall be executed by or on behalf of the transferor and the transferee and the transferor shall be deemed to remain the holder of the share until the transferee's name is entered in the Register as the holder of that share.

Execution Requirements

Article 45

The Directors may decline to register any instrument of transfer of shares which are not fully paid (whether these are quoted or otherwise) to a person of whom they do not approve.

Directors' right to decline registration

Article 71

The Directors may (to give effect to such sale referred to in Article 70):

- (1) nominate any person to execute a transfer of the shares sold on behalf of the Members so entitled to or in accordance with the directions of the purchaser;
- (2) enter or have entered the name of the transferee in the Register as the holder of the shares to which such transfer relates,

Nomination of execute transfer

and the purchaser shall not be concerned to ensure that the purchase consideration is properly applied nor shall title to the shares be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings in relation to the sale.

2. The provisions of the Company's Articles of Association dealing with the voting and borrowing powers of the directors are as follows:-

Article 93

In the case of an equality of votes, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, the chairman shall not be entitled to a casting vote in addition to any other vote he may have.

*Chairman has no
casting vote*

Article 118

Subject to the Act, the Memorandum of the Company and these Articles, the business of the Company shall be managed by the Directors who may exercise all the powers of the Company. No alteration of the Memorandum or these Articles shall invalidate any prior act of the Directors which would have been valid if that alteration had not been made. The powers given by this Article shall not be limited by any special power given to the Directors by these Articles and a meeting of Directors at which a quorum is present may exercise all powers exercisable by the Directors.

*General
power*

Article 120

The Directors may delegate any of their powers to any committee consisting of one or more Directors and (if the Directors think fit) one or more other persons co-opted. Such other persons may be given voting rights by the Directors as members of the committee. A committee may consist of a majority of persons who are not Directors. Notwithstanding that a committee may include persons (whether a majority or otherwise) who are not Directors, references in these Articles to a 'committee of Directors' or words to similar effect include a committee which includes members who are not Directors. The Directors may also delegate to any president, vice president, managing director, any Director holding any other executive office, any other Director or such other person as the Directors may think fit such of their powers as they consider desirable to be exercised by him. Any such delegation may be with or without the power to sub-delegate as the Directors may think fit and may be subject to any conditions the Directors may impose, and either collaterally with or to the exclusion of their own powers and may be revoked or altered. Subject to any such conditions, the proceedings of a committee with 2 or more members shall be governed by these Articles regulating the proceedings of Directors so far as they are capable of applying.

*Power to delegate*Article 124

Except as provided by Article 125, the Directors may exercise all the powers of the Company to borrow money, to mortgage or charge its undertaking, property and uncalled capital, and to issue debentures and other securities, whether as primary or collateral security for any debt, liability or obligation of the Company or any other party.

*General borrowing powers*Article 125

The Directors shall not borrow any money or mortgage or charge any of the Company's or its Subsidiaries' undertaking, property or any uncalled capital, or to issue debentures and other securities whether outright or as security for any debt, liability or obligation of an unrelated third party.

*Restrictions on borrowing*Article 144

The quorum for the transaction of the business of the Directors or of a committee of Directors may be fixed by the Directors or the members of the committee (as the case may be) and unless so fixed at any other number shall be 2. A person who holds office only as an alternate Director shall, if his appointor is not present, be counted in the quorum.

*Quorum at Directors' meeting*Article 146

When 2 Directors form a quorum, the Chairman of a meeting at which only such a quorum is present, or at which only 2 Directors are competent to vote in the question at issue shall not have a casting vote.

Where no casting vote

Article 150

Except as otherwise provided by these Articles, a Director shall not vote at a meeting of Directors or of a committee of Directors on any resolution concerning any contract, proposed contract, arrangement or other matter in which he has, directly or indirectly, a personal interest or duty which is material and which conflicts or may conflict with the interests of the Company unless his interest or duty arises only because the case falls within one or more of the following paragraphs:

Disqualification from voting

- (1) any arrangement for giving him any security or indemnity in respect of money lent by him or obligations undertaken by him for the benefit of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries;
- (2) any arrangement for the giving by the Company of any security to a third party in respect of a debt or obligation of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries for which he has assumed responsibility in whole or in part under a guarantee or indemnity or by the giving of a security;

A Director shall not be counted in the quorum present at a meeting in relation to a resolution on which he is not entitled to vote.

Article 152

If a question arises at a meeting of Directors or of a committee of Directors as to the right of a Director to vote, the question may, before the conclusion of the meeting, be referred to the Chairman of the meeting and his ruling in relation to any Director other than himself shall be final and conclusive.

Questions on right to vote

3. The provisions of the Company's Articles of Association dealing with changes in capital and variations of class rights which are as stringent as those provided in the Companies Act, 1965 are as follows:-

Article 12

If at any time the share capital is divided into different classes of shares, the rights attached to any class (unless otherwise provided by the terms of issue of the shares of that class) may (subject to Sections 55 and 65 of the Act and whether or not the Company is being wound up) be varied or abrogated with:-

Variation of class rights

- (1) the consent in writing of the holders of three-fourths of the issued shares of that class; or
- (2) the sanction of a special resolution passed at a separate general meeting of the holders of the shares of that class.

To every such separate general meeting, the provisions of these Articles relating to general meetings shall mutatis mutandis apply, except that the necessary quorum shall be 2 persons at least holding or representing by proxy one-third of the issued shares of the class (but so that if at any adjourned meeting of such holders, a quorum is not present, the holders present, shall form a quorum), and any holder of shares of the class present in person or by proxy may demand a poll.

Article 13

All new issues of securities for which listing is sought shall be made by way of crediting the securities accounts of the allottees or entitled persons with such securities save and except where the Company is specifically exempted from complying with Section 38 of the Central Depositories Act, in which event it shall be so similarly exempted from compliance with this Article. For this purpose, the Company shall notify the Central Depository of the names of the allottees or entitled persons and all such particulars as may be required by the Central Depository to enable the Central Depository to make the appropriate entries in the securities accounts of such allottees or entitled persons. Notwithstanding these Articles, the Company shall comply with the provisions of the Central Depositories Act and the Rules in respect of all matters relating to the prescribed securities.

New issues of Securities

Article 14

Subject to Section 65 of the Act, the rights attached to any class shall not (unless otherwise provided by the terms of issue of such shares) be deemed to be varied by the creation or issue of further shares ranking in any respect pari passu with that class.

No deemed variation

Article 15

Subject to the Act and these Articles, any unissued shares of the Company (whether forming part of the original or any increased capital) shall be at the disposal of the Directors who may offer, issue, allot (with or without conferring a right of renunciation), grant options over, grant any right or rights to subscribe for such shares or any right or rights to convert any security into such shares, or otherwise deal with or dispose of them to such persons at such times and on such terms and conditions as they may determine.

*Issue of securitiesArticle 25

Subject to the Act and these Articles, any preference shares may be issued on terms that they are, or at the option of the Company are liable to be redeemed on such terms and in such manner as may be provided for by these Articles.

*Redeemable preference sharesArticle 27

Preference shareholders shall have:

Rights of preference shares

- (1) the same rights as ordinary shareholders as regards:
 - (a) receiving notices, reports and audited accounts; and
 - (b) attending general meetings of the Company;
- (2) the right to vote any meeting convened for the purposes of reducing the capital, or to wind up the Company and during the winding up of the Company, or disposing the whole of the Company's property, business and undertaking or directly affecting the rights and privileges attached to the shares or when the dividend or part of the dividend on the preference shares is in arrears for more than 6 months;
- (3) the right to a return of capital in the preference to holders of ordinary shares when the Company wound up.

Article 69

The Company may by ordinary resolution:

Consolidation division and cancellation

- (1) consolidate and divide all or any of its share capital into shares of larger amount;
- (2) (subject to Section 62(1) of the Act) subdivide its existing shares or any of them into shares of smaller amount;
- (3) cancel any shares which at the date of the passing of the resolution have not been taken or agreed to be taken by any person and diminish the amount of its share capital by the amount of the shares so cancelled.

Article 72

The Company may by special resolution reduce its share capital and any capital redemption reserve or share premium account in any manner authorised by law.

Reduction of capital

Article 73

Without prejudice to the rights attached to any existing shares or class of shares, the Company in general meeting may by ordinary resolution increase its capital by the creation of shares of such nominal amounts, and carrying such rights and restrictions, as the resolution specifies provided that where the capital of the Company consists of shares of different monetary denominations, voting rights (if specified in such resolution) shall be prescribed in such a manner that a unit of capital in each class, when reduced to a common denominator, shall carry the same voting power when such right is exercisable.

Resolution to increase capital

4. The provisions of the Company's Articles of Association dealing with the remuneration of the directors are as follows:-

Article 110

Subject to these Articles, the remuneration of the Directors shall from time to time be determined by the Company in general meeting but:-

Remuneration

- (1) directors' fees payable to Directors not holding any executive office in the Company shall be a fixed sum and shall not be payable by a commission on or percentage of profits or turnover;
- (2) salaries payable to Directors holding executive office in the Company may not include a commission on or a percentage of turnover;
- (3) all remuneration payable to Directors shall be deemed to accrue from day to day;
- (4) fees payable to Directors shall not be increased except pursuant to a resolution passed by the Company in general meeting, where notice of the proposed increase has been given in the notice convening the meeting;
- (5) any fee paid to an alternate Director shall be agreed between him and his appointor and shall be deducted from his appointor's remuneration.

Article 111

The Directors may be paid all travelling, hotel and other expenses, properly incurred by them in attending and returning from meetings of the Directors or any committee of Directors or general or other meetings of the Company or in connection with the business of the Company.

Expenses

Article 112

The Directors may grant special remuneration to any Director who (on request by the Directors) is willing to:-

*Special
remuneration*

- (1) render any special or extra services to the Company; or
- (2) to go or reside outside his country of domicile or residence in connection with the conduct of any of the Company's affairs.

Such special remuneration may be paid to such Director in addition to or in substitution for his ordinary remuneration as a Director, and may be paid in a lump sum or by way of salary, or by a percentage of profits, or by all or any of such methods but shall not include (where such special remuneration is paid by way of salary) a commission on or a percentage of turnover.

13.3. Directors and Substantial Shareholders

1. The names, addresses and occupations of the directors are set out in Section 1 "Corporate Directory" of this Prospectus.
2. Save as disclosed below, no director or key management and technical personnel is or has been involved in any of the following events, whether in or outside Malaysia:-
 - (a) A petition under any bankruptcy or insolvency laws filed against such person or any partnership in which he was or is a partner or any corporation of which he was or is a director or key personnel;
 - (b) A conviction in a criminal proceeding or is a named subject of a pending criminal proceeding; or
 - (c) The subject of any order, judgment or ruling of any court, tribunal or governmental body of competent jurisdiction permanently or temporarily enjoining him from acting as an investment adviser, dealer in securities, director or employee of a financial institution or engaging in any type of business practice or activity.

Info Era Sdn. Bhd. ("Info Era") is in the process of winding up by the High Court of Malaya at Shah Alam ("High Court"). Goh Kuan Ho, a Non-Executive Director of GHL Systems, was a director of Info Era. She resigned as a director of Info Era on 13 April 1999. Info Era and GHL Systems (previously known as Info Era (Kuantan) Sdn. Bhd.) were subsidiaries of GHL Automation Sdn. Bhd. The petition dated 21 April 1998 to wind up Info Era was initiated by Computerland International Development Inc. (USA) ("Computerland") due to a dispute of USD105,000.00 being fees due and owing to Computerland under a Licence and Master Franchise Agreement dated 13 March 1992 made between Info Era and Computerland. The High Court made an order for the winding-up of Info Era on 30 January 2001.

In view of the above, Goh Kuan Ho is deemed not to be disqualified from being a director of a company pursuant to Section 130A of the Companies Act, 1965 ("Act") based on the following:-

- (a) She has not received and does not expect to receive any notice from the Chief Executive Officer of the Companies Commission of Malaysia or Official Receiver of his intention to make an application against her under Section 130A of the Act; and
 - (b) She is not and has not been subjected to any order made under Section 130A of the Act and is not the subject of any order, judgement or ruling of any court of competent jurisdiction, tribunal or governmental body permanently or temporarily enjoining her from acting as an investment adviser, dealer in securities, director or employee of a financial institution or engaging in any type of business practice or activity.
3. For the financial year ended 31 December 2002, a total sum of RM680,700 was paid to the directors of GHL Systems as remuneration for their service in all capacities to the Company and its subsidiaries. For the financial year ending 31 December 2003, a total sum of RM983,700 is proposed to be paid to the directors of GHL Systems. The directors fall within the following remuneration bands:-

Remuneration Band (RM)	Number of Directors
	Year Ended 31.12.2002	Year Ending 31.12 2003

6. None of the directors or substantial shareholders of the Company or its subsidiary companies has any interest, direct or indirect, in any business carrying on a similar trade as the Company or its subsidiary companies.
7. None of the directors of the Company has any interest, direct or indirect, in the promotion of, or in any assets which have, within the two (2) years preceding the date of this Prospectus, been acquired or proposed to be acquired or disposed of or proposed to be disposed of by or leased or proposed to be leased to, the Company or its subsidiary companies or in any contract or arrangement subsisting at the date of this Prospectus which is significant in relation to the business of the Company and its subsidiary companies taken as a whole, save as disclosed in Section 9.9 "Related-Party Transactions and Conflict of Interest" and Section 13.6 "Material Contracts and Agreements", material contracts no. 1 and 8 and material agreement no. 35, of this Prospectus.

In relation to material contract no. 1, which is the Sale of Software Intellectual Property Agreement between Tay Beng Lock, Yeng Fook Hoo, Joshua Tan Siew Meng and Goh Kuan Ho ("Vendors") and GHL Systems dated 15 December 2000, KPMG Consulting Sdn. Bhd. ("KPMG Consulting"), in its Software Business Evaluation Report dated 27 August 2002 on the four (4) software applications, namely NetSync, NetMerchant, PivotPoints and PayDirect ("Software"), acquired by the Company, had valued the Software at RM6.14 million ("Present Value") and concluded that based on KPMG Consulting's analysis and subject to the assumptions and dependencies detailed in the aforementioned Software Business Evaluation Report, the purchase consideration of RM5.00 million paid by GHL Systems to the Vendors appeared reasonable. In arriving at the Present Value, KPMG Consulting had taken the approach of simulating the calculation of the value of the business generated by the Software as at the beginning of year 2001 using the discounted cash flow methodology, whereby KPMG Consulting had computed the present value of the net income generated by sales attributable to the Software as of 15 December 2000 by taking into account the actual business transacted from January 2001 to June 2002 and the prospective business forecasted from July 2002 to December 2006, as prepared by the Reporting Accountants, Anuarul, Azizan, Chew & Co., and provided by the Company to KPMG Consulting. Neither KPMG Consulting nor any partner or employee of KPMG Consulting undertakes responsibility to any party, other than the Company, in respect of any advice, opinion or information set out in the above-mentioned Software Business Evaluaton Report, including any error or omission therein, howsoever caused.
