Intended Outcome

The board is committed to promoting good business conduct and maintaining a healthy corporate culture that engenders integrity, transparency and fairness.

The board, management, employees and other stakeholders are clear on what is considered acceptable behaviour and practice in the company.

Practice 3.1

The board establishes a Code of Conduct and Ethics for the company, and together with management implements its policies and procedures, which include managing conflicts of interest, preventing the abuse of power, corruption, insider trading and money laundering.

The Code of Conduct and Ethics is published on the company's website.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	<ul style="list-style-type: none">- The Kossan Code of Ethics and Conduct ("KCEC") was adopted to help the Company's employees to make the right choices and to act appropriately in response to ethical behaviour in the work place. The KCEC applies to the Board, management and all employees.- The KCEC covers, among others, the following areas: -<ul style="list-style-type: none">(a) compliance with national laws, rules and regulations of government agencies and authorities;(b) conflict of interest;(c) gifts, entertainments and loans;(d) confidential and proprietary information;(e) anti-corruption;(f) work environment;(g) data protection; and(h) political activities and interest.- The KCEC is extensive but not exhaustive and the Group expects employees to exercise good judgements in their decision making to ensure adherence to highest ethical standards.- The KCEC is published on Kossan's website: www.kossan.com.my as well as in its internal portal.

The board, management, employees and other stakeholders are clear on what is considered acceptable behaviour and practice in the company.

Practice 3.2

The board establishes, reviews and together with management implements policies and procedures on whistleblowing.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	<ul style="list-style-type: none">- Kossan has established a whistleblowing policy with guidelines.- The policy provides an avenue to its employees and the general public to raise concern about malpractice or improper conduct and explains how Kossan will respond. It also gives assurance that all concerns raised will be taken seriously.- Whistleblower can raise a concern in writing to:<ul style="list-style-type: none">o whistleblowing@kossan.com.my; oro auditcommittee@kossan.com.my.- Any concern raised will be deliberated by the Whistleblowing Committee and a decision will be made. The whistleblower will be informed of the outcome.- The policy will be reviewed from time to time to ensure effectiveness.- A whistleblower acting in good faith will be assured of non-retaliation, harassment or victimisation. All concerns raised will be treated in strict confidence.- The whistleblowing policy is available on Kossan's website: www.kossan.com.my as well as in its internal portal.

Intended Outcome

Board decisions are made objectively in the best interests of the company taking into account diverse perspectives and insights.

Practice 4.1

At least half of the board comprises independent directors. For Large Companies, the board comprises a majority independent directors.

Application	:	Departure
Explanation on application of the practice	:
Explanation for departure	:	- The Board currently has nine (9) members, of which three (3) are independent and non-executive. The Board believes the current Board composition has an appropriate mix of skills, expertise and experience, has contributed and will continue to contribute towards the growth of the Company.
		- The Board has deliberated on Practice 4.1 and was of the view that the current practice of the Board, with a fair and adequate representation from the major shareholders, would be in the best interest of the stakeholders.
Large companies are required to complete the columns below. Non-large companies are encouraged to complete the columns below.
Measure	:	The Nominating Committee will continually review on the composition of the Board vis-a-vis the independent directors.
Timeframe	:	Others	5 years

Intended Outcome

Board decisions are made objectively in the best interests of the company taking into account diverse perspectives and insights.

Practice 4.2

The tenure of an independent director does not exceed a cumulative term limit of nine years. Upon completion of the nine years, an independent director may continue to serve on the board as a non-independent director.

If the board intends to retain an independent director beyond nine years, it should justify and seek annual shareholders' approval. If the board continues to retain the independent director after the twelfth year, the board should seek annual shareholders' approval through a two-tier voting process.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	<ul style="list-style-type: none">- The Board Charter provides that the tenure of an Independent Non-Executive Director ("INED") should not exceed a cumulative term limit of nine (9) years. Upon completion of the nine (9) years, an INED may continue to serve on the Board as a Non-Independent Director.- If the Board intends to retain an INED beyond nine (9) years, it shall justify and seek annual shareholders' approval. If the Board continues to retain the INED after the twelfth (12th) year, the Board shall seek annual shareholders' approval through a two-tier voting process as prescribed under the MCGG Practice 4.2.- None of the tenure of the independent directors exceeded a cumulative term limit of nine years.

Intended Outcome

Board decisions are made objectively in the best interests of the company taking into account diverse perspectives and insights.

Practice 4.3 - Step Up

The board has a policy which limits the tenure of its independent directors to nine years.

Application	:	Not adopted
Explanation on adoption of the practice	:

Intended Outcome

Board decisions are made objectively in the best interests of the company taking into account diverse perspectives and insights.

Practice 4.4

Appointment of board and senior management are based on objective criteria, merit and with due regard for diversity in skills, experience, age, cultural background and gender.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	<ul style="list-style-type: none">- The Board and the Nominating and Remuneration Committees take into account the current mix of skills, experience, age, cultural background and gender of the existing Board when seeking potential candidates.- This practice applicable at board level, is extended and applied at senior management level too.- The Board recognises a diverse board and management can lead to greater depth and breadth in decision making.

Intended Outcome

Board decisions are made objectively in the best interests of the company taking into account diverse perspectives and insights.

Practice 4.5

The board discloses in its annual report the company's policies on gender diversity, its targets and measures to meet those targets. For Large Companies, the board must have at least 30% women directors.

Application	:	Departure
Explanation on application of the practice	:
Explanation for departure	:	- While the Board acknowledged the merits of gender diversity towards Board representation, the Board is guided by the principal that appointment of new Board member shall not be biased towards gender but rather the candidate’s skill set, competencies, experience and knowledge in areas identified by the Board.
		- The Nominating Committee is responsible, amongst others, to review the Board composition and make recommendations to the Board for appointment of new directors, if any, by evaluating and assessing the suitability of candidate for the Board. Factors to be taken into consideration include the required mix of skills, knowledge, independence, expertise, experience and other requisite qualities.
Large companies are required to complete the columns below. Non-large companies are encouraged to complete the columns below.
Measure	:	The Nominating Committee will place gender diversity as one of the considerations for new appointment to the Board.
Timeframe	:	Others	5 years

Intended Outcome

Board decisions are made objectively in the best interests of the company taking into account diverse perspectives and insights.

Practice 4.6

In identifying candidates for appointment of directors, the board does not solely rely on recommendations from existing board members, management or major shareholders. The board utilises independent sources to identify suitably qualified candidates.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	<ul style="list-style-type: none">- The candidates for appointment to the Board are sourced from unrelated third parties.- The shortlisted candidates, who were not known to the existing board members, are interviewed by the Nominating Committee and those recommended shortlisted meet with the Board of Directors for approval.

Practice 4.7

The Nominating Committee is chaired by an Independent Director or the Senior Independent Director.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	<ul style="list-style-type: none">- The Nominating Committee oversees matters relating to the nomination of new directors, annual review of the required mix of skills, experience and other requisite qualities of directors and of the Board as a whole. It is also involved in the assessment of directors retiring by rotation.- The Chairman and members of the Nominating Committee are independent directors.
Explanation for departure	:
Large companies are required to complete the columns below. Non-large companies are encouraged to complete the columns below.
Measure	:
Timeframe	:

Intended Outcome

Stakeholders are able to form an opinion on the overall effectiveness of the board and individual directors.

Practice 5.1

The board should undertake a formal and objective annual evaluation to determine the effectiveness of the board, its committees and each individual director. The board should disclose how the assessment was carried out and its outcome.

For Large Companies, the board engages independent experts periodically to facilitate objective and candid board evaluations.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	<ul style="list-style-type: none">- For the year under review, the Nominating Committee being the evaluation committee, undertook an annual evaluation of the Board, board committees and individual directors. This evaluation exercise was facilitated by the Company Secretary.- The evaluation includes the review and evaluation of the performance of the Board as a whole, of individual board member and also peer assessment through the completion of questionnaires on a confidential basis. The Board and Board Committees were assessed as a whole, while Directors were assessed individually.- The Board will endeavour to utilise independent experts to facilitate the evaluation process, as and when appropriate.
