Intended Outcome

Board decisions are made objectively in the best interests of the company taking into account diverse perspectives and insights.

Practice 5.5

Appointment of board and senior management are based on objective criteria, merit and with due regard for diversity in skills, experience, age, cultural background and gender.

Directors appointed should be able to devote the required time to serve the board effectively. The board should consider the existing board positions held by a director, including on boards of non-listed companies. Any appointment that may cast doubt on the integrity and governance of the company should be avoided.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The Board acknowledges the importance of diversity in terms of skills, profiles, age, ethnicity, gender, business experience and personal skills of the Directors and Senior Management. Having a range of diversity brings the necessary perspective, experience and expertise required to achieve effective stewardship and management of the Company's operation. The Nomination Committee is responsible to lead the process for the nomination of new Board appointments and making the necessary recommendations to the Board of Directors. Therefore, in making its recommendations, the Nomination Committee should consider the following criteria of the candidates:- <ul style="list-style-type: none">• qualification;• skills, knowledge, expertise and experience;• specialist knowledge and technical skills;• professionalism;• integrity; and• in the case of candidates for the position of independent non-executive directors, the nomination committee should also evaluate the candidate's ability to discharge such responsibilities/ functions as expected from independent non-executive directors and time commitment to the Company. All appointments will be assessed based on the merits of each candidate and candidates will be considered against objective criteria, having due regard for the benefits of diversity of the Board and workforce.

Practice 5.6

In identifying candidates for appointment of directors, the board does not solely rely on recommendations from existing board members, management or major shareholders. The board utilises independent sources to identify suitably qualified candidates.

If the selection of candidates was based on recommendations made by existing directors, management or major shareholders, the Nominating Committee should explain why these source(s) suffice and other sources were not used.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The Board considers a variety of sources for the identification of suitable candidates. The identification of candidates for the appointment of Directors is facilitated through recommendations from the Directors, Management or external parties, including the Company's contacts in related industries, finance, legal and accounting professions. During the financial year 2022, the Board had gone through a restructuring of Board Composition with the appointments of Dato' Muraly Daran A/L M Narayana Menon, Datuk IR Mohd Dom bin Ahmad and Puan Masleena binti Zaid as the new Independent and Non-Executive Directors of the Group in replacing of Puan Latifah binti Abdul Lattif who has resigned on 10 January 2022 together with Datuk Kamarudin bin Md. Ali and Mr Muk Sai Tat who voluntarily stepped down and resigned effective on 28 February 2022 after the Board has taken into consideration of the latest provisions of the MCCG and MMLR. The Board will ensure that all Directors are appointed on merit, in line with standards as set out in Paragraph 2.20A of the MMLR of Bursa Securities. Although the selection/identification of candidates of appointment was made based on the recommendation from existing Board members, the Board decisions are still made objectively in the best interest of the Company taking into the account the diverse skills, expertise, board composition and perspective of the current Board members.

Intended Outcome

Stakeholders are able to form an opinion on the overall effectiveness of the board and individual directors.

Practice 6.1

The board should undertake a formal and objective annual evaluation to determine the effectiveness of the board, its committees and each individual director. The board should disclose how the assessment was carried out its outcome, actions taken and how it has or will influence board composition.

For Large Companies, the board engages an independent expert at least every three years, to facilitate objective and candid board evaluation.

Note: For a Large Company to qualify for adoption of this practice, it must undertake annual board evaluation and engage an independent expert at least every three years to facilitate the evaluation.
Application	: Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	The Nomination Committee (“NC”) carries out an annual evaluation of the effectiveness of the Board as whole, the Board Committees and the contribution or performance of each individual Director. The NC also assists the Board in assessing the independence of the Independent Directors annually. The annual evaluation, which was internally facilitated, involves individual Director and Committee members completing separate evaluation performance questionnaires regarding processes of the Board and its Committees, their effectiveness and where improvements could be considered. The evaluation results of the following assessment made for the financial year 2022 were presented to the Board on 16 March 2023: <ul style="list-style-type: none">▪ Performance Evaluation Sheet – Section A: Declaration for Fitness & Propriety; Section B : Individual Director’s Self/Peer Evaluation; Section C : Board Evaluation Questionnaire relating to ESG or Sustainability;▪ Board and Board Committee Evaluation Form;▪ Audit Committee Evaluation Form;▪ Audit Committee Members’ Self and Peer Evaluation Form; and▪ Independent Directors’ Self-Assessment Checklist. The assessment and comments by all Directors were summarised and discussed at the NC meeting which were then reported to the Board at the Board meeting held thereafter. These assessments and evaluations carried by the NC are properly documented. During the aforesaid Board meeting, the Board reviewed the evaluation results and concluded that:-

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • All Directors were of the view that each of them performed their respective roles and functions effectively and responsibly. • The Directors were satisfied with the performance with the performance of the Board as a whole. • Each Director was satisfied with each other's contribution in terms of sharing their insights and actively participating in Board and Board Committees discussion. All the Board Committees have discharged their roles and responsibilities as per their Terms of Reference.

The Chairman of the board should ensure that general meetings support meaningful engagement between the board, senior management and shareholders. The engagement should be interactive and include robust discussion on among others the company's financial and non-financial performance as well as the company's long-term strategies. Shareholders should also be provided with sufficient opportunity to pose questions during the general meeting and all the questions should receive a meaningful response.

Note: The explanation of adoption of this practice should include a discussion on measures undertaken to ensure the general meeting is interactive, shareholders are provided with sufficient opportunity to pose questions and the questions are responded to.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The Chairman of Twelfth Annual General Meeting ("12th AGM") ensured that sufficient opportunities were given to shareholders to raise issues relating to the affairs of the Company by providing ample time for the Question and Answer session during the 12th AGM. The Group Chief Executive Officer had presented the following for the for financial year ended 2021 to all participants of the 12th AGM prior to the Question and Answer session for their information:- <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Milestones;• Group Highlights & Prospects;• Financial Highlights – Profit & Loss, Balance Sheet;• Group Highlights in terms of Construction, Property Development divisions and IBS Manufacturing;• Strategic Investments;• Key Environmental, Social and Governance (ESG) Achievements; and• Awards & Recognition. The shareholders and proxy holders can rely on real time submission of typed text to exercise their rights to speak or communicate in a virtual meeting by submitting questions or remarks in relation to the agenda items into the text box given via its online meeting platform, namely Securities Services e-Portal at https://sshsb.net.my/ and to vote remotely without attending the meeting. The results of the RPV have been duly verified by Commercial Quest Sdn Bhd, the independent scrutineer appointed by the Company, and announced by the Chairman at the 12th AGM. The details of the voting results were announced to Bursa Securities on the same day.

	Therefore, the intended outcome of this practice has been achieved as the shareholders were able to participate and engage with the Board and Senior Management effectively to make informed voting decisions at the 12th AGM.
