Practice 5.4 - Step Up

The board has a policy which limits the tenure of its independent directors to nine years without further extension.

Note: To qualify for adoption of this Step Up practice, a listed issuer must have a formal policy which limits the tenure of an independent director to nine years without further extension i.e. shareholders' approval to retain the director as an independent director beyond nine years.

Application	:	Adopted
Explanation on adoption of the practice	:	According to Farm Fresh's Board Charter clause 3.5, the tenure of an independent non-executive director shall not exceed a cumulative term limit of nine (9) years. Upon completion of the nine (9) years, an independent non-executive director may continue to serve on the Board as a non-independent non-executive director.

Intended Outcome

Board decisions are made objectively in the best interests of the company taking into account diverse perspectives and insights.

Practice 5.5

Appointment of board and senior management are based on objective criteria, merit and with due regard for diversity in skills, experience, age, cultural background and gender.

Directors appointed should be able to devote the required time to serve the board effectively. The board should consider the existing board positions held by a director, including on boards of non-listed companies. Any appointment that may cast doubt on the integrity and governance of the company should be avoided.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	NRC ensures the appointment of director and senior management are based on objective criteria, merit and with due regard for diversity in skills, experience, age, cultural background and gender. The appointment of directors and senior management and their continuation of services are recommended by the NRC for Board approval. Terms of Reference of the NRC is available on Farm Fresh’s website at https://www.farmfresh.com.my/investor-relations/
