The board is committed to promoting good business conduct and maintaining a healthy corporate culture that engenders integrity, transparency and fairness.

The board, management, employees and other stakeholders are clear on what is considered acceptable behaviour and practice in the company.

Practice 3.1

The board establishes a Code of Conduct and Ethics for the company, and together with management implements its policies and procedures, which include managing conflicts of interest, preventing the abuse of power, corruption, insider trading and money laundering.

The Code of Conduct and Ethics is published on the company's website.

Application :	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice :	The Board has established a Code of Business Conduct ("COBC") which applies to all Directors and employees of the Group to promote a safe working environment, and good business conduct and maintain a healthy corporate culture that engenders integrity, transparency, and fairness. The COBC serves as a guide for the Company's Directors and employees to observe ethical and legal business standards when dealing with other parties and when performing their daily duties at the workplace to ensure that the Company's business interactions are in accordance with the highest standard of personal and professional integrity. Contractors, sub-contractors, consultants, agents, representatives, and others performing work or services for or on behalf of the Group are expected to comply with the relevant COBC when performing such works or services. All employees of the Group are required to read and sign off their commitment to always observe and adhere to the COBC during their services with the Group. The Group has established the Anti-Bribery Management System ("ABMS") to address the corporate liability provision under Section 17A of the Malaysian Anti-Corruption Commission (Amendment) Act 2018. The Group adheres to a zero-tolerance approach to bribery and corruption, as outlined in our Anti-Bribery and Corruption ("ABC") Policy to govern our activities and serves as a guiding framework for all employees to act professionally, fairly and with integrity in all our business dealings. The Group established Standard Operating Procedures and Guidelines under AMBS as follows: • Guideline on Declaring Conflict of Interest • Guideline on Providing and Receiving Gifts, Entertainment, Hospitality and Travel • Guideline on Granting of Donations and Sponsorships • Guideline on Due Diligence on Employees and Business Associates • Guideline on Training and Communication

	The Group organised a training session for all employees and provided virtual training on corporate liability to Directors and Senior Management to raise awareness of the ABC policy. The COBC and ABC Policy are published on the Company's corporate website at https://reservoirlink.com and they will be reviewed from time to time by the Board to ensure that it continues to remain relevant and appropriate.

Practice 4.1

The board together with management takes responsibility for the governance of sustainability in the company including setting the company's sustainability strategies, priorities and targets.

The board takes into account sustainability considerations when exercising its duties including among others the development and implementation of company strategies, business plans, major plans of action and risk management.

Strategic management of material sustainability matters should be driven by senior management.

Application :	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice :	The Board has on 25 August 2021, alongside its subsidiaries, instituted the Sustainability Policy for the Group and subsequently reviewed and amended on 25 August 2023. The policy is to reaffirm the Group's strategic importance of sustainability to build a sustainable enterprise. The policy further covers the Board's three sustainability principles; Economic, Environment, and Social ("EES") with it being exquisite in the Board's practices. The Senior Management is responsible for developing coordinating and implementing the Company's sustainability strategy to ensure that is embedded throughout the organization. This policy is reviewed periodically and may be amended as it is deemed appropriate to ensure its relevance and effectiveness. The details of the Sustainability Policy can be found on the Company's corporate website at https://reservoirlink.com. A strong governance structure has been put in place to ensure timely and direct execution of programs that drive the achievement of our sustainability goals for the FPE2023. The Group's business affairs are overseen by RLEB's board of Directors. The board's primary responsibilities include providing leadership on RLEB's overall strategy, which takes into account our material sustainability matters. The Senior Management is responsible for developing, coordinating and implementing our sustainability strategy to ensure that it is embedded throughout the organisation. Within their functions, Senior Management ensures cross-functional alignment, transparent end-to-end management, and the execution of agreed-upon sustainability goals by operational management in their operational activities.

Note: To qualify for adoption of this Step Up practice, a listed issuer must have a formal policy which limits the tenure of an independent director to nine years without further extension i.e. shareholders' approval to retain the director as an independent director beyond nine years.

Application :	Adopted
Explanation on adoption of the practice :	The Board has set out in its Board Charter that the tenure of its Independent Directors shall be for a cumulative period of nine (9) years from their appointment as Independent Directors. Upon completion of the nine (9) years, the Independent Directors may continue to serve on the Board as Non-Independent Directors. For the FPE2023, none of the Independent Non-Executive Directors on the Board have reached nine (9) years of tenure.

Intended Outcome

Board decisions are made objectively in the best interests of the company taking into account diverse perspectives and insights.

Practice 5.5

Appointment of board and senior management are based on objective criteria, merit and with due regard for diversity in skills, experience, age, cultural background and gender.

Directors appointed should be able to devote the required time to serve the board effectively. The board should consider the existing board positions held by a director, including on board of non-listed companies. Any appointment that may cast doubt on the integrity and governance of the company should be avoided.

Application :	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice :	The Board consists of individuals from diverse professional backgrounds, skill sets and perspectives. This composition and size shall constitute an effective board to facilitate the making of informed and critical decisions. An RNC has been appointed to assist the Board in establishing a formal and transparent procedure for the appointment and assessment of Directors and the board committees. The appointment of new Directors is considered and decided by the Board based on the recommendation of the RNC. The RNC shall consider the required mix of skills, experience, character, commitment, and core competencies which the new Director brings to the Board. The RNC is also authorized to obtain any outside legal or other professional advice in identifying suitably qualified candidates for appointment of new Directors including the advice of independent consultants, to obtain reliable and updated information about remuneration in the marketplace. The RNC has the authority to commission any reports or surveys, which deems necessary to help it fulfil its obligations. Practice 5.10

The board discloses in its annual report the company's policy on gender diversity for the board and senior management.

Application :	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice :	The Company in its Annual Report 2023 disclosed that the Board is supportive of having at least 30% of women on the Board. However, for the best interests of shareholders and the long-term sustainability of the Group’s business, the selection of potential Directors and employees should be based solely on merit, skills and experience, without any bias towards cultural background or gender. As such, the Board upholds the responsibility to ensure that all Director appointments and employee hiring processes are free from any form of discrimination.

Intended Outcome

Stakeholders are able to form an opinion on the overall effectiveness of the board and individual directors.

Practice 6.1

The board should undertake a formal and objective annual evaluation to determine the effectiveness of the board, its committees and each individual director. The board should disclose how the assessment was carried out its outcome, actions taken and how it has or will influence board composition.

For Large Companies, the board engages an independent expert at least every three years, to facilitate objective and candid board evaluation.

Note: For a Large Company to qualify for adoption of this practice, it must undertake annual board evaluation and engage an independent expert at least every three years to facilitate the evaluation.
Application :	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice :	The Board through its RNC independently undertakes an annual evaluation of its performance and the performance of each of the committees as a whole. Areas of assessment include composition, knowledge, skills, and experience. The RNC on 23 March 2022 conducted its annual performance evaluations of the Board and the Board Committees for the financial year under review via questionnaires based on areas assessment mentioned above. Based on the evaluation, the Board and the RNC are satisfied with the overall high rating of the respective evaluations indicating that the Directors and committee members have fulfilled their responsibilities as board and committee members effectively. On 23 March 2022, the RNC also undertook its annual review of the term of office and performance of the AC and its members based on a prescribed set of criteria as set out in the Performance Evaluation Form and the results of the evaluation affirmed that the AC and its members have carried out their duties in accordance with their Terms of Reference. Accordingly, the Board recommended the re-election of the retiring Directors for shareholders' approval at the forthcoming Annual General Meeting to be held on 30 November 2023.

Intended Outcome

The level and composition of remuneration of directors and senior management take into account the company's desire to attract and retain the right talent in the board and senior management to drive the company's long-term objectives.

Remuneration policies and decisions are made through a transparent and independent process.

Practice 7.1

The board has remuneration policies and procedures to determine the remuneration of directors and senior management, which takes into account the demands, complexities and performance of the company as well as skills and experience required. The remuneration policies and practices should appropriately reflect the different roles and responsibilities of non-executive directors, executive directors and senior management. The policies and procedures are periodically reviewed and made available on the company's website.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The Board established and approved the Remuneration Policy and Procedures for Directors and Senior Management on 22 March 2021 as the guiding document for the Board to determine and establish a formal and transparent procedure to structure the parts of remuneration packages for Directors and senior management to attract, motivate, reward, and retain the right talent in pursuing and drive the Company’s long-term goals and ensuring business sustainability and growth. The Remuneration Policy and Procedures for Directors and Senior Management are available on the Company’s corporate website at https://reservoirlink.com. On 23 March 2022, the RNC reviewed the remuneration package for Executive Directors, Non-Executive Directors and senior management and recommended it to the Board on 23 March 2022. The detailed remuneration of Executive Directors, Non-Executive Directors, and the band of key senior management personnel are disclosed in the CG Overview Statement on pages 76 to 77 of the Annual Report 2023.

Intended Outcome

Stakeholders are able to assess whether the remuneration of directors and senior management is commensurate with their individual performance, taking into consideration the company's performance.

Practice 8.2

The board discloses on a named basis the top five senior management's remuneration component including salary, bonus, benefits in-kind and other emoluments in bands of RM50,000.

Application	:	Departure
Explanation on application of the practice	:
Explanation for departure	:	The Company takes cognizance of the need for corporate transparency on the remuneration of key senior management executives, however, the disclosure of the Senior Management Personnel names and the remuneration component including salary and bonus, benefits-in-kind and other emoluments would be unfavourable to the Company due to the intense competition, scarcity for talents and to safeguard its Senior Management retention efforts. Hence, it is of the opinion that the disclosure based on the aggregate total remuneration of the top five (5) key Senior Management with breakdowns in the bands of RM50,000 in number disclosed in the CG Overview Statement on page 77 of the Annual Report 2023 is sufficient.

The Audit Committee has policies and procedures to assess the suitability, objectivity and independence of the external auditor to safeguard the quality and reliability of audited financial statements.

Application :	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice :	The Company has put in place policies and procedures to assess the suitability, objectivity, and independence of external auditors. The AC is responsible for making recommendations to the Board regarding the appointment, re-appointment, or termination of service of the external auditors. For the FPE2023, Messrs. Crowe Malaysia PLT ("Crowe"), the external auditor of the Company has given their assurance to the AC that they are, and have been, independent throughout the conduct of the audit engagement in accordance with the terms of all relevant professional and regulatory requirements. The AC had on 18 March 2022 and 17 October 2023 reviewed and assessed the suitability of Crowe and was satisfied with their performance, technical competence, and audit independence. Having regard to all the factors, Messrs Crowe Malaysia PLT have expressed their decision not to seek re-appointment as the auditors of the Company at the forthcoming 8th AGM. The Audit Committee had on 17 October 2023 conducted an assessment of the suitability and independence of potential firms and subsequently recommended the appointment of Messrs Nexia SSY PLT as the External Auditors of the Company in place of the retiring Auditors, Messrs Crowe Malaysia, for the financial period ending 30 June 2024. The Board concurred with the Audit Committee's recommendation and recommended the same for shareholders' approval at the forthcoming 8th AGM of the Company. Messrs Nexia SSY PLT have consented to act as the auditors of the Company.

Companies have an effective governance, risk management and internal control framework and stakeholders are able to assess the effectiveness of such a framework.

Practice 11.1

The Audit Committee should ensure that the internal audit function is effective and able to function independently.

Application :	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice :	The Group’s internal audit function is outsourced to an independent professional service provider, which adopts the International Professional Practices Framework of the Institute of Internal Auditors, an international professional association of internal auditors, in carrying out internal audit assignments on the Group. During the FPE2023, the AC reviewed the work of the internal audit function, its observations, and recommendations to ensure that the AC obtained the necessary level of assurance with respect to the adequacy and operating effectiveness of the system of internal control. A follow-up visit is to be performed to monitor the implementation progress of audit recommendations to ensure all audit findings and control concerns have been addressed by the management in a timely manner. Further information on the internal audit function is disclosed in the Statement on Risk Management and Internal Control set out on pages 79 to 82 of the Annual Report 2023.
